PREDICTS LANDSLIDE FOR DEM-OCRATS NEXT YEAR.

Signs of Victory for the Democratic Party are Evident Everywhere in Country.

Passing his opinion upon the re salts in Massachusetts, Kentucky and Ohio, and other points where Democratic candidates were elected Tuesday, Governor Judson Harmon of Ohio, Wednesday predicted a national Democratic landslide next year. "The results of these elections have pleased me very much," he said, "and I consider them a forecast of the outcome next year. It is the strongest indorsement of Democracy that has been tendered by voters in recent years. Not only local elections do I consider significant but also the elections in Kentucky, Massachusetts and other points."

Governor Harmon went on to say that the result of the city elections in Ohio show unquestionably that the public is pleased with the present administration, the tax reforms that have been made in Ohio and the management of State offices under Democratic sway.

When asked regarding the Cincinnati results, Mr. Harmon said: "Personally nothing could have pleased me better.
