Orangeburg's Great Fair

PIANO GIVEN AWAY

THE TIMES AND DEMOCRAT VOTING CONTEST NOW ON.

One Handsome Piano, Four New Home Sewing Machines and Thirty Dinner Sets in the List.

A prize voting contest of great liberality is announced today by The Times and Democrat for the purpose of securing the cooperation of all its readers in increasing its already large subscription list and enlarging its wide sphere of usefulness. Never before have the people of this section had the opportunity of winning such big rewards for easy and pleasant work.

The grand prize that The Times and Democrat offers is a big inducement of itself, but in order that everyone may have a chance, the territorial prizes are offered in each district, and into townships, and additional prizes are offered in each district and each township in Orangeburg and Calhoun Counties whose aggregate vote amounts to 100,000 or over.

Any lady or girl can enter the contest and compete for the thirty prizes, provided they live in either Orangeburg or Calhoun County. All who enter stand a chance of securing one of the valuable prizes. It is strictly a competitive contest in which there will be no element of luck or chance, and the result will depend entirely upon the efforts of each contestant.

A committee of prominent citizens will be chosen to count the votes and award the prizes. The motto of this contest will be a square deal to each and every contestant who enters and each one will be absolutely sure of getting fair and impartial treatment. No bonus votes will be given away for work of any kind on the part of contestants, as we do not think that treated exactly the same.

The Times and Democrat will give thirty prizes to the persons receiving the largest number of votes in the contest. To enter this friendly struggle and win one of the prizes will not cost you one cent. It will cost nothing to enter, it will cost nothing to stay in the race and it will cost nothing to win. The prizes will be worth many times the amount that could be earned in a similar space of time by any other means.

The object of the contest is to secure subscriptions to The Times and Democrat. The candidates securing the most votes will take the prizes. The way to secure votes is to get your friends and neighbors to pay a subscription to The Times and Democrat. Candidates can secure subscriptions anywhere in the United States and are not confined to their own district. Write to your friends, no matter where they live.

Cut out a nomination or information blank and mail it to the contest department and we will be glad to send a representative to fully explain the terms of the contest, and if you decide to enter, supply you with a receipt book and all necessary information. Or better still, come to the contest department yourself and have a talk with the manager.

The few weeks of the contest will pass quickly, and if you want to be sure of the piano or one of the other big prizes, an early start is advisable. Get your friends to help you. Those who get the earliest start will have the easiest work. See your friends, relatives and acquaintances and get their support before they promise it to a more enterprising candidate. A little effort now will pay you big dividends.

In order to equalize competition and prevent too many prizes from going to one locality the territory has been divided into four districts and twenty-eight townships. The contestants in the entire territory are at liberty to compete for the grand prize, the contestants in each district contest among themselves for the district prize, and the contestants in each township will contest among themselves for the township prizes.

Under this arrangement the prizes will be scattered over the entire territory and contestants in every part of it will have a chance to secure at least one of them. The contestants in all the four districts have a chance to get the piano, but only the contestants in any district have a chance at the prize in that district. So with the township prizes. Only contestants living in any township can secure the prize for that township.

No person can get more than one prize. The highest vote in the whole territory will entitle the lady who receives it to the piano. The lady receiving the highest vote in each of the four districts will be entitled to the prize of the district in which she may live. The lady receiving the highest vote in each of the townships will be entitled to the prize of the township in which she may live.

It must be expressly understood that the lady who secures the piano will not be entitled to a district prize. The prize in her district must go to the lady residing therein who receives the next highest vote. Nor will the ladies who secure the piano and the four district prizes be entitled to a township prize. The prizes in their townships must go to the ladies residing therein who receives the next highest vote.

Here is Your Chance, Boys.

Congressman Lever will hold a competitive examination on Saturday, December 30, at Columbia, S. C., beginning at 10 a. m., to fill a vacancy from the Seventh Congressional District, at the United States Military Academy at West Point. The examination will be conducted by Prof. E. S. Dreher, assisted by Profs. W. E. Black and S. H. Edmunds. Only actual residents of the District, between the ages of seventeen and twenty-two, suffering from no deformity, who have been vaccinated within one year, who are of good moral character and who are unmarried, are eligible to take the examination. The mental examination will cover algebra, plane geometry, English Grammar, English composition and English literature, geography, history of the United States and ancient history of United States and ancient history of the world. For full particulars by writing Hon. A. F. Lever at Lexington, S. C.

Warren Shoots at Way.

A dispatch from St. George says a preliminary hearing was given Gus Warren Thursday, charged with shooting at John Way, Jr., at the home of the latter with a shotgun. Both parties are highly respected white citizens. The difficulty grew out of ill-feelings that have existed for some time. Warren was held in default of $1,000 bond.

PLEASE AND CALHOUN SHERIFF.

Finds It Hard Which of His Friends to Give Job to.

The St. Matthews correspondent of The News and Courier says the Calhoun County sheriff situation is still hanging fire, while its people are wondering when relief will be obtained and the tension relieved. In the meantime, the Southern Railway is doing a driving business between this point and Columbia and the Governor is not lonely for the lack of Calhoun guests.

Mr. H. C. Pauling, the lone member of the Legislature, who declined the appointment with thanks, returned from Columbia late Thursday afternoon and was interviewed by The News and Courier correspondent. He says that he endorsed Senator Summers' strong backing of his neighbor, Mr. John Rast, of Cameron, and that he informed the Governor, that he is hands-off with the rest of the field.

From other sources it is learned that the Governor balks at Rast, because of the slim vote he (the Governor) received at Cameron last summer, and besides, he and Senator Summers are not political friends. Early in the game, as was expected, the Governor positively stated that none but "my friends" would secure the plum. This county is expecting him to do his duty and give it a sheriff who will walk worthily in the shoes of his efficient and valiant predecessor.

Orangeburg Elks Memorial.

The Elks of Orangeburg will hold their annual memorial services this year on Sunday afternoon, December 3. These services are always appropriate and touching, but they will be more so this year. The exercise will be held at the Academy of Music, and it is hoped and expected that the auditorium will be filled. The program, so far as the music is concerned, will be in the form of a sacred concert, and the Orangeburg Military Band, which will furnish the music for the occasion, is now practicing some very fine selections. There will also be several vocal selections with band accompaniment.

How to See the Comet.

Whoever has the hardihood and scientific zest to arise at five in the morning, climb to the roof of his habitat, or else seek out some windy hill top, and gaze intently toward the dappled east will be rewarded with a sight of Brooks' comet. Little has been said and written concerning this particular sky-gypsy. The fact is this is a dull year for comet shows. It now appears as a hazy star, with a long tail flying upward and is to be seen just a little south of the eastern point of the horizon. And the most opportune hour, as we have said, is 5 a. m.

Clark Calls It Good News.

Speaker Champ Clark is elated over the result of the more important elections throughout the country, as indicated in early returns, and he holds that the news bespeaks endorsement of the work of the last Congress and forecasts the election next year of a Democratic President.

Accused of Wife Murder.

Charged with causing the death of his wife, Etta Richardson Childers, at Leesburg, Va., by placing poison in a bottle of medicine she was using, Mort S. Childers was indicted by the grand jury Monday afternoon.

MY THANKSGIVING PROCLAMATION

I have much to be thankful for this year, 1911.

I thank the public whose favor has enabled me to do the biggest jewelry business between two Thanksgiving Days since my first coming to Orangeburg; and I accept this favor as an obligation on me to still further improve my stock and my service in every possible way.

Especially do I thank the many who, after finding my goods, my prices, and my ways satisfactory to them have spoken words of approval to their friends and so have increased the number of my customers,

Most heartily do I thank the many hundreds of eye-glasses and spectacle customers who have recommended me so kindly to their friends for the satisfaction they have received from wearing my glasses.

Finally I thank you for all past favors and sincerely ask for your further valued patronage.

Having decided to discontinue our dry goods, shoes, clothing, hats, and notions, we will on Nov. 16th place this entire department on sale at and below cost. These goods are new and in good condition. It will pay every one who is in need of dress goods, laces, embroideries, and notions to come and take advantage of their remarkably low prices. Also men's and boy's clothing which will be sacrificed. The shoes and oxfords all new and in style, these are exceptionally good values. For men, women and children hats below cost. This is no fake sale, all of the above mentioned goods will be closed out. Nothing charged at this sale. A word to the wise is sufficient. Come one, come all. The Grocery department will be run on as it is now.
