OFFICIAL PROGRAM OF COUNTY FAIR.

We present below in a brief form the program for the first days of the Fair. The program for the other days will be announced in due time. Tuesday is the biggest day, but both Wednesday and Thursday will run it a close second.

Tuesday, Nov. 14th.

9 a. m.—Gates of the 1911 Fair opens with blowing of siren whistle.
10 a. m.—Great Trades Display Parade, beginning at A. C. L. depot.
10 a. m.—Display of horses and cattle in arena.
10:30 a. m.—Shows on Midway open.

11:00 a. m.—Welcome by J. H. Claffy, President.
11:30 a. m.—Great Educational Day exercises.
(1) Spelling Bee by representatives from County Public Schools.
(2) Presentation of prize to winner of spelling bee.
(3) Announcement and awarding prizes to winners in Boys' Corn Club.
(4) Address by Prof. D. W. Daniel of Clemson College.

(5) Field Day Exercises on Athletic Field conducted by Prof. Norman E. Byrd of Branchville.
(a) 100 yard dash; (b) Running broad jump; (c) Standing Broad Jump; (d) Running High Jump; (e) Standing High Jump; (f) Half mile race. Awarding of school banner to school making largest number of points in all events.

1:00 p. m.—The Rosards in their trick house act, "Katzenjammer Castle."
2:00 p. m.—Automobile and motorcycle races.
3:00 p. m.—High dive of 100 feet into a net.

5:00 p. m.—Fair gates close.
7:00 p. m.—Shows on Midway open.

8:30 p. m.—Coburn's Minstrels at the Academy of Music.
9:00 p. m.—The Rosards in their comic acrobatic act.
9:30 p. m.—Trapeze act performance.

11:00 p. m.—Grounds close.
The trades display will begin at the A. C. L. depot at 10, and coming up Broughton street, through Russell street and Railroad avenue will move to the Fair Grounds. In this parade there will be about forty or more progressive business firms of Orangeburg represented.

The exercises of the day will be distinctly educational. An effort is being made to have the school children march to the grounds in a body, where various competitions between the schools will be entered into. A spelling bee among the representatives of the county public schools, with a prize to the winner will be the first of the exercises. Awarding prizes to the winners of the Boys' Corn Club, a speech by Prof. D. W. Daniel, of Clemson College will follow in the order named. Following Prof. Daniel's speech an athletic contest will be engaged in, and the school scoring the highest number of points will be awarded the banner. These contests will be conducted by Prof. Norman E. Byrd of Branchville.

The auto races are scheduled to start at two o'clock. The rainy weather which has recently been with us has kept the track from assuming an even better condition, but some races will be had. The bad condition of the weather kept many auto owners as many cars have entered into the competition as was wished for.

There will be the Midway with its shows, and especially at evenings this will play an important part. There will be no charge for entrance into the Fair grounds after the exhibits are closed, and this will cause a large number to be present in the evening to join the merry crowd, who will throw confetti, etc.
There will be several free acts each day, one of them being a 100 feet dive into a net. Also there will be some free acrobatic exhibitions. The Midway and the free features will be part of each day's program.

Wednesday, Nov. 15th.

9:00 a. m.—Fair gates open.
10:00 a. m.—Display of horses in arena.
10:30 a. m.—Shows on Midway open.

11:00 a. m.—Free show. The Rosards in their Trick House Act, the Katzenjammer Castle.
11:00 a. m.—Fancy shooting by the Winchester Repeating Arms Co.
11:30 a. m.—Foot ball game, Charleston High School vs. Sumter High School.

12:00 m.—Meeting of Farmers Union.
1:00 p. m.—High dive. Free show.
2:00 p. m.—Horse races.
3:30 p. m.—Trapeze performance.
5:00 p. m.—Fair gates close.
7:30 p. m.—Shows on Midway open.

9:30 p. m.—The Rosards, in their Comic Acrobatic Act. Free show.
11:00 p. m.—Gates close.

The features for Wednesday are the mass meeting of the farmers at 12 o'clock and the football game between Charleston and Sumter High Schools, for the State High School championship. So far neither of these teams have lost a game. The football field is in shape and directly in front of the grandstand. Mr. J. G. Woodward, a member of last year's Clemson Varsity, will be in charge of the game.

The meeting of the farmers is an effort to hold cotton and reduce the acreage next year. Fuller particulars are given in another column.

Thursday, Nov. 16th.

9:00 a. m.—Gates Fair ground open.
10:00 a. m.—Shows on Midway open.

10:00 a. m.—Display of horses and cattle in the arena.
10:30 a. m.—The Rosards in their Trick House Act, Katzenjammer Castle.
11:00 a. m.—Great foot ball game, Clemson vs. Davidson.

12:00 m.—Meeting of the Executive Committee.
1 p. m.—High dive. Free show.
2:00 p. m.—Horse races.
3:30 p. m.—Trapeze performance.
5:00 p. m.—Fair gates close.
7:00 p. m.—Midway opens.
9:00 p. m.—The Rosards, in their Comic Acrobatic Act. Free show.

11:00 p. m.—Fair gates close.
Thursday the biggest football game will be pulled off. Clemson and Davidson engage in a contest for the supremacy of North and South Carolina. This game will be a good one, and all football enthusiasts will be present.

At 2 o'clock Thursday the horse races will take place. These races are looked forward to as eagerly as those of the automobiles. Although the wet condition of the track has kept some from practicing as much as they would have liked to, nevertheless many good races will be seen.

CALL TO FARMERS.

Meeting at Fair Grounds Wednesday, at Twelve O'Clock.

A mass meeting of all the farmers present, whether they are members of the Farmers' Union or not, will be held at the Fair Grounds on next Wednesday, November 15, at twelve o'clock. This meeting will be held for the purpose of giving each and every farmer an opportunity to prove his faith by his works. At the recent Columbia meeting it was decided to have blanks sent all over the State, and get the farmers to sign them, promising to hold a certain number of bales so long a time, and at the same time to reduce their acreage 60 per cent. next year.

The necessary papers have been mailed to the President of the Farmers' Union and the Clerk of Court. Invitations have been sent out for speakers, and it will be a fine opportunity for the farmers present to endorse the movement now on foot and to save the remainder of this crop for better prices. Remember the fight that was won by the farmers of this county twenty years ago against the Jute trust, and make an effort to better the present deplorable condition.

SPECIAL TRAIN.

Coburn's Greater Minstrels.
That big laughing, musical fun shop, Coburn's Greater Minstrels, will be the next attraction at the Academy of Music tonight.

Always a favorite, the company this year promises to outdo its former popularity and establish a record mark both in capacity, business and excellence of program. Manager Coburn has brought together an entirely new organization, new people, new music, new ideas and is keeping to his policy of bigger and better each season.

He believes his patrons want new faces, new acts, new jokes and each season a change completely of environment to keep his attraction up to its high standard in minstrelsy, and spares neither time, money or effort to effect that result. Some splendid voices this year, better than ever, a fine program of the best and latest songs assure a musical treat, while the comedy is in the hands of recognized funny men, whose ability has been established with other attractions of merit and whose antics have secured them a position with this company after careful thought and consideration.

ANYTHING
