

THE CONTEST HAS STARTED

Each Day New Contestants Are Starting We call your Attention to Reserve Votes and Absence of Bonus Votes

NO BONUS VOTES.

One of the most approved features of our contest is that at the closing weeks no huge offers of bonus votes, and by reserving them keep to all. If names of non-subscribers are sent us we will send them sample Napoleon from defeat. So a day well spent in the beginning of the contest will mean the handsome piano. So get busy at once.

RESERVE VOTES FEATURE.

We have arranged so that a contestant can conceal his real number as much as is permissible in fairness. These are sent us we will send them sample Napoleon from defeat. So a day well spent in the beginning of the contest will mean the handsome piano. So get busy at once.

OUR AIDS TO WORKERS.

We will try to help each contestant as much as is permissible in fairness. These are sent us we will send them sample Napoleon from defeat. So a day well spent in the beginning of the contest will mean the handsome piano. So get busy at once.

RACE ENDS FEB. 15.

The race will close Feb. 15, after a three months' run. An hour at the battle of Waterloo would have saved well represented. So a day well spent in the beginning of the contest will mean the handsome piano. So get busy at once.

IS YOUR TOWNSHIP THERE?

On page four we publish the entire list of contestants. Is your township represented? If not, write us at once entering your name as contestant from that township. And you will get ahead of other contestants in your township.
