

Christmas Sale

When you planted your cotton crop you were getting $65.00 a bale. Today however, the market price is only a little over $40.00 a bale. This represents a loss to you of at least one third of your available cash with which to do your Christmas Shopping. We realize this condition of affairs and and to equalize things we are going to give each of our customers a Christmas present. This in dollar and cents will represent a saving of at least 33 to 50c on every dollar spent with us during this sale.

This Sale will enable you to purchase any article of Ready to Wear at a wonderful saving. It will not be necessary for you to wait till after the season is over to get these bargains. You can get them now when you need them and at prices that will make them seem like Xmas gifts. We are doing our share to make everybody happy, do yours by reading every item and come prepared to reap the harvest of Xmas gifts.

SALE BEGINS SATURDAY, DECEMBER 9

"I came 50 miles to fit myself to a KOHN suit"---was said to us the other day. Think what you will do to take advantage of these "live wire" bargains. You will come 25 or 50 miles to save from $5.00 to $15.00 on your garments for the family. On account of the extremely low cash prices which these garments will be sold for, we will make no alterations nor send goods on approval.

Ladies Cloaks and Dresses
