

PROSPERITY NEWS.

Prosperity's Development in the Recent Past and Her Bright Future. Personal Notes.

Prosperity, S. C., October 28.—Mr. E. A. Counts has about completed his residence on Elm Street and expect to move next week.

Mr. R. I. Stoudemayer is rapidly moving along the building of Dr. Jacob S. Wheeler's dwelling on the beautiful site formerly occupied by the door and sash factory. The erection of other buildings is being talked of, and this expansion is in accord with the demand for houses. The future is before us. A new spirit is evident among our people. It is true that there are divisions among us, but common business prudence will direct this to the greater progress of our town. The field is open and is wide enough for the activities of all. Without united action a cotton seed oil mill has been a possibility, and now the open field for a cotton mill is engaging attention, and this opportunity will not be passed over much longer. Our town has had a hard climb up grade and has met with many backsets, but the top of the grade, we believe, is nearly reached. We are not now deploring the want of unity among our people—for unity often produces stagnation—but we would rather set our faces toward the rising sun; and let there be rivalries, even though somewhat bitter at times, still the general good of the town will be subserved. With our two banks as radiating centres, there should go out waves of industrial enterprises that would make joy in our hearts.

This is Fair week and many of our people are going and coming.

Rev. Jas. D. Kinard, of Leesville, is visiting our community this week.

Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Kinard will leave here in a few days for Atlanta, where they will make their future home. We regret, indeed to lose those good people but our good wishes follow them to their future home.

Mr. B. L. Wheeler, who has been at various points serving as mail clerk, has been assigned work between Atlanta and Greensboro. He is here a few days before beginning his new run.

Mr. A. H. Kohn, of Columbia, was with us a part of this week.

Mrs. L. T. Brown, of Spencer, N. C., is here visiting among friends and relatives.

Mrs. A. E. Boines is visiting in town.

Miss Gertrude Simpson, of the Newberry Graded Schools, is spending the Fair holidays in Prosperity.

Mr. J. Burr Stockman was married this week to Miss Cora Boozer. This happy couple will take in the Fair and will make a trip to Jacksonville, Fla., and other points of interest.

Miss Dominick, of Phoenix, Abbeville county, is visiting Mr. A. G. Wise's family.

Mr. F. R. Hunter and John B. Hunter, Esq., of Newberry, were on our streets this week.

Mr. R. H. Russell was with us one day this week.

Letter to Carolina Manufacturing Co., Newberry, S. C.

Dear Sirs: Mr. —, President of a cotton mill at Union, S. C.—he don't want to see his name in print—had two offers of 500 gallons of paint: $1.30 and $2.25. Took the $1.25; and got skinned. He'd have got three-quarters skinned if he'd taken the other.

The $1.30 was full-gallon; the $1.25 was 18 per cent. short. The full-measure paint was adulterated 40 per cent.; the short-measure paint was adulterated 45 per cent., besides benzine in the oil, don't know how much. Devoe lead and zinc wasn't sold in the town then.

It don't pay to monkey with paint. Devoe costs less than any of 'em; not by the gallon, of course; by the house and year. That's how to reckon it. Go by the name. Yours truly, F. W. DEVOE & Co., New York.

P. S.—The Newberry Hardware Co., sell our paint.

IN EVERY CONFLICT

There must be leadership, and in no conflict of modern times is this more applicable than to the battle of leadership in the retail business. Our motto is "A Bigger Dollar's Worth." It's the talk of the town. Our friends in the country have taken it up and are singing our praises. The balmy bracing breezes of the beautiful Autumn mornings have taken it up, and it has been wafted to every hill top and through every valley. The buying public have already announced us the victors, and to the victors belong the spoils.

This space will not admit the mention in detail of the greatest bargains yet offered, but will mention a few items: Zibelines, Cheviots, Serges, Prunellas, Venetians, Soleils, Creponline, Homespun's, Ladies Cloths, Flannels, Casimers, Henriettas—Black and Colors. Everything in Waistings can be found here. Prettiest Furs and Jackets in the city. Call and examine them, no trouble to show goods. Everybody bidden to come, and is welcome to place or the winning side.

Your obedient servant,

S. J. Wooten.
