REV. MR. LONG'S FAREWELL.

An Interesting Service at Colony Sunday—Congregation Presents Token of Esteem.

The Rev. J. J. Long, who resigned some time since as pastor of the Newberry circuit, to accept a call from the Bethlehem pastorate, near Pomaria, preached his farewell sermon in Colony church on Sunday. A large congregation filled the church. The sermon was strong and earnest and well fitted the occasion.

At the conclusion of the sermon Mr. Arthur Kibler asked permission to make a few remarks on behalf of the congregation. With a few feeling words, telling of the love, esteem and gratitude borne their retiring pastor by the congregation he presented to Rev. Mr. Long, on behalf of the congregation, a beautiful silver pitcher and two small silver cups, one for each of the pastor's little sons. The Rev. Mr. Long responded with a good deal of feeling.

NEWS FROM ST. LUKES.

The Rev. S. P. Koon's First Sermon—School Opening With Large Attendance.

St. Luke's, Nov. 2.—The Rev. S. P. Koon preached his first sermon to St. Luke's congregation yesterday morning. The very large congregation which completely filled the church seems to evidence that he will be aided in his work. He and Mrs. Koon have the best wishes of the whole congregation, and are welcome, very welcome, in the community.

St. Luke's graded school opened this morning with sixty-two pupils. Good work is expected this year. The new school house has been completed and has a seating capacity of about 150. Mr. W. F. Bedenbaugh is principal of the school and Miss Essie Moore is assistant. Both are young, but not altogether inexperienced teachers and are alive to their work.

Big Creek school opened on October 26th with Miss Sallie Pugh as teacher. She has taught there several terms and is regarded as a good teacher.

Dr. D. J. Taylor is adding to his dwelling. Dr. J. W. Taylor has already made a valuable addition to his residence.

Messrs. D. J. and N. E. Taylor have moved their saw mill from Mr. G. F. Hunter's to Mr. Henry Wheeler's, near Fairview school house.

IN EVERY CONFLICT

There must be leadership, and in no conflict of modern times is this more applicable than to the battle for leadership in the retail business. Our battle cry is "A Bigger Dollar's Worth." It's the talk of the town. Our friends in every country have taken it up and are singing our praises. The balmy bracing breezes of the beautiful Autumn mornings have taken it up, and it has been wafted to every hill top and through every valley. The buying public have already announced us the victors, and to the victors belong the spoils.

This space will not admit the mention in detail of the greatest bargains yet offered, but will mention a few items: Zibelines, Cheviots, Serges, Prunellas, Venetians, Soleils, Creponline, Homespun's, Ladies Coths, Flannels, Casimers, Henriettas—Black and Colors. Everything in Waistings can be found here. Prettiest Furs and Jackets in the city. Call and examine them, no trouble to show goods. Everybody bidden to come, and is welcome to place or the winning side.

Your obedient servant,

S. J. Wooten.

GEN. EDWARD M'CRADY DEAD.

The Distinguished Carolinian Passed Away In Charleston Sunday Morning.

Charleston, Nov. 1.—Gen. Edward McCrady died suddenly at 6 o'clock this morning at his residence on Church street. Heart disease was the cause of his death. Gen. McCrady's greatest bequest to future generations is his history of South Carolina of which three volumes have been issued.
