

COURT OF GENERAL SESSIONS.

Important Cases, Including Three For Murder, Set For Trial—Minor Cases Yesterday

The court of general sessions for Newberry county convened yesterday morning at 10 o'clock, special Judge H. J. Haynesworth, of Greenville, presiding, in the absence of Judge J. C. Klugh, who is sick.

Solicitor Thos. S. Sease and Stenographer L. L. Motte were on hand ready for duty when court convened. Both these officers of the court are always warmly welcomed when their duties call them to Newberry or at any other time. Solicitor Sease has made an enviable reputation as a prosecutor and as a man who is fearless in the performance of duty.

The following bills were handed the grand jury:

State vs. W. T. Dickert, practicing medicine without a license.

State vs. John Coleman, larceny, privily stealing from the person.

State vs. Robert Johnson, assault and battery with intent to kill and carrying unlawful weapons.

State vs. Henry Johnson, carrying unlawful weapons.

State vs. Ernest L. Glymph violation dispensary law.

State vs. Clarence M. Brooks, murder.

State vs. Dock Robertson and Lou Robertson, obtaining goods under false pretenses.

THE JUDGE'S CHARGE.

Special Judge Haynesworth is a leading member of the Greenville bar and one of the prominent lawyers of South Carolina. He presides with ease and is firm and quick in his decisions. His charge to the grand jury yesterday morning was very clear. The charge was both as to the general and specific duties of the jury. He spoke of the importance of the office of grand juror and the responsibility resting upon one holding that office. He urged a thorough investigation of every county office and every county institution, saying that the supervisor's office was one which should be given special attention. He did not know a more important office. "Look into this office. See how the public funds are being expended and what are the objects. Investigate all these matters and make your presentment."

The jury retired to consider the indictments.

The following true bills were returned yesterday:

Edwards and Gary are represented by

J. B. Hunter, I. H. Hunt, and F. L. Bynum. Sanders is represented by F. H. Dominick. Washington is represented by Cole. L. Blease and L. W. Jones.

THE BROOKS CASE.

The case of the State against Clarence M. Brooks, charged with murder in the killing of a negro in his father's store at Vaughanville several weeks ago, has been set for a day not earlier than Thursday. Brooks is represented by Cole. L. ## A DARING ATTEMPT.

A Man Seeking to Enter Mrs. Fant's House Fired Upon Five Times And Missed.

When Mr. C. E. Fant reached his home on Sunday night he observed a man crouched down on the piazza in front of the door as if trying not to be seen. Mr. Fant at first thought possibly it might be some one he knew but when he approached the man arose and started to make off. Mr. Fant saw he was a negro and fired upon him, missing the first shot he fired again, firing five times in all. He failed to hit, however, and the man made good his escape.

Death of Mrs. Samuel P. Boozer.

Mrs. Matilda Montgomery Boozer, the wife of Mr. Samuel P. Boozer, died at their home on Calhoun street on Friday morning and was laid to rest in Rosemont on Sunday morning. She had been in bad health for quite awhile.

She was the daughter of Rev. A. D. and Eliza Lewis Montgomery. Mr. Montgomery was pastor of the Aveleigh Presbyterian church before the war. Mrs. Boozer was born in Halifax Ga., March 1, 1839. She moved to Newberry with her father in December, 1855, and was married to Samael P. Boozer July 9, 1856. They lived happily together for nearly half a century and on the same place all these years. To them were born eleven children, six of whom survive: Mrs. J. L. Bowles and Mrs. J. H. Hollingsworth of Augusta, Ga.; Mrs. O. E. Johnson, of Charleston, S. C.; Mrs. Robt. D. Smith, of Newberry, and Misses Ethel and Genevieve Boozer.

Mrs. Boozer was a lovable woman and one of the older residents of the town and had a host of friends.

The funeral service was conducted from the Presbyterian church by her pastor, Rev. J. L. Williamson, on Sunday morning, in the presence of a large concourse of sorrowing friends. The Herald & News extends sympathy to the bereaved husband and other members of the family.

Every sack is sold with this guarantee, and if it does not prove as represented, your money will be refunded. "Clifton" is an all-round flour, and is as good for cake and pastry as light rolls and biscuit. T. J. HAYS.

FESTIVAL OF THE REFORMATION.

Appropriate Services in the Lutheran Church Last Sunday—Pipe Organ.

The Festival of the Reformation was appropriately observed in the Lutheran Church of the Redeemer on Sunday. The services both morning and evening were largely attended, and at the evening service the church was closely crowded.

The subject of the morning sermon was "Justification by Faith." The sermon was a clear and eloquent exposition of the truth. At the evening service, which was the regular monthly college night service, the subject of the sermon was "The Life of Faith."

At the morning service the music was furnished by a select choir, and the big pipe organ was played for the first time during a service. Miss Susie Summer presided at the organ and her rendition of the musical programme was beautiful. The power and scope of the instrument could be fully appreciated as the clear, rich notes filled the church.

At the evening service the choir was composed of college students. The service was opened with a voluntary by Mr. Leisch, who gave way at the organ to Mr. Cappelmann, one of the students.

SPECIAL JUDGE WELCH.

Commissioned to Hold The General Sessions and Common Pleas Court for Saluda.

At the request of Chief Justice Y. J. Pope, the Hon. Robert H. Welch, of the Newberry bar, has been commissioned by Governor Heyward special judge to hold the regular term of general sessions and common pleas court at Saluda, commencing December 7. The appointment is made owing to the sickness of Judge Gage, who was to preside.

He has made himself known as one of the State's leading and most successful attorneys and possesses those qualifications which fit him for the bench. During his term as special judge he will be an adornment to the bench of the State, as he has been an adornment to the bar.
