THE PIPE ORGAN RECITAL.

It Was a Rare Musical Treat—The Recital As Judged By a Musician and Lover of Music.

'Too much can not be said in praise of the organ recital by Dr. Charles R. Fisher, Musical Director of the Presbyterian College, Charlotte, N. C., on last Monday evening, in the Lutheran Church of the Redeemer.

The people of Newberry have never enjoyed such a rare musical treat before.

Dr. Fisher handled the instrument with the ease and grace of a skillful artist.

Long before the time for the opening of the recital lovers of music were seen hurrying to the church, and before eight o'clock every seat in the building was taken. During the entire programme Dr. Fisher held the audience in raptured amazement and enjoyment. Not a word was spoken, nor a sound was heard but that of the organ as the people listened in breathless admiration to the grandly sonorous, the soft, mellow, round and fluty tones which pealed forth from the "King of instruments," and made the church ring with such melodies as had never been heard within its walls before.

During the evening the pastor, the Rev. W. L. Seabrook, made a most excellent and appropriate address, which was enjoyed by all present.

Mendelssohn's First Organ Sonata, the opening piece, was worthy of special mention, the grand, solemn tone of the Adagio leading up to the Andante Recitativo and then on to the brilliant and grand Finale.

The soft, sweet Nonette in E Flat, by Chopin, contrasted well with the bright composition of Lemmens.

Schubert's Serenade was most beautifully rendered, the skillful fingers of the artist seeming to interpret the thoughts of the great master with wonderful insight and clearness. The Concert Fantasia "O Sanctissima," by Lux, the familiar composition of Gottschalk and Weber's Oberon Overture were equally enjoyed.

The sweet but plaintive melody throughout Batiste's Pilgrim's Song of Hope, the sad wail of the mourners in Wagner's Chorus of Pilgrims, followed by the bright and quick

Military March by Wely, made a fitting and beautiful close to the charming entertainment.

Words fail to do Dr. Fisher justice, for the rendition of the musical program was beautiful beyond description. A Musician.

In Memoriam.

Mrs. W. D. Suber died last Monday about two o'clock. She was the youngest daughter of Captain and Mrs. John McCarley and, like her mother, was much loved by a number of friends. "To know her was to love her." She was a devoted daughter, a fond mother, a loving wife, and a noble Christian. The one characteristic that marked her life was gentleness, and there is no sweeter thing to be found in woman.

Mrs. Suber was the mother of three children, the youngest being only five weeks old. She had been unwell previous to her death, but was confined to her bed only about ten minutes before she died. It seems that she had a fainting spell from which she never recovered. She leaves, beside her husband and three children, a mother, four brothers and a sister, who are sorely bereaved and who have the heartfelt sympathies of the entire community. Let them remember that, "She is not dead but sleepeth," and think as did the poet when he said:

"But when the sun in all his state Illuminated the eastern skies, She passed through glory's morning gate And walked in paradise." A Friend.

Caution!

This is not a gentle word—but when you think how liable you are not to purchase the only remedy universally known and a remedy that has had the largest sale of any medicine in the world since 1868 for the cure and treatment of Consumption and Throat and Lung troubles without losing its great popularity all these years, you will be thankful we called your attention to Boschee's German Syrup. There are so many ordinary cough remedies made by druggists and others that are cheap and good for light colds perhaps, but for severe Coughs, Bronchitis, Croup—and especially for Consumption, where there is difficult expectoration and coughing during the nights and mornings, there is nothing like German Syrup. The 25 cent size has just been introduced this year. Regular size 75 cents. For sale by W. E. Pelham & Son.

A DIALOGUE.

Say John, I heard you say the other day that Moseley Bros. had the largest and best selected stock of Goods in the County, and they sold them cheaper than any house in the County, in fact any house in the Up Country. I want you to specify and tell me how this is, and how they can do it.

All right—first, their Stock is the largest, because they keep most everything from a Cambric needle to a four horse wagon.

You say best selected?

Yes, their experience in business nearly forty years enables them to make fine selections. They know the wants of the people and are selling goods to the 4 generations.

What a record! You say they sell them cheaper?

Yes, they know the best markets to buy in, and they pay no house rent owing to the immense two store brick building, 100 ft. X 50 ft. and Warehouse adjoining, very small town tax, no water or electric light tax and nothing of the kind, and their expenses for help, etc., are much smaller than many others.

What all do they keep?

O, my! you better say what is it they don't keep? They keep Millinery in profusion, the new and nice things and their business in that line this fall has been wonderful, having handsome orders from two adjacent states and from other towns in our State. They keep Capes and Jackets, Ready Made Skirts, Dress Goods, the new shades and new and nice things, Trimmings, etc., to match. Feather bone Corsets, Towels, Doilies, Lace Curtains, Shirts and Overalls, Knit Garments of most all kinds. All kinds of Notions, Collars, Cuffs, Ties, Scarfs, etc. A full line old reliable Baystate Shoes and beautiful line nice. Dress Shoes—ladies and gents—Kanatena, Autocrat, F. F. V. and Rodcliff. A full line Clothing—boys, youths and mens. Extra Pants, Overcoats, Rubber Coats, etc., Carpets, Rugs and Matting, Art Squares, Hats, Caps, Trunks, Valises, Dressing Cases, Sewing Machines, Groceries of most all kinds. Hardware, Tinware, Crockeryware, Guns, Shot, Powder, Loaded Shells, Primes, Wood and Willow ware Buckets, Tubs, Pails, Baskets—market, lunch, etc. Leather, Harness, Bridles, Saddles, Girts, extra parts for Harness, Lap Robes, Cooking and Heating Stoves, Wash Pots, Cotton Cards and most all kinds of Hardware. Buggy and Wagon material, Buggies and Wagons, Bagging and Ties, Oliver Chilled Plows, Dixie Boy and Carlow. A large line of Furniture including Rocking Chairs, Faced and Oak Bed Room Suits, extra Wash Stands and Dressers, Kitchen Safes, Mattress, Safes, Curtain Poles, etc., and I think most everything else except coffins.

How about clerks?

Polite, kind and nice.

Well I must pay them a visit, you say a little money goes a long ways in that house.

Yes, sir, it does. I mention a few prices to show you I am not lying about what I have told you:
