

WIT BUBBLES IN TOASTS.

Some Humorous Sentiments Pithily Expressed at Banquets.

A publisher once gave the following: "Woman, the fairest work in all creation. The edition is large, and no man should be without a copy."

This is fairly seconded by a youth who, giving his distant sweetheart, said, "Delectable dear, so sweet that one would blush in her presence and recoil stand appalled."

Further, in regard to the fair sex, we have: "Woman, she needs no eulogy; she speaks for herself." "Woman, the bitter half of man."

In regard to matrimony some bachelor once gave, "Marriage, the gate through which the happy lover leaves his enchanted ground and returns to earth."

At the marriage of a deaf and dumb couple some wit wished them "unspeakable bliss."

At a supper given to a writer of comedies a wag said: "The writer's very good health. May he live to be as old as his jokes."

From a law critic: "The bench and the bar. If it were not for the bar there would be little use for the bench."

A celebrated statesman, while dining with a duchess on her eightieth birthday, in proposing her health said:

"May you live, my lady duchess, until you begin to grow ugly."

"I thank you, sir," she said, "and may you long continue your taste for antiquities."—London 'Tit-Bits.

Drinking and Smoking.

"The prevalent idea that drinking and smoking are companion vices is altogether wrong," said a physician who has made a special study of dipsomania. "I find, on the contrary, that the habitual drunkard is not abnormally addicted to the use of tobacco. He may use the weed as a lesser stimulant when not strongly under the influence of alcohol, but when the drink gets firmly entrenched in his system he cares nothing for tobacco, for then it has lost its force and its influence upon his nerves. Of course I mean in extreme cases."

"On the other hand, it is a rather curious fact that in the case of the moderate drinker, who also smokes, the cutting off of his supply of tobacco will increase his appetite for alcoholic beverages, and while at first the liquor will not affect him nearly so much as when he is smoking, in the end it will do him up. Consequently it is safe to assume that the man who always used liquor and tobacco in moderation will, if he gives up tobacco, take more strongly to liquor. In fact, this is no assumption; it has been demonstrated on numerous occasions."—Philadelphia Record.

His Education Wasn't Complete.

No more courteous judge ever presided at a trial than the venerable former justice of the New York court of common pleas, Charles P. Daly. The story is still told among our New York lawyers how on one occasion a young attorney, while trying a case, indulged in considerable vituperation of his opponent's witnesses, finally going so far as to answer the court very sharply when requested to modify his language.

Knowing that Judge Daly was somewhat of a stickler for the dignity of the judiciary, lawyers and court attendants gazed at the offending attorney in amazement.

There was a long interval of silence. Finally the judge leaned over the bench and said, with an ironical smile:

"My young friend, before you are as old as I am you will have learned that it is about as well to read Chesterfield as Blackstone."—Success.

Moslem Women's Freedom.

There has been a vast amount of pity wasted upon the Moslem woman. It may surprise even the woman suffragist to learn that the laws of Mohammed confer upon women a greater degree of legal protection than any code of laws since the middle Roman law. Only the more recent liberties and protection granted to married women by the laws of divorce and the exclusive property rights now in force in the United States can be properly compared to those in Turkey. Under the Moslem laws the provision for securing to the wife the free and uncontrolled possession of her property is minutely stipulated in the marriage contract. A suitable sum is also arranged for her maintenance in accordance with her husband's rank.—Century.

Under the Spell.

Dashaway—A few short hours ago I was sitting with a girl, telling her she was the only one in all the world I ever loved, and so forth and so forth.

Cleverton—And she believed you, didn't she?

"How could she help it? Why, I believed it myself."—Life.

Bravery.

"John," whispered the good woman in the dead of the night, "there are burglars downstairs."

"You go down, dear," replied John sleepily. "They wouldn't dare to strike a woman."

The first steamer on the Thames was the Marjory in 1814. The Richmond followed her a year later.

WATCH THE CASH STORE EVERY DAY THIS WEEK

6 days of Matchless Bargain Giving. Join the happy band of buyers and visit Newberry's Cheapest Dry Goods Store. The store is turned over to you. 6 day sale of foreign and domestic dress goods, 6 day sale of staple every day dry goods, 6 day sale of underwear for men, women and children, 6 day sale of capes, jackets and fur values. The fall business has been the best in our career because the people are finding out every day who sells it for less. Every 24 hours business brings us face to face with new customers that heard about Newberry's Cheapest Dry Goods Store. Hundreds of ladies have told us that we have the Dress Goods stock of the town, more new up to dateness to select from than elsewhere and by the hundreds of new customers that line our counters we hear the words as they are passed along. Cheaper than elsewhere, the same goods. Get in line and follow the crowds. Meet your friends at the Cash Store. Only 39 days until Xmas, The home stretch will be a finisher to all competition. Hunt the Cash Store every day.

Dress Goods.

Tuesday morning at 9 o'clock we throw on big counter near entrance 50 pieces fine West of England Broad Cloth. The worth of this suit material the world over is $1.25 per yard, our 6 day price only 72½c.

100 pieces fine plain and fancy Zibiline the rage for ladies and children suits in all the beautiful shades and patterns, worth up to 80c the yard, our 6 day sale price 46c yd. Don't buy your dress until you visit headquarters.

40 pieces Bauger Venetian in tan, garnet, light blue, gray and brown, priced the state over at 62c, our price 47c yard.

10 pieces 57 inch suiting, the goods that sets the tongues of every cash store shopper talking, for the 6 days selling 48c yd.

Silks, Silks.

6 Day Silk Selling.

20 pieces 36 inch Silk just opened in Pau de Soie and plain Taffeta. We are going to do the silk selling for the next 6 days. Now is your time to buy a fine silk dress or waist for a little money. The silk worms are still thriving and we can get more.

5 pieces 36 inch guaranteed Taffeta, $1.30 kind 89c yard.

5 pieces 36 inch guaranteed Taffeta, $1.50 kind 99c yard.

5 pieces 36 inch Pau de Soie Silk, $1.75 kind, $1.14.

5 pieces 36 inch Pau de Soie Silk, $2.00 kind, $1.24.

Ask for these numbers at Newberry's up to date Dry Goods store.

Underwear

We did the underwear business the last week. If every garment we sold was unraveled it would made a thread fence all around Newberry.

250 Ladies Vests piled near entrance, 11c each.

Hosiery

We have stacked as many feet with Cash Store Stockings as any two stores in Newberry, South Carolina, because we sell the Double Heel and Toe, Extra Heavy Ribbed Hose—3 pairs for 25c For 6 days longer you can get what you want—only 6 pairs to a customer.

Bed Spreads, Comforts, and Blankets

One corner of our store room—the left hand corner, is packed with cold weather Comforts. You can ask prices elsewhere, but only buy at the Cash Store, where prices are lowest.

1,000 Dollars worth of all the newest creations in dress trimmings just landed.

Waistings

On Monday evening we opened 27 pieces the Persian fanciers in White Waistings, has the beautiful finish of Satin, will wash and improve every time. For 6 day selling 24c yard.

Ladies Jackets.

Only 67 left out of the big order of 963 dollars worth—if your size can be found in the lot your price will be considered. For Jackets, Capes and Furs come to see us.

106 Plush Capes slightly damaged in rail road wreck worth $1.50, six day price 98c each.

100 Furs, to close out the lot 98c, worth $1.50.

50 Furs, to close out the lot $1.24, worth $2.00.

20 Furs, to close out the lot $1.48, worth $2.50

500 Towels 4c each.
500 Towels 9c worth 15c each,
300 all Linen Towels worth 30c and 35c only 19c each.

For Men Only

267 Heavy Work Shirts worth 40c and 50c, the taste over our 6 day price, 25c each.

Follow the magnets of low prices. It draws you to Newberry's Cheapest Store.

THE NEWBERRY CASH STORE,

R. M. CALDWELL, Manager.