

CARPENTERS IN INDIA.

They Are Careless About Measurements, Tools and Time. The chief faults of the Indian carpenter are his neglect of accurate measurement, his carelessness with regard to the efficiency of his tools and his lack of perception of the value of time as a factor in the execution of work.

APHORISMS.

Nothing ages like laziness.—Bulwer. The innocent seldom find an uneasy pillow.—Cowper. We can do nothing well without joy and a good conscience, which is the ground of joy.—Dibbes.

The Young Writer.

No young writer in whom the literary aspiration is a passion need or really will be cowed by the array of mighty and expert antagonists in the arena whose names sound and resound so gloriously from the herald's trumpet in full volume re-enforced by past triumphs.

Thief Cleverness.

A magistrate's clerk has been known to have his tie pin stolen while in court, and one in Birmingham a few years ago lost his coat in the same way, but a more remarkable example perhaps of a thief's cleverness under the very eyes of the police was that of the burglar at Clerkenwell who managed to conceal two diamond rings while the police were searching him and passed one of them to his wife in the cell while the police were looking on.

A Lasting Lesson.

"Didn't I tell you not to propose to me again?" "You said something of the kind, but of course it made no impression on me."

Buddhism.

Mrs. Dumm—I see a piece in the paper about some society people being interested in Buddhism. What's that? Mrs. Dumber—Why, I guess that must be the doin's of these young society people that's called "buds."—Philadelphia Ledger.

THE QUALITY OF GENIUS.

Its Practical Absorption of a Man's Best Faculties. To be a great lawyer is incompatible with being a great poet. Nevertheless, Shakespeare was fond of showing his little legal knowledge, and Bacon has written some verse. There have been writers of eminence, like Walter Scott and Thackeray, who were lawyers by profession, but they must have made law quite subordinate to literature, although some of them, like Walter Scott, have got money by following the law.

STEPS THAT BETRAY.

Steps that are quick are indicative of energy and agitation. Tiptoe walking betrays surprise, curiosity, discretion or mystery. Turned in toes are often found with preoccupied, absent minded persons. The miser's walk is represented as stooping, noiseless, with short, nervous, anxious steps.

Box Office Superstition.

A newspaper man was the second in line at the box office of one of the popular theaters on the opening night. The first man asked for four seats, and when he started to pay for them the man in the box office said: "Oh, that's all right. There's no charge at all for those seats."

Wasp's Method of Attack.

Belt in his "Naturalist in Nicaragua" draws attention to the methods of attack used by different species of wasps. One accustomed to animals and not to men takes care to crawl down the outstanding hairs to the skin before inserting its sting, while others which live in the midst of human dwellings fly straight at a man's face.

Art Treasures.

"I understand you have a number of art treasures." "Any number of 'em," answered Mr. Cumrox. "By the way, how would you define an art treasure?" "An art treasure, as nearly as I can figure it out, is something that is considered all the more valuable for being secondhand goods."—Washington Star.

Properly Reproved.

Teller—I cannot cash this check, madam, unless I know who you are. She (haughtily)—I wouldn't accept the money, anyway, from any one who doesn't know who I am.—Exchange.

Mrs. Laura S. Webb, Vice-President Woman's Democratic Clubs of Northern Ohio.

"I dreaded the change of life which was fast approaching. I noticed Wine of Cardui, and decided to try a bottle. I experienced some relief the first month, so I kept on taking it for three months and now I menstruate with no pain and I shall take it off and on now until I have passed the climax."

PROVERBS

"When the butter won't come put a penny in the churn," is an old time dairy proverb. It often seems to work though no one has ever told why.

When mothers are worried because the children do not gain strength and flesh we say give them Scott's Emulsion.

It is like the penny in the milk because it works and because there is something astonishing about it.

Scott's Emulsion is simply a milk of pure cod liver oil with some hypophosphites especially prepared for delicate stomachs.

Children take to it naturally because they like the taste and the remedy takes just as naturally to the children because it is so perfectly adapted to their wants.

For all weak and pale and thin children Scott's Emulsion is the most satisfactory treatment.

We will send you the penny, i. e., a sample free.

Be sure that this picture in the label of every bottle of Scott's Emulsion is the same as the one on the label of the original bottle of Scott's Emulsion.
