

his scare was over found he had choked it to death." I heard of many jokes on the scare, but they have escaped my memory. None knew how the rumor originated.

One of my good and true friends lying in winter quarters at Orange Court House, Va., found an old book, "Outline History of Virginia". It gave an account of the Ned Turner, negro, insurrection in 1833. A negro preacher, Ned, servant of an old widow who indulged him and gave him a horse to ride to his preaching, with fifty others secretly started out killing the whites, women and children, and among others his mistress. They were routed and three of them executed. Ned escaped, but a hunter afterwards hearing his dogs baying found Ned and he too was executed. About this time tobacco peddlers from Virginia were common in Newberry, and it may be that the story started from their relating the Ned Turner raid and locating it in Newberry.

'Tis almost startling to hear the warning of departed time sounding among the tombs and telling the lapse of the hour, which like a billow is tolling us onward to the grave. Adieu.

A TRYING POSITION.

Newberry readers will appreciate this advice

A constant itching tries your patience. Nothing so annoying, nothing so irritating as itching Piles or Eczema. To scratch the irritation makes it worse.

To leave it alone means misery. Some Newberry citizens can tell you how to be free from these troubles. Read the following:

J. M. Ward salesman with S. J. Weston's Gentleman's Furnishing Goods, etc., says: "I used Doan's Ointment for eczema or a breaking out I had on my body and for which I had tried a number of remedies but was unable to get any thing to have any effect upon it, and the affected part was growing steadily larger and bothering me more and more every day. I procured a box of Doan's Ointment at W. E. Pelham & Son's drug store and the first few applications gave me immediate relief. The use of one box completely cured the affliction and there is not a trace of it left. After this satisfactory result I am glad to recommend such a reliable preparation."

MRS. L. S. ADAMS. Of Galveston, Texas.

"Wine of Cardui is indeed a blessing to tired women. Having suffered for seven years with weakness and bearing-down pains, and having tried several doctors and different remedies with no success, your Wine of Cardui was the only thing which helped me, and eventually cured me. It enabled me to build up the weak parts, strengthen the system and correct irregularities."

By "tired women" Mrs. Adams means nervous women who have disordered menses, falling of the womb, ovarian troubles or any of these ailments that women have. You can cure yourself at home with this great women's remedy, Wine of Cardui. Wine of Cardui has cured thousands of cases which doctors have failed to benefit. Why not begin to see well today? All druggists have $1.00 bottles. For any stomach, liver or bowel disorder, Theodore's Back-Draught should be used.
