

USED CATS AS CHIPS.

Poker Game Between Hermits for Championship of Western New York.

A correspondent of The New York Sun at Hamilton N. Y., perpetrates this: The strangest poker game ever played in western New York was fought out two weeks ago by Pete Snelling of this place, better known as the "Cat Hermit," and "Old Man" Booker of Clarkson, likewise a recluse and something of a cat fancier. The two men live about one mile apart, with the town line between them. It was in reality town against town, with cats for chips.

The game grew out of professional jealousy, each of the players pretending to be the boss hermit in point of years, hard luck and number of cats. Last August Old Man Booker happened to meet Pete at the village store, and among other things declared that when it came to poker he could make Pat Sheedy hunt cover.

"I am strong on it," he announced. "I'm husky. I haven't played for years, just because I know there is no one hefty enough to make it interesting."

"If you'll dig up my past you'll find I'm quite a cuss with the pasteboards myself," said Pete.

"Dare you to meet me," cried the Old Man.

"I'm for that. What shall we play for?" asked Pete.

Old Man Booker scratched his rough chin and thought deeply. Then he had an inspiration.

"How are you fixed for cats?" he asked.

"Got about fifty, and twenty kittens," replied Pete.

"All right; let's play for cats," said Booker.

So it was agreed, and two weeks ago the game was pulled off. Booker collected his feline assets and carted them over to Pete's tumble-down farmhouse. Pete had his chips melowing and spitting in an empty room and no time was lost in bringing out a greasy deck of cards, and the game began on a kitten ante and two-cat limit.

On the first hand Pete straddled the ante for one cat, but his boost began to eat up Booker's kittens.

"I'm not going to lose my edge that way," declared Booker. "If you want to fight cats I've got some thorough-breds in that crate."

A compromise was effected by bringing in two big boxes with stout covers, one for kittens and one for cats. Booker refused to play and Pete pulled down the stakes.

On Booker's deal it went into a jackpot and both put up a kitten, as neither had openers.

"Change a cat for me," requested Pete.

Booker pushed two kittens across the board.

On the next deal Booker opened for two cats and Pete drew cards and boosted the sweetening one kitten. Booker drew to a pair of queens and caught a small pair. Pete split a pair of jacks and found a straight. "Oh, I'll bet a kitten," said Booker.

"See your kitten and raise you two cats," Pete came back.

Booker called and lost.

For the next six hands they simply swapped kittens back and forth without getting any action. Then on a jackpot Booker opened for one cat, holding pat a club straight, nine high.

Pete discarded a queen of hearts and caught the ten of diamonds, which gave him a diamond straight, ten high. Then the cats flew into the box fast and furious.

The boxes began to get a bit crowded and a vacant room was used to accumulate the chips. Both men left their cards on the table and stood by their respective cats. As each called his raise he would grab the limit by the necks and toss them into the pot.

"See here, Snell, I'm out of cats, but I've got a show for my stakes," announced Booker as he threw in two kittens and went shy a cat.

"Well, Book, we'll show hands now, or seal up the cards until you can raise more cats. It's a shame to take your cats. I wish you'd call me."

"Not by a long chalk, Snell. I'll never lay down on this hand. I'll die first. Give me ten hours to hustle in for more cats and then we'll show up."

This was agreed to and inside of six hours Booker drove up with twenty cats and six kittens. The limit was raised and the whole bunch of furry chips were deposited in the fighting cat-pot, and the cards were unsealed.

Thus did Snelling win the cat-poker championship of western New York and incidentally break Old Man Booker.

Ashburnham, Ontario, Testifies to the Good Qualities of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

Ashburnham, Ont., April 18, 1903.—I think it is only right that I should tell you what a wonderful effect Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has produced. The day before Easter I was so distressed with a cold and cough that I did not think to be able to take any duties the next day, as my voice was almost choked by the cough. The same day I received an order from you for a bottle of your Cough Remedy. I at once procured a sample bottle, and took about three doses of the medicine. To my great relief the cough and cold had completely disappeared and I was able to preach three times on Easter Day. I know that this rapid and effective cure was due to your Cough Remedy. I make this testimonial without solicitation, being thankful to have found such a God-sent remedy.

Respectfully yours, E. A. LANGFELDT, M. A., Rector of St. Luke's Church. To Chamberlain Medicine Co. This remedy is for sale by Smith Drug Co., Newberry, S. C., Prosperity Drug Co., Prosperity, S. C.

PROFIT

The matter of feed is of tremendous importance to the farmer. Wrong feeding is loss. Right feeding is profit.

The up-to-date farmer knows what to feed his cows to get the most milk, his pigs to get the most pork, his hens to get the most eggs. Science.

But how about the children? Are they fed according to science, a bone food if bones are soft and undeveloped, a flesh and muscle food if they are thin and weak and a blood food if there is anemia?

Scott's Emulsion is a mixed food; the Cod Liver Oil in it makes flesh, blood and muscle, the Lime and Soda make bone and brain. It is the standard scientific food for delicate children.

Send for free sample. Be sure that this picture in the form of a label is on the wrapper of every bottle of Emulsion you buy. Scott & Bowne CHEMISTS, 409 Pearl St., N. Y. 50c. and $1. all druggists.

STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA, COUNTY OF NEWBERRY—IN COMMON PLEAS.

James N. McCaughrin, in his own right and as administrator de bonis non with the will annexed of Robt. L. McCaughrin, deceased, and as administrator of Mattie McCaughrin Gist, deceased, Plaintiff, against Fannie B. McCaughrin et al., and James Y. Culbreath et al., Defendants.

BY VIRTUE OF AN ORDER OF the court herein, I will sell at public outcry on Thursday, the 31st day of December, 1903, on the place known as the Bonham place, at the residence of the plantation, all that tract, plantation or parcel of land belonging to the estate of Robert L. McCaughrin and James Y. Culbreath, situate in Saluda county, in the State aforesaid, containing Twelve Hundred and Eighty-Eight Acres, more or less, on Big Saluda River, bounded by lands formerly belonging to the late Gov. Johnson Hagood, Henry Ellis, Mrs. Cornelia Clary, George Berry, the estate of A. P. Coleman, Matthew Coleman and others. The said tract will be sold in sub-divided tracts as follows, and plats will be exhibited on day of sale, to wit: No. 1, the house tract containing 260 acres, more or less. No. 2, known as the gold mine tract, containing 68 acres, more or less, adjoining Mrs. Cornelia Clary; No. 3, containing 130 acres, more or less, known as the creek tract, fronting on the old Charleston road; No. 4, lying next to the estate of A. P. Coleman, deceased, and Matthew Coleman, containing 255 acres, more or less, fronting on the old Charleston road; tract No. 5, known as the calf pasture, containing 100 acres, more or less, a right of way provided to the settlement road leading from the home place to Matthew Coleman's plantation; tract No. 6, known as the fox den place, containing 240 acres, more or less, with a right of way provided leading to the public road to the ferry; No. 7, containing 235 acres, more or less, known as the ferry place. All of said sub-divided tracts are on public highways except tract No. 5 and tract No. 6, but rights of way are provided as aforesaid.

Terms of Sale: One-third of the purchase money is to be paid in cash, the balance on a credit of one and two years, in equal annual installments, with interest from day of sale at the rate of 8 per cent. per annum until paid in full. The credit portions to be secured by bonds of the purchasers and mortgages of the tracts, respectively, with leave to the purchasers to pay all in cash or any part of the credit portion. At the same time and place I will sell all the personal property on the plantation, consisting of eight mules, farming implements, wagons, corn, fodder, cotton seed, etc. Terms of sale: Cash for the personal property. The above tract is a very valuable cotton and corn plantation, about 13 miles by the steel bridge to Newberry Court House, and about the same distance to Saluda Court House, and about half a mile from Saluda Old Town on the Southern Railroad.
