

SPECIAL JUDGE WELCH.

Resolutions Adopted by the Saluda Bar.
Judge Welch Tenders an Elegant Banquet.

The Saluda Standard says that on Saturday, the 19th, just before the Saluda court adjourned a touching scene took place. Mr. B. W. Crouch offered the resolutions given below, and in doing so he assured the Judge that they were not offered as a matter of form or lip flattery, but as coming in sincerity from the hearts of the members of the bar. His remarks were beautifully appropriate, and he was followed in as appropriate remarks by way of second by each member of the Saluda Bar and Solicitor Thurmond.

THE RESOLUTIONS.

Resolved, 1st. That the members of the Saluda Bar take pleasure in expressing entire satisfaction with the manner in which His Honor, R. H. Welch, Special Judge, has presided at the present term of our Court.

Resolved, 2nd. That we appreciate the fair, able and impartial way in which he has met and passed upon every legal question submitted to him during the entire term.

Resolved, 3rd. That we sincerely appreciate the courteous treatment we have received at the hands of His Honor, and will always cherish in our memories the very pleasant associations of the past two weeks, both socially and professionally.

Resolved, 4th. That should the occasion again ever arise when it will become necessary for a Special Judge to be appointed to hold our Court, we would be pleased to have His Honor commissioned to hold said Court.

Resolved, 5th. That a copy of these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of this Court.

Resolved, 6th. That a copy of these resolutions be engrossed by the Clerk of this Court, and forthwith transmitted to the Hon. R. H. Welch.

As the resolutions were being read and the remarks were being made, it was clearly to be seen that Judge Welch was deeply touched. As the youngest man to don the ermine in this State, yet as having discharged his duty as an able and experienced jurist, he had fully merited the encomiums heaped upon him. At the conclusion of remarks of seconds, His Honor arose and spoke in a tender, feeling way, showing that a responsive chord had been touched. He alluded to that hour as being the happiest hour of his life—a veritable "love feast," as the Methodist people say. That he had come to Saluda under misgivings, but had found the bar as loyal as heart could wish. That his commission, a unique document to him, which he had feared might, on account of the outcome here, prove detrimental to him, he would carry home to the little wife, as the valued treasure of the most important epoch of his life; and to the little child as the heritage that he was proudest to leave to posterity. That whatever station he might ever occupy in life, however exalted, nothing would ever surpass the experience of the hour in which these resolutions were offered.

He thanked the people of Saluda, bar, court officials, jurors, and spectators, for the kind reception given him, and assured them that they would ever live in his memory.

The feeling displayed by Judge Welch was clearly reciprocated on the part of those present, and the incident will not soon be forgotten by any who were there.

JUDGE WELCH TENDERS A BANQUET.

The following is from the Saluda Standard of the same date:

On Friday night, the 18th, Judge Welch tendered Stenographer Macfeat and a few invited friends a banquet at the Wheeler Hotel, which would have done credit to any city cafe. In all, eight or nine courses were served—a fellow forgets, you know—and each was par excellence. The editor was invited, and of course enjoyed it hugely, as in point of preparation and service it was as good as he has ever attended.

Judge Welch held down the head of the table with becoming dignity, while Mr. Macfeat, near the other end, showed rare traits as toastmaster. The following toasts were responded to: Our Judge, Our Stenographer, Solicitor, The Saluda Bar, The Edgefield Bar, The Press, Clerk of Court, Sheriff. Those responding were: Judge Welch, Stenographer Macfeat, Lawyers Bleas, Raunage, Able and Gregory of the Saluda bar, Messrs. Folk, Thurmond, and Simkins of the Edgefield bar, Clerks W. B. Cogburn and M. T. Pitts and Editor Cargile.

Judge Welch closed with a neat speech that was considered by all present as a masterful effort showing a deep feeling of appreciation of ties formed here during the session of court. Not the least thing detracted from the pleasure of the occasion, and it will be long remembered by all who were present.

Hundreds More in Newberry in the Same Plight.

Tired all the time. Weary and worn out night and day. Back aches; side aches. All on account of the kidneys. Must help them at their work.

A Newberry citizen shows you how. P. Lawson, living in Company House P. No 32 employed in the cotton mill says: "Doan's Kidney Pills cured my backache and I have not felt it since using them. Before getting the pills at W. E. Pelham & Son's drug store the pain in my back was constant and I had to quit work several times on account of it. I could not sleep nights, would go to bed tired but after sleeping a couple of hours I would awaken with an awful backache. If I had been laying upon a pile of store it could not have felt worse. I wanted to turn over but the first move I made caused such acute pain that it was something awful. I had no strength in my back and would have to take both hands to pull myself over the terrible pains tearing at me all the time. No remedies I could get benefitted me until I tried Doan's Kidney Pills. I was surprised at the result of their use. I felt better almost at once and since using them the pains in my back have left me. They are a wonderful remedy for the back and kidneys."
