

NO WEDDING, BUT A FUNERAL.

Young Lady Comes from England to be Married, and Finds her Betrothed a Corpse.

McKeesport, Pa., Dec. 27.—After a journey of nearly 4,000 miles, which was to have had its termination at the nuptial altar, Miss Lillian Bennett, of Wednesbury, England, stood to-day in the presence of the remains of her betrothed, Ambrose Good, who was killed in the wreck of the Duquesne limited last Wednesday evening.

Just across the street from the home of Thomas Good stands the cottage which Miss Bennett's intended husband had purchased and furnished for her To-morrow, which was to have been the last day before the wedding, will witness the funeral.

Miss Bennett is profuse in her gratitude for the kindness of the Ellis Island officials and others, but refutes the statement that she is without friends. She says she will probably remain in America.

THE DEVIL QUOTING SCRIPTURE.

Senator Tillman Knows More About the Bible than Bailey.

New York Sun.

The Hon. Joseph Weldon Bailey, of the Constitution and Texas, instructed the Senate of the United States at some length on the history of the Democratic party last week. Comparing its present situation in the senate, where its members, he declared had carried "independence to the point of insubordination," with the splendid discipline of the Republicans, amounting to "subject submission," he cried in ringing tones:

"With such an organization pursuing such a lofty purpose, those who, intoxicated with their power, now affect to despise us shall learn that it is as true in politics as it is in Holy Writ, that 'pride goeth before a fall.'"

The Hon. Benjamin R. Tillman, the Dispensary King, arose slowly. He reproved Mr. Bailey with a glance and said:

"Pride goeth before destruction."

Let the Congressional Record tell the story of this incident:

"Mr. Bailey: The Senator from South Carolina corrects my quotation, and I would be glad to amend by making it 'destruction' if the people will carry his amendment into effect.

"Mr. Tillman: 'Pride goeth before destruction, and a haughty spirit before a fall.'"

"Mr. Bailey: The Senator from South Carolina is so much better versed in the Bible—"

"Mr. Tillman: Than in the law.

"Mr. Bailey: He is so much better versed in the Bible than I am that I always yield to his correction."

Then Mr. Bailey continued his speech, the championship in Biblical research having been bestowed upon Mr. Tillman by the champion of the Constitution. A graceful and touching incident in the lives of two stern statesmen.
