

PURELY PERSONAL

The Movements of Many People, Newberrians, and Those Who Visit Newberry.

I. H. Hunt, Esq., attended circuit court in Columbia this week.

Mr. James W. Henderson went to Columbia Tuesday.

Mr. E. B. Blease, of Charlotte, has been in the city the past several days.

Miss Rebecca Mahon returned last week from Americus, Ga.

H. H. Blease, Esq., has returned from Bennettsville.

Miss Blanche Davidson returned last week from Columbia.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Roland Dickert, of Columbia, paid a brief visit this week to his father, Col. D. A. Dickert.

Mr. Irby D. Shockley, of Orangeburg, last week visited his daughter, Mrs. T. O. Stewart.

Miss Rolle Bahr has returned to Charleston after a very enjoyable visit in Newberry.—Charleston Post, 5th.

Messrs. G. F. Wearn, E. H. Aull and E. L. Crump were in Columbia the first of the week.

Miss Fannie McCaughrin is in Chester attending meeting of the Presbyterian Woman's Missionary union.

Miss Lizzie Salter returned this week from her vacation spent last week in the upper part of the State.

Mr. M. Q. Chappell, who was taken suddenly and severely ill, is improving.

Miss Julia Kibler, of Bamberg, spent the week end with her aunt, Mrs. R. F. Bryant.—Orangeburg Times and Democrat, 6th.

Mrs. L. W. Floyd is recovering in New York from her recent operation for appendicitis, and is improving right along.

Mrs. J. N. McCaughrin and Miss Lucy McCaughrin spent Wednesday in Greenwood with their sister, Mrs. Harper.

Mrs. May and daughter little Miss Carolyn returned to their home in Charlotte, N. C., after a pleasant visit of a few days to Mrs. J. A. Meliau.

Mr. J. L. Long, of Dallas, Texas, vice president and manager of the Practical Drawing company was in town Wednesday and Thursday.

Mrs. C. C. Chase who came from Atlanta last Sunday with the remains of her late husband, will remain sometime in Newberry with her sister, Mrs. O. L. Schumpert.

Mr. R. A. Abrams, now at the head of the Starr school, is here on business.—Anderson Mail, 6th. Robert Abrams, formerly of Newberry, son of Mr. Ivy Z. Abrams.

J. T. Mayes, a merchant of Newberry, was in Columbia yesterday. Mr. Mayes was accompanied home by his son, Ben, who is recovering from a recent operation for appendicitis in a Columbia hospital.—The State, 6th.

Eagle Troop of Newberry boy scouts will hold a meeting at their hall over the Observer office this Friday evening, October 9, at 7:30 o'clock. All boys are invited to attend whether members or not.

Mrs. Jones and Miss Jones, of Newberry, are guests of Mrs. T. A. Scarborough. Mr. T. A. Scarborough was called to Sumter on Saturday on account of the death of his father.—Orangeburg Times and Democrat, 6th.

George S. Mower, of Newberry, who was among those mentioned as a probable candidate for the speakership, is said to have told friends yesterday that he would not be in that race, but might offer for speaker pro tem.—The State, 8th.

Mrs. E. D. Kerr accompanied by Mr. Kerr and Dr. J. M. Kibler, was taken to the hospital in Columbia Monday night and operated on for appendicitis. It was a very severe case and she was in a serious condition. The operation was successful and Mrs. Kerr is recovering.

Capt. and Mrs. William E. Gonzales, their little daughter, Alida, and Miss Greylish reached New York on Thursday last from Rogers Rock, Lake George, where they have been for several weeks.—The State. Miss Greylish is a young lady from Laurens county, known to some of our readers.

VARIOUS AND ALL ABOUT.

All eyes are turned to the allies in Europe.

"Stop Ties" tonight, Thursday, at Opera House. We look for a capacity house.

A number of Newberrians will see Ringling Bros. circus in Columbia today.

The Winthrop Daughters will meet with Miss Elizabeth Dominick Friday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock.

There are some marriages to take place in Newberry that have not been announced publicly.

Apples ought to be cheap in Newberry. The North Carolina crop is enormous.

High school football.—Headline in Greenwood Journal. In some of the country now it is high ball foot school of nights.

An ad in the Easley Progress reads "Goodies to eat, even if its hardware." They must have goats as customers up there.

The committee to look after the purchasing distress cotton had application for 168 bales and regret that they could not place but 30.

The football season has opened, proving again that there shall be wars and rumors of wars.—Greenwood Journal. What do you think of that?

The schools and colleges are going to take part in the Piedmont fair. Every educational institution is invited.—Greenwood Journal.

The chickens that are counted before they are hatched do not always come home to roost.—Anderson Mail. Rotten. Give us some live stuff.

When you go to the Opera House sometimes call for "our piece" of music and see if you don't hear the finest bass you ever heard.

J. B. Jones the well known West Main street grover, has moved higher up and now occupies the store room vacated by W. H. Lominack & Son.

Let us be kind; this is a wealth that has no measure, this is of heaven and earth the highest treasure—let us be kind.—From a floating poem.

The sky was filled yesterday with chimney sweeps.—Anderson Intelligencer. Some of them must have gone from Central church, Newberry.

Notwithstanding the unfavorable weather last Monday night there was a good crowd at the Opera House to see "In Tune With the Wild." It was a fine production.

We have been to several of the churches and to the motion picture houses during the rainy spell, and the latter places have had more people in attendance.

The wedding bells are sure to ring soon on Pumpkintown street if reports be true.—Easley Progress. Reminds one of marriage suppers and pumpkin pies.

In the vaudeville attraction at the Opera House Friday and Saturday there will appear the original Jeff of the Mutt and Jeff couple. Don't fail to see him.

"It's an ill wind," etc. Muddy fields always save some football team from getting beat worse than the score shows.—Greenwood Journal. Did you mean to be ironical or just funny?

The Junior division of Central Methodist church which was to have met Saturday the 10th, has been postponed until Saturday 17th, at 4 o'clock. It will meet with Miss Abbie Gaillard.

"Football on battle line," suggests one headliner. Watch out now for the decisive blow!—Greenwood Journal. Hope it won't be as long in coming as the battle in Europe.

Let's play that the world's full of beauty, let's play there are roses in bloom, let's play there is pleasure in duty and light where we thought there was gloom.—From an anonymous poem.

Probate Judge Claude C. Schumpert married a couple on Tuesday just after issuing license. The two that he made one were Mr. J. B. Moore, of Hartsville, and Miss Dorie Stone, of Helena.

We saw by the papers Tuesday that Fleischmann company had authorized the purchasing of ten more bales of cotton at the ten cents price. Cotton ought to rise now in the east and in the west and at the other points.

The fourth quarterly meeting of Broad river circuit will be held at New Hope church on the 21st of October. All of the officials are earnestly requested to be present by the pastor and presiding elder.

"There is no reason," says Secretary McAdoo of the treasury department, "why people should not deposit money in the banks in the usual way and with absolute confidence, and there is no reason why business should not be conducted in a normal way."

The Christian Herald, New York, saying that "the distress in the war stricken districts of Europe is terrible beyond description," urges subscriptions to the Christian Herald relief fund for the widows and orphans of the war in Europe.

The Greenwood high school football team will play the Laurens school team Friday of next week in Laurens. A second game will be played here the week following. Mr. T. B. Greneker is coach of the local team.—Greenwood Journal, 7th.

"I am glad that the college has such brilliant prospects under President Peterson's administration, who has come to us so highly recommended."—This is what one of the lady speakers said at the home coming exercises at Bethel Female college, Hopkinsville, Ky.

A lady phoned a certain drugstore in this city for curly mustard seed. The clerk sent her a 10 cent box of mustard and 5 cents worth of celery seed. Now what do you think of that? And how about this: One phoned an undertaker to send nipple for baby's bottle.

The Victor Talking machine company having been asked to buy 250 bales of cotton at the ten cents price, made it 2,000 instead. Now that is fine indeed and we don't blame the Salters for feeling bright over it. It shows that the company does something besides talking.

We acknowledge with pleasure an invitation to the marriage of Miss Julie Smith, of Chappells, to Mr. R. D. Smith, Jr., of Newberry. The marriage will be solemnized in Saluda Baptist church at Chappells on the 14th instant at 6 p. m.—Ninety-Six cor. Greenwood Journal, 7th.

The Charleston Post says the French people were very much impressed by the prayers of the United States people on Sunday. The headlines in yesterday's papers were such as "Battle in north of France continues with great violence," "Submarine sinks German warship," "Belgian government moves to Ostend when Germans bombard Antwerp," etc.

God has planted in the heart of Mr. Speake peculiar feelings of sympathy, interest and love for young people. The effect of God's work in him was shown last night in his appeal to the young people and their response to his pleas.—Anderson Intelligencer, 6th. The many friends of the Rev. J. W. Speake are always glad to hear pleasant things of him.

It is said that the sweetest side of any fruit is the side which grows toward the sun.—Article in Exchange. The sweetest girls in Newberry are the girls with sunny natures. All that they touch turns to gold. That is the touch of their smiles makes the days golden. Don't you hate to raise your hat to the girl who never sees it? There are two or three of that sort here.

Talking about standing room only, there was hardly that at the Arcade Wednesday night the occasion of the "Million Dollar Mystery." It was an over capacity house. Not only that but the crowd had kept flocking in so during the afternoon that the house didn't have time to close for the supper hour—just kept on running. The mystery created intense interest.

Man is given the opportunity to protect himself against the wether, but there are helpless things that claim man's care which should receive mercy in the name of Christianity.—From a contributed article to Anderson Intelligencer. Let's all in Newberry county prepare for the comfort of the dumb animals the coming winter. "A merciful man regardeth his beast." "Blessed are the merciful, for they shall obtain mercy."

The reporter hastens to remark that if a lady at the Arcade Wednesday night misunderstood him he would like to explain. When the slide of "Ladies will please remove their hats" appeared upon the screen he playfully said to a Mutt in the audience that he had never yet seen a lady pay any attention to it. Lady, Mutt and Jeff were just joking and laughing about it. Hats at theatres don't bother us. We dodge. But as well tell the moon to rise in the west.

If people would flock to the churches as they do to the picture shows during a rainy season—or in fair weather for that matter—it would be more encouraging to the preachers, to say the least. Suppose the people of Newberry generally should take a notion to go to church. Why the churches couldn't hold the congregations. If they went regularly there would have to be larger houses built. Let's get up a go-to-church movement.

Mr. H. O. Stone's baby boy, not yet two years old, beats anything like it we have seen. Passing The Herald and News office, nothing would do him but he must see the linotype machine in operation. He looked at it and his pretty blue eyes sparkled in wonder and amazement. He raised "cain" when they wanted to take him home. Didn't want to leave at all. He is the brightest visitor we have had. His granddad says he knows the difference in motorcycles, bicycles, etc.

Say what you please, it is very pleasant to look forward to the various series at the picture shows, to say nothing of the fine pictures between times. Many of them are educational and some are powerful temperance lessons. Occasionally one is no good, but most of them are instructive and very entertaining. Some of the pictures are grand and wonderful while others are thrilling. All for 5 and 10 cents, when you used to pay $1 to see less. Go to the Arcade and Opera House, and take in the sublime and the ridiculous.

Parents desiring a business education for their children could not do better than to patronize Mrs. Ray's school. For several reasons. The school is right here in the city. Mrs. Ray is a thoroughly competent teacher, and there is a demand for expert stenographers. The girl or boy who can take rapid stenographic notes and then transcribe them swiftly with accurate spelling by type-writing in grammatical construction has fortune in her finger tips. The boy or girl wishing such education can do no better than going to Mrs. Ray.

Don't fail to see "The Yaqui's Revenge," a "101" Bison western, with William Clifford, at the Arcade Saturday. Five feature reels.

For Saturday the Arcade has an extra show, five reels, including two western features and a Keystone with Mabel Normand.

The delegates to the general convention which convenes in Savannah are Mrs. George White and Miss Mary Lizzie Wise.

A New Paper at Capital.

The State, 8th. The Commonwealth company of Columbia has been commissioned by the secretary of State, with a capital stock of $25,000. The company is to have authority to publish a newspaper and do a general publishing and book store business. Petitioners are: The governor, with John L. McLaurin of Bennettsville, S. G. Mayfield of Denmark, Thos. F. Brantley of Orangeburg, E. H. Aull of Newberry, W. A. Stuckey of Bishopville, Olin Sawyer of Georgetown, O. L. Johnson of Spartanburg and C. E. Tolly of Anderson.

TO AID COTTON MOVEMENT.

Agent J. W. Denning Receives a Circular Letter From Headquarters.

Mr. J. W. Denning, at the C. N. & L. depot, has received the following letter from the traffic department of the Atlantic Coast Line company at Wilmington, addressed to agents of the A. C. L. R. R., showing the great interest this company is taking in the important movement:

A movement originating in Washington, D. C., supported by the wives of cabinet officers, and other ladies, has been inaugurated with the view of stimulating the sale of cotton goods during the week beginning October 5th.

It is felt that such an effort will have a far reaching effect in promoting the sale of the products of our principal staple; that it will cause merchants to buy increased supplies, and thereby stimulate the manufacture and sale of cotton, and that money otherwise stagnant will thus be brought back into circulation.

Such a movement, as indicated above, meets the approval of this company, and agents and other officials or employees are earnestly requested to lend their hearty support to the scheme, and to secure there or the cooperation of newspapers, merchants and other business men in their respective communities.

This is one practical method of assisting ourselves, at a time when aid is necessary, and of developing a market for goods which we ourselves produce.

Please use every means in your power to make this movement a success, and urge assistance from your local newspapers, your business people and your personal friends.

Death of Infant.

The two-year old child of Mr. and Mrs. Jethro Glenn, of Mollohon mill village, died on Tuesday night and was buried at West End cemetery Wednesday afternoon, service at the house at 2 o'clock by the Rev. Gobe Smith.

Whitesides-Nabers.

A. R. Presbyterian. Invitations have been received in Due West announcing the following interesting event. Both of these young people are the subjects of hearty congratulations:

Mr. Jefferson Davis Whitesides requests the honor of your presence at the marriage of his daughter Minnie to Rev. Charles Haddon Nabers on Tuesday afternoon, October the 20th, one thousand nine hundred and fourteen at 4 o'clock at home Hickory Grove, South Carolina. At home after October 23rd, Prosperity, S. C.

101 Ranch Wild West Show Coming.

Jingling spurs of cowboys, their gaily colored shirts and wide sombreros are seldom seen these days, while the music of the six shooter has given way to the hum of the mill and reaper, and other civilizing influences have brought us down pretty well to one pattern. But this is not so along our Southern border.

Pick out any spot along the 2,000 miles of frontier between the Gulf of Mexico and the Pacific and you will find plenty of romance and action still remaining on both sides. All of it is transplanted in the performances that Miller Brothers and Edward Arlington's 101 Ranch Real Wild West will give on Thursday, October 22, at Newberry. For the presentation of frontier sports and pastimes Mexico contributes bandarillos, matadors, revolutionists, Yaquis, rurales and vaqueros, while the Americans furnish cowboys, cavalry, rangers, plainsmen, trappers, sharpshooters and Indians of many tribes.

Fierce-eyed steers from the Sierra Madre section are roped, tied, and thrown; long horned Texan steers, examples of the fast dying breed of cattle, form the butt for cowboy fun; "swap ends" in exciting rotation are saddled and ridden. Lady broncho busters in divided skirts of corduroy enliven the scene, while exciting round-up, equestrian football and baseball, buffalo hunts and horseback quadrilles give endless variety.

Indian battles are revived, pioneer days depicting hardships and struggles of the brave settlers as well as a regressive reflex of the stage coach, the pony express rider and early methods of communication are presented in an entirely new frame with new scenic effects and backing.

All the participants of the wild west are fired with the aura of excitement which vibrates about all who live in an atmosphere of adventure. They present an intelligent retrospect of the time and the place, not only in its physical aspect, but historically and humanly.
