THE CITY SCHOOLS HAVE A FINE OPENING

Superintendent O. B. Cannon has very kindly furnished The Herald and News with a list of the teachers in the city schools and the number in the several grades and also a list of the books that will be used. We wish we could use it in this issue but we can not and will print the whole story in Tuesday's paper. There have been very few changes in the books and wherever the changes have been made of books that are not on the State list Prof. Cannon has arranged with the publisher for an exchange price. The total enrollment of white on Thursday was 794 and of colored 270.

SWEDISH STATEMENT RECEIVED

Stockholm, Sept. 11.—Sweden admitted today through her foreign office that she has acted as intermediary for communications between Germany and Argentina.

A formal statement issued on the revelations of the correspondence between Count Luxburg, German chargé d'affaires, at Buenos Aires, and Berlin, via the Swedish diplomatic pouch, states that the messages in question were written in code and that the Swedish minister was, therefore, ignorant of their contents.

If misuse of Sweden's good offices is bound to have occurred the statement says, Sweden will act to prevent recurrences.

First, however, Sweden must verify the revelations and then ask an explanation from Germany, the foreign communication asserts.

It points out that no application has been made from any side for cessation of the transmission by Swedish government thus far has Germany to Argentina, "even now or at any earlier period. The statement points out that the Swedish government thus far has only press reports, and no official representations in the matter. It recalls Sweden's permission to the American minister at Stockholm for the transmission of letters from and to Turkey and Sweden's good offices at the time of the siege of Kiau Chow.

It is said the president will make a tour of the Southern training camps during the fall or early winter before the general movement to France begins, but the time of his coming has not been announced. It is not known whether the president and the secretary of war will come at the same time or make separate trips.

Under the rules of the U. S. Civil Service Commission there will be an open competitive examination on October 13 for the position of clerk-carrier in the postoffice service at Newberry. The examination begins at 9 o'clock. Each applicant will be required to submit to the examiner on the day of examination a photograph of himself taken within two years. Application must be made on the prescribed form, which, with necessary instructions, may be obtained from the commission's local representative the secretary of the local civil service board, at the Newberry postoffice. All persons wishing to take this examination should secure blanks and file their applications at once with T. C. Shaw, secretary of the Civil Service Board, Atlanta, Ga., in order to save time for any necessary corrections and to arrange for the examination.

THE REUNION OF JOHN BOWERS FAMILY

A reunion of the John Bowers family was held recently at the old homestead owned now by J. Lindsey Bowers. At this reunion there were present ninety-seven persons. A bountiful "picnic" dinner was served in the grove and all spent a very pleasant day together.

Crquet was played by some while others enjoyed themselves in conversation.

It is the desire of those present that a reunion be held annually on or about the third Thursday or August. We hope to meet at the next reunion all of the family connection.

There were seventy grandchildren and only six of these are dead.

Mr. W. S. Melton has resigned as rural policeman to accept another position, carrying with it a larger salary. He made a good officer and Sheriff Blease regrets to give him up. The county, however, is fortunate in the appointment of Mr. Jno. P. Livingston in his stead. Sheriff Blease could not have made a better appointment. Mr. Livingston served as city policeman and a short while as chief of police and gave entire satisfaction. He was reelected policeman in 1916, getting the unanimous vote of council; but at that time he preferred private life. Since then he has been a section man in the Newberry Cotton mill. He will assume his duties with the sheriff's office Saturday September 15.

A revival is in progress at Bethlehem Baptist, colored, in this city.

The Civic League will meet Monday afternoon 4:30 o'clock at the residence of Mrs. Lambert W. Jones.

The probate judge has issued several marriage licenses, but the marriages have not been reported.

A keen-eyed man from the country says that the town will have to be enlarged to hold the automobiles that are coming in. It looks so.

From the looks of the weather the September gale must be on the road. Some people are getting a supply of coal.

Superintendent Mark Smith of the county home has had the grass on the court house lawn mowed for the home.

The Ladies' Aid society will give an ice cream festival at Dominick school house Saturday night. Every one is most cordially invited.

The all-day singing at Bogansville church last Sunday was largely attended.—Union Progress. Keep it up over there and let it spread all over the country.

The 86 selected men who are to leave Newberry next Wednesday will also be all white is the orders from the war department, but it will have to be modified as there are not 86 whites in the first draft.

We again call attention to the rummage sale to be held Saturday in the storeroom recently vacated by E. Hugh Summer. Some customers get wonderful bargains at these rummage sales.

Summers Bros. Co., have another new tank for gasoline, the demand for it being much greater owing to the rapid and growing increase in the number of automobiles, trucks, etc.

We congratulate the merchants as well as the clerks in the stores that all business houses are to close at six.—Greenwood Journal, September 11. What is good for Greenwood would be good for Newberry.

The approach on the Newberry side to the steel bridge over the Saluda in the road between Prosperity and Leesville, known as the Black bridge, is nearing completion under Contractor T. E. Richardson.

A man traded a bag of money for a barrel of flour in Newberry Thursday. Mr. D. A. Rivers took $12 in Buffalo nickels to the Farmers' Oil Mill and paid the lot for the barrel of flour. This is a rare occurrence in any part of the country. Buffalo Dave scored a hit.

Miss Sara Rawl's music school will open on the 24th of this month, and in the meantime Miss Rawl has had her studio renovated and made beautiful by the touch of the painter. She will also add a normal course and a limited number of pupils will be taken in this department.

People can manage somehow to get along through the summer, but life in winter is hard at best, and when it is made more difficult by the condition of a most terrible war it becomes intolerable.—Florida Times. Some of us in Newberry will be up against that this winter.

The house and lot in Nance street next to the residence of Postmaster Hill, have been sold to Mr. Hill by Real Estate Agent Frank R. Hunter. The new owner will make improvements on the property. Mr. Hunter has also sold the Calmes place at Brazzeman's bridge to Mr. Ben H. Caldwell.

Next Wednesday and Thursday will be great occasions in Newberry. On Wednesday morning Newberry will send her next number of men to get ready for the front and at night Bishop Guerry will preach at St. Luke's Episcopal church. Then on Thursday morning Newberry college will have its opening. All of these are important events for Newberry.

The Daily Journal congratulates the Water and Light Commission as well as the people of Greenwood upon the decision to reduce the rate on water and lights.—Greenwood Journal. We are throwing out a hint here for the benefit of Newberry, and at the same time we cannot help wishing that this city was not in so much storm area. That's all—no harm in saying that. The Dutch weather prophet's cold spell in hot September arrived in Newberry. On Monday evening at dark the thermometer registered 75. At daybreak Tuesday the mercury had dropped to 58. Tuesday night it was 62 and Wednesday morning 48. The sudden change made some people seek fire, covering and heavier clothing. Part of the cold spell was accompanied by fine showers.

The Western Recorder says wisely when it says: "If necessary, mortgage the farm or store to enrich the life of the child. Most parents are accumulating for their children, then why not invest their money in their children, rather than leave it to them. Give them property that they cannot get rid of. Better an education without a dollar."

Since the Tanyard hill in the Beltest road has been put in good condition Rural Carrier W. G. Peterson is more satisfied to travel that road with his mail. He is thankful to Messrs. Hagood Clary and Jas. F. Epting for giving the gravel and to the farmers of the neighborhood for furnishing the wagons and teams and drivers, as well as to Supervisor J. C. Sample for his part of the work.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Gillespie of Effingham announced the birth of a son, W. B., Jr., on September 8th. Mrs. Gillespie is pleasantly remembered in Union as Miss Ruth Wilburn.—Union Progress. That's the way it is. Some want these little things mentioned, while others don't wish anything to be said. A reporter is between the "devil and the deep sea" when it comes to chronicling babies and some other things.

A story of young married life in New York suburb is told in "The Iron Ring," which will be seen Monday at the opera house. Real life characters formed the basis of this story. The story is told in a speedy, entertaining style that grips the attention of the spectators and holds it. The scenic effects are particularly noteworthy. Altogether it is an exceptional production, exceptional in its cleverness, in the polish with which it is presented, in its speed and in the entertainment qualities of the story.

O. Henry's story, "Madame Bo-Peep of the Ranches," has been put into pictures by Triangle. Seena Owen will be seen as Madame Bo-Peep at the opera house Saturday. This daring athlete and dashing Triangle star performs thrilling feats of horsemanship in her latest role of a capricious coquette. Miss Owen is an accomplished horsewoman, having learned to ride bucking bronchos on the Oregon ranch where she was born. She swims like a mermaid, shoots a rifle, revolver or shotgun and is skilled in various other athletic attainments.

"Sowers and Reapers," to be at the opera house Friday, is a 5-act Metro wonderplay of a secret bride who triumphed over intrigue, a play with a powerful appeal in it. The story is a simple one, wholesome and full of action. In "Sowers and Reapers" the making of a motion picture is shown. Many of the scenes were taken in Jacksonville, Fla., where George Stuart Christie, the leading man, had a narrow escape from drowning in the St. John's river. In the play Miss Wehlen takes the part of pretty Peggy Parr, a Southern girl born in Baltimore, who has the happy combination of Southern beauty and Irish wit.

One of the many original features that will be at the big Gaston county fair, which will be held on October 9-13 in Gastonia, N. C., will be an "old time singing."—Gaffney Ledger. This singing question is ringing everywhere, and on the fifth Sunday in this month it will be heard at the church built some time ago by Messrs. J. C. Neel and W. E. Wallace in this county, as some people here have taken it up. The Gaffney Ledger, in urging its readers to "don't forget the singing next Sunday at Limestone Baptist church," (it seems they are having them all around in Cherokee county) says: "We know of nothing more elevating, home inspiring than good singing." That is exactly the way we feel about it and is why we keep at it.

FORMER SHERIFF COMES OUT WITH THE FACTS

Prominent Man Says Money Couldn't
Buy Good Tanlac D'd For Him

"COULDN'T MAKE MISTAKE"

"I Never Felt Better in My Life"
Says Mr. Anderson. "A NEW Man Already"

"Money could not buy the good Tanlac has done me and I gladly recommend it for what it has done in my case," said Hon. Archie R. Anderson, ex-sheriff of Harris County, Texas.

Mr. Anderson is unquestionably not only one of the best known but also one of the most popular men that ever held office in Texas. After serving as deputy sheriff of Harris County for 12 years he was elected Chief of Police of Houston. He had occupied this office only a short time when the sheriff of Harris County died. Mr. Anderson's friends then persuaded him to make the race for the unexpired term of sheriff, to which he easily was elected. He was honored with re-election seven different times and served the people in this most important office fifteen consecutive years. Four years ago Mr. Anderson declined re-election and retired to private life. He cast his lot among the people of Houston and is a large property owner and foremost citizen of that city.

"I was in a run down condition," continued Mr. Anderson, "and had no appetite at all. I could hardly sleep at night and did not feel like getting up in the morning. I felt so tired. I had the worst form of indigestion, suffered all the time with gas on my stomach and was continually belching up undigested food. I had to take my coffee without sugar, for when I drank it with sugar I would belch for hours. I would bloat and swell up like I was poisoned and suffered with neuralgic pains of the worst sort, and nothing seemed to help me except in a temporary way. I just can't tell how I did suffer in the past four years and up until a few weeks ago when I began taking Tanlac."

"When I read the testimonials of some who had been relieved of troubles like mine I felt I just couldn't make a mistake by taking Tanlac, and it has done even more for me than I had expected. I began to feel better after taking my first bottle and I have just now started on my third and I'm a different man already. I sleep like a log now and eat just any and everything I want without the slightest discomfort afterwards. I am glad to endorse Tanlac because it does the work and I'm telling all my friends just what I am telling you. I never felt better in my life than I do since taking Tanlac. I am willing for you to publish my statement and let every suffering person who may wish benefit by my experience with this great medicine."
