GALLEY 9 THE BOYS IN ARMY ENJOY THE HERALD AND NEWS

Fort Moultrie, S. C., Sept 12, 1917.
Col. E. H. Aull,
Newberry, S. C.

Dear Col:—You don't know how glad we all are every Wednesday and Saturday when we receive your papers. We are almost as glad to get them as we are to get letters from "our sweet hearts."

Well, all the Newberry boys are well, and getting along fine. We are working at "a rather brisk gait." Have to "get up" real early—and did go against "my grain" at first but have about gotten used to it now—and when reveille sounds every morning I'm usually "in ranks."

We are "bunking" eight to a tent. In our tent are five Newberry boys—Corp. Ben Mayes, Jack Taylor, Buc Wise, J. B. Smith and myself. Believe me, we have some times telling jokes, singing, etc. J. B. Smith is one of our Co. cooks, and he's on the job when it comes to making "hot rolls." Says he will be lots of help to his wife, if he ever gets out of the army. J. B. says the only fault he finds with army life is he can't get to see his girl, and by the way there are others finding the same fault.

Surfing is the greatest pastime down here. We go to the Isle of Palms real often and the "waters fine." You'd better come down before the water gets "too cold."

Kindly remember me to each one on your staff, and tell "Judge" Grenaker to take care of—

Will get back home on furlough just as soon as I possibly can.

I hope you will have a banner season with your paper—advertising, etc. All the Newberry boys join me in wishing you lots of luck.

Yours truly,
F. M. Ewart,
9th Co. C. A. C.
Ft. Moultrie, S. C.

ENCOURAGE AND STAND BACK OF OUR BOYS

Who leave for Camp Jackson, Columbia, S. C., on next Wednesday morning, Sept. 19th, inst. The crowd of our citizens numbering nearly two thousand who escorted the first contingent to the station two weeks ago, did themselves proud, and made the soldier boys feel proud to represent at the front so enthusiastic and patriotic people.

On this occasion let's have such an outpouring of our people, at least five thousand, that has never been witnessed before, and wake up this old town to its duty and responsibility in this world crisis. We are dedicating our young manhood to this noble cause. Let's wish them success and a safe return home when the battle is won by escorting them to the station and saying good-bye, thereby evidencing that we home folks will sustain them with our solicitude, love and material resources to the end.

We earnestly request that every business place in the city close at 12:30 p. m. and remain closed until the special 1:15 train leaves. We also request the people from the county to lay down their work for a few hours and join this demonstration.

The parade will form at the Court House at 12:45 sharp p. m., marching direct to the station. The following order of parade and program will be observed:

- Newberry Concert Band.
- Confederate Veterans, under command of Capt. Buford.
- Honorees, selected men.
- Conscription Board.
- City and County Officials.
- Chapters of American Revolution.
- Daughters of Confederacy, Red Cross, and all women.
- School Children.
- Citizens.
- Short addresses at the station will be made by the Mayor, Dr. J. M. Kibler, Dr. F. E. Dibble and Dr. A. J. Bowers.
- The Marshals that acted before are requested to take charge of the parade. No automobile or horse will be allowed on the line of march.
- Jno. M. Kinard, Chairman.

There will be a meeting of the Jasper Chapter D. A. R. at the home of Mrs. J. T. Mayes Friday afternoon at 5 o'clock.
