TO ERECT MONUMENT

TO REV. DR. J. A. SLIGH

Some weeks ago I received a letter from Hon. Cole L. Blease suggesting that the friends of the late Dr. J. A. Sligh raise a fund and turn it over to a committee from the St. Pauls Lutheran church for the erection of a monument to the Rev. Dr. J. A. Sligh who served this congregation as pastor for forty-seven consecutive years. He asked that I take charge of this fund and make it a purely voluntary contribution. The following is the letter:

Aug. 21, 1917

Editor Herald and News:

Recently the county of Newberry lost by death a citizen who had done more—certainly as much for her—along the lines of industrial, political and religious work as any man who ever lived within her borders. At one time he was the greatest power in the county, and his influence for good will long be felt among all the people of Newberry. I feel that it is but right and proper that those of us who knew him so well and whose friend he was should do something to perpetuate the memory of his good works, and I am enclosing you my check for $10 to start a fund for the erection of a suitable monument over the grave of our lamented friend and fellow citizen, the Rev. Dr. J. A. Sligh.

I would be glad if you would publish this letter, and ask any who are willing to contribute to such a fund to place the money in your hands, after which we will request his former congregation at St. Paul's to designate a committee of three to take charge of the erection of this monument.

Very respectfully,
Cole L. Blease.

I did not publish the letter at the time, not that I was unwilling to do anything that I could to perpetuate the memory of my friend and former and first school teacher, but I thought it would be right and proper to take the matter up with the members of the congregation and give them the privilege of having a part in the raising of the money for this purpose. And I had not had opportunity to confer with any of them.

On Saturday afternoon Mr. T. J. Wilson suggested that I hook up 111 and come by his home and take him and Mrs. Wilson to St. Paul's as Mr. T. A. Dominick was to address the Sunday school on Sunday morning. I consented. After deciding to go it occurred to me that this would be a good time to take the matter up with the congregation. (When we reached the church the matter was mentioned to Pastor Koon and I learned that the council had been called to meet after service to take up this very question. My proposition met the approval of Pastor Koon and after the sermon he gave me the privilege of presenting it to the congregation which I did. I also on invitation met with the council and it was decided to undertake the pleasant task of giving an opportunity to any of Dr. Sligh's friends to contribute to the fund. There will be no canvassing for the money and no begging. Whatever is raised is to be by voluntary contribution and The Herald and News will acknowledge from time to time the amounts that are sent. I was asked by the council to cooperate with them in this matter and to receive any contributions that any may desire to make.

Pastor Koon was made chairman and treasurer and will receive any subscription to the fund. Contributions may be made to any member of the church council. It is to be a free-will offering and the friends of Dr. Sligh will be given the opportunity to contribute, whether members of the congregation or not.

Dr. Sligh did a great work for the church and the county and it is not given to many men to serve one congregation as pastor for forty-seven years and to hold the love and respect of the members as he did. He went

Goggans-Copeland.

Tuesday morning at 8:15, at the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. A. C. Welch, a pretty wedding was celebrated when the Rev. E. W. Babb performed the ceremony uniting in marriage Miss Eva Gary Goggans of this city and Mr. Jno. Calhoun Copeland of Columbia, at which only members of the immediate families were present. The bride's costume was a coat suit of battleship grey broadcloth, with gloves and shoes to match. She carried a bouquet of lavender orchids and lilies of the valley. The living room, where the marriage took place, was decorated with bride's roses and ferns.

Out-of-town guests: Mr and Mrs. James F. Goggans, and James F. Goggans, Jr., of Columbia; Dr. and Mrs. Jack Young, Miss Elizabeth Young and Mrs. Arthur Copeland of Clinton; Mrs. Robert Copeland of Laurens and Misses Kate and Sarah Gary of Kinards.

The happy couple left immediately after the ceremony for a bridal tour "somewhere in America."

The groom is a prominent business man and prosperous merchant of Columbia. The bride is a lovely and lovable young lady and numbers her friends by a great many score.

"Camouflage, why, what is that?" asked Miss Salina Spreckles. That's when you spread the paint on thick to cover up the freckles.—Memphis Commercial-Appeal. Now what do you think of that?

A fine minstrel show is headed this way. Watch for announcement from Wells.

If you want to see something good and don't want to miss a bit of it, see the beginning of the great hit, "The Fighting Trail," at the opera house Saturday, and keep it up.

"Billy" Coward, who was carried to the hospital in Columbia, to be prepared for an operation amputating his leg, underwent the operation Wednesday. He stood the amputation well.

Mr. Chas. E. Summer has returned from a trip to Atlanta.

Mrs. T. C. Pool paid a visit last week to her son, Mr. Jordan Pool, at Fort Moultrie.

Mr. Harry Vigodsky of Camp Jackson is home on a furlough for a few days.

Equal Suffrage Scores

Equal suffrage has recently scored a tremendous success in securing the appointment of a separate suffrage committee in the House instead of being in the hands of the hostile judiciary committee, headed by the violent anti-suffragist, Mr. Webb.

In and out among these people for all these years marrying the young, burying the dead and baptizing the children and they were true to him to the end.

There was a capacity house at the church on Sunday. This always is a fine place for large congregations, and I was told such a congregation was present at every service. Pastor Koon is doing a good work in the community preaching the gospel and attending to the duties of the pastorate. He preaches good and strong sermons. The regular school will open next Monday and it is hoped to have all the patrons out to encourage the teacher and children by their presence and to assure them of their cooperation. A new school house has been built in recent years, but it stands near the old site of the house which was used when Dr. Sligh was the teacher and the writer was one of the kid pupils. In fact the old house stood there until a year or two ago, the same house with a chimney at each end and doors on the side that had been there for at least a century. The old landmarks have to go to make way for the progress of the age.

We drove down by Jolly Street school house, the distance being a little less than 12 miles. The road is fairly good.

ST. PHILLIPS SCHOOL HAS FINE OPENING.

The St. Phillips school opened on last Monday with Misses Mary Brown, Ola Brown and Frances Caldwell as teachers. The Misses Brown taught the school last year and did a fine work. Miss Caldwell is added this year to the force. Instead of two teachers the school will have three. There is a modern two-story building erected within the last few years and the location is admirable. In a thickly settled white community and one of the best sections of the county. The attendance at the opening was something about 75 children. When the larger children get in it is expected that the enrollment will reach 100.

Several of my friends and the teachers gave me an urgent invitation to be present at the opening. Monday it is difficult for me to get away from the daily round, but I could not help promising to be present. And I went. I hooked up 111 and went by myself, that is I left Newberry alone, but on Saturday I sent Mother Sease word that I would be down to her house about 7:30 and get some of that fat country chicken which she knows so well how to prepare. I was a little late but she had the breakfast good and warm, and the chicken fried in home made lard was fine, and the biscuits were good. And, you bet, I enjoyed the breakfast. Uncle Luke Sease decided to go with me to the opening. A long time ago he was a trustee of the school and now his son, Hamp, is one of the trustees and takes a great interest in the school. In fact all the neighborhood is proud of the school and they all take an interest in the good work.

The teachers and the children were there and everything looked good and neat and clean. The auditorium needs to have some seats, but they will come where the people take the interest that these good people take. I was glad to observe that the people are discovering the school house.

Pastor Koon was there. He serves the church which stands alongside the school house. And his good wife was along with him the county-superintendent of education was there. Pastor Koon had charge of the opening exercises and we all made short talks to the patrons and children and gave them our assurance of interest in the great work which they are doing.

I came back by Uncle Luke's and got me a 20 pound shoulder of last year's killing, and Mother Sease put some nice sweet potatoes in the car, and I was back at the office in Newberry before 11 o'clock.

I have had several other invitations from the good little teachers to attend the openings of schools, but as they all come on Monday I was sorry that I could not go, and then for the past several weeks we have been short on help at the office and it was difficult to get away, but I am going to see these schools some time now soon, since I have some god help at the office, and can get away for a brief spell on occasion.

A FINE ENTERTAINMENT AT A VERY SMALL COST

It seems that all 16 of the guarantors of the Radcliffe Entertainment had forgotten or overlooked that they had guaranteed the cost of the entertainment and did not know anything about it until the first number was announced. A few of them got together on Tuesday and decided to get the college boys and the city school children interested in the sale of tickets and to make the price so cheap that it will be a shame for any one to stay away. And if there is anything left after the payment of the actual cost it will go to the library of the high school.

There are five entertainments and they are firstclass and the first one is among the best and it will be on Saturday night and the place is the court house. It was decided to give all school children and college students and teachers the low price of $1.00 for all five of the entertainments, only 20 cents each and to sell tickets to others at $1.50 only 30 cents for

SECOND LIBERTY LOAN A TEST OF PATRIOTISM.

$300,000 000.

To the Patriotic Citizens of Newberry:

We are preparing for a canvass in Newberry county for a loan of $413,000, our allotment of the loan of $300,000,000, that our country needs to finance the war. The loan will be secured by government bonds, ranging from $50 upward.

The amount of your subscription will be payable:

Two per cent with application.
18 per cent on November 15, 1917.
40 per cent on December 15, 1917.
40 per cent on January 15, 1918.

If you lack the cash, the banks will let you have it at a low rate of interest. On the first Liberty Loan—the government asked for $2,000,000,000. The patriotic citizens of our country subscribed more than $3,000,000,000. And there were 4,000,000 subscribers. The allotment for Newberry county was largely oversubscribed.

The country is not asking us for a gift. It is asking us to lend it money at 4 per cent interest. The bonds will be exempt from ordinary taxation. The rate of interest is good, and the loan will be perfectly safe.

While this is an offer of a safe investment, it is at the same time an appeal to our patriotism. The government will measure us not so much by taxation. It must have the money to equip and support our army. Germany will measure us not so much by the size of the army we raise as by the spirit of patriotism with which we back the army. Nothing would delight the Kaiser so much as to see this loan fail.

If our sons are willing to sacrifice themselves for liberty, surely we should be willing to make a safe investment for liberty. Be ready to cooperate with the committee. If you have the money, make a loan to your country. If you haven't the cash, borrow it and make a loan to your country. It is not your privilege to serve in the army, but it is the privilege of every one of us to serve the cause of liberty by supporting the army.

Liberty Loan Committee.
