VARIOUS AND ALL ABOUT.

"Possum time has come once more," exultingly exclaims the Greenwood Journal.

Mabel Taliaferro will be at the opera house Wednesday as "Peggy, the Will o' the Wisp."

"The Haunted House" will be seen Thursday at the opera house, followed by a Triangle comedy.

More of the colored near-troops, who want to "fight nobly" are awaiting the arrival of next Saturday.

Next Friday will be the time for hilarious musical comedy of "Hans und Fritz," at the opera house.

Those troop trains have been passing. They came through as announced by this paper, but some of them were late in coming.

The Greenwood Coast artillery are patriotic in their pocketbooks as well as in their trigger fingers.—Greenwood Journal.

Miss Annie Rochester and Mr. Luther Seamore, both of Whitmire, were married at that place on the 14th instant by the Rev. D. W. Garvin.

This is fair week, and it remains to be seen what it will be. A good many are going down mostly to see the big camp grounds.

Most everybody is looking forward to the picture of "The Slacker," which will be seen at the opera house on the 15th of next month.

Those interested will bear in mind the colored fair of Newberry county, to be held on Mr. S. P. Crotwell's place opposite the old brickyard, November 15, 16 and 17.

Dr. O. B. Mayer says that Dr. Werber is doing a great thing at his farm. He says the editor ought to hook up 111 and go out there to get a write up for the paper.

In "Mary Jane's Pa," which will be here Tuesday with Marc MacDermott and Mildred Manning, the opera house going public will see a refreshing story of love and politics, humor and pathos.

The fire between nine and ten o'clock Thursday night was in the rear of C. L. Havird's store. A little wooden porch was discovered burning. After a little excitement the fire was put out. It is not known how it started.

Dr. J. M. Kibler saw a sign that he thought was funny enough to mention, and as we think so too we quote the words of the sign, which is stuck up somewhere in Newberry county, as follows: No Trust Passing Hear.

One of the finest social events of the season took place last Tuesday night at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Jordan near Due West, when their daughter Annie Belle was wedded to Mr. George Paul Haddon. The wedding took place at 7:30 o'clock and was attended by about a hundred guests from the surrounding district and the cities of Laurens, Greenwood, Abbeville and Newberry.—Warehousals cor. Greenwood Index, 20th.

The Greenwood Journal is warm and high in its praises of the Greenwood company of the Coast artillery because of their patriotism displayed in the buying of liberty bonds. That is perfectly all right, but we want to remind the Journal that the Greenwood company has a good many Newberry boys in it, and we are here to say that the credit, well deserved as it is, cannot all go to the Greenwood boys.

The Greenwood Index says that the Dutch weather prophet was "on the job" as usual and "hit it plumb." His telegraphed report to the Index was correct, says that journal, and "in a letter received Thursday he recalled that in February of this year he predicted for October 19th and 20th and all of next week to be fair and cold. His is pretty good long distance predicting."

SEE HIM LATER?

If you read Dr. Crimms' ad you saw that he is doing his bit in taking the management of an optical department in Atlanta, thereby relieving two good Americans who want to "Make the world safe for democracy." On that account it will be impossible for him to be in Newberry this fall. Dr. Crimm hates to miss coming here having visited this city regularly during the last eighteen years, in all that long time fitting glasses for many people. As he has the names and prescriptions of all the glasses he has fitted, he says he will exchange the lenses and frames free of charge if you send them to him, inclosing return postage. If you break your glasses he will duplicate them at a great saving to you. In doing this Dr. Crimm does as much as any man can do.

You've Got to See Them

One Minute's Inspection Of Our Good Clothes

will do more to convince you of their surprising goodness than a bushel basket full of words of praise. It isn't what we think that counts—it's what you think. But if you know good tailoring, good fabrics, stylish patterns when you see them, there is only one opinion you have of our clothes—and that is the opinion that they are superior in every way to any other clothes you know at the price. Come and see them.
