"WE ENDORSE COOPERATIVE MARKETING OF COTTON"

THE NEWBERRY CREAMERY TO BE ESTABLISHED SOON

Organization to Be Perfected Next Monday Afternoon. To Be in Operation Within 60 Days

During the past several months much talk has been heard in regard to the establishing of a creamery in Newberry. This project was launched by the Newberry chamber of commerce some months ago and this organization has worked faithfully for the establishment of this enterprise and they now announce that the creamery will be established within the next sixty days, or just as soon as the equipment can be secured and set up ready for operation.

The creamery is being established through the forming of a stock company. Most of the stock as already been sold, however those who have not already subscribed will have an opportunity to do so within the next few days. Stockholders met in the office of the chamber on last Monday and organized temporarily, however the organization can not be completed until all stockholders meet together. This will be done on next Monday afternoon at 5:00 o'clock, at which time all the stockholders are requested to meet in the office of the chamber of commerce. It will be necessary for every stockholder to be represented at this meeting in person or by proxy.

The establishing of the creamery will be considered by every one the best move that has been made in Newberry county for many years, in view of the fact that through this enterprise the farmers can market practically every product of the farm. All the farmers interested in supplying cream to the creamery should begin at once and make preparations, as it is possible that the creamery will be in position to handle cream even before the equipment is set up. Definite announcement as to where the creamery will be located will be made later as it has not been definitely decided just where it will be located.

FOOD COSTS LOWER ACCORDING TO MARCH PRICES

Washington, April 10.—A decrease in the retail cost of food to the average family in March, as compared with February, was reported today by the bureau of labor statistics of the department of labor. Prices as of 43 food articles in 51 important cities were considered. Seventeen of these articles showed a decrease ranging from less than five-tenths of 1 per cent on butter and tea to 34 per cent on strictly fresh butter, 21 articles increased from less than five-tenths of 1 per cent, on cheese to 11 per cent on oranges, and six articles remained unchanged.

During the year March 15, 1921 to March 15, 1922, the bureau added, the average decrease in the retail prices of these foods was 11 per cent, 35 articles declining and eight increasing. In the nine year period, ending March 15, the average of increase was placed at 43 per cent.

SUBJECTS FOR PITY, SYMPATHY AND KINDNESS

Two brothers, Ebenezer and Lucien Morris, of South Georgia, traveling through the country in covered wagons, separately, each wagon in charge of a small boy, were in Newberry Wednesday, just going on without any objective point in view. The men were pitiable objects, emaciated and helpless from chronic rheumatism of long standing, lasting fourteen years for one and nine years for the other. One was lying down and the other was strapped in a sitting position, to keep him from falling, neither being able to stand on his feet. The feet of the one sitting on the wagon seat are in a fearful condition, terribly swollen and bulging from under the broken skin. It was a sight to cause shudders and call forth charity from people blessed with health and the comforts of life.

THOSE WHO HAVE SIGNED THE COTTON CONTRACT

The list below will show those who have already entered into the spirit of the cotton growers campaign. Dr. D. W. Daniel of Clemson college will make an address on cooperative marketing of cotton at the new court house Saturday morning, April 15th, at 11:00 a. m.

This is "Victory Week" in South Carolina. Seven states representing over 2,500,000 bales have signed up, and South Carolina has signed over 260,000 bales. Let us all work together to sell our cotton economically and orderly, also give Dr. Daniel a large audience on this date.

A TWIN EGG

It is a good hen that will lay one egg per day and a better one if she will lay two per day, but when she comes to laying two at a time she must be some good hen sure enough. That is the sort of hen that Mr. G. W. Jacobs has. She lays two at one time, or did that thing the other day, and the two are securely fastened together. And both very near the same size and the regulation size of an egg. The twin eggs are at the drug store of Gilder and Weeks.

LUTHER IN SHAPE AFTER FIRST ROUND

Furman Gets Big Lead but Loses to Newberry, Nine to Four

The State.
Greenville, April 11.—Watson Luther and the Shealy family proved too much for Furman this afternoon and Dutch McLean's Newberry Indians scalped the Hornets, 9 to 4. Furman got away to a four run lead in the first inning, on a walk, two doubles, a single, passed ball, two wild pitches, a stolen base, and an error, but Newberry came back in the third and added three when A. Shealy parked the ball with Heltiwanger and Luther on. In the fifth the Indians added four on a single, two hit batsmen, a couple of errors and a walk, while the seventh produced more tallies. Luther got stronger as the game progressed while Padgett weakened and loose fielding enabled the Indians to run up the score.

COLORED WOMAN SHOOTS HUSBAND

Blossie Bowman, colored, is lingering in jail for having shot her second husband, O'Neill Bowman, with a shotgun at their home in Cannontown last Thursday afternoon. Her husband and her brother were fighting with rocks and Blossie, seeing that the husband was about to kill her brother, as she thought, shot the former. It seems that the men were "always fussing," the trouble brought about from the fact that this second husband married the woman thinking to get hold of the installments of the $10,000 insurance left her by her former husband who was a soldier, and the brother knew it, and he and his sister were not letting the scheming man have the money. It was at first thought the wounded man would have lockjaw from the shot, but up to date the disease had not developed. The load landed in the man's face on the side near the temple. The woman only fired when she saw that her husband was in the act of crushing the back of her brother's neck with a rock.

P. S.—Since writing the above for last issue of the paper the wounded man, attended by Dr. F. D. Mower, is getting along all right and the woman has been released from jail, being out on bond since Wednesday, and the other Mary to see the sepulchre; for the angel of the Lord

T. J. W. FAVORS PASSAGE OF THE BONUS BILL

I notice that the Abbeville Press and Banner has opened up fire on the bonus bill in favor of the boys who offered their lives as a sacrifice and endured the most cruel war that the world ever experienced.

Yes, hundreds of thousands of our dear boys not only gave up their occupations at the very time when their services were most needed at home, but thousands upon thousands of them were swallowed up in the waters of the sea, and the bones and ashes of their bodies are still being dug up out of European soil and sent back to their poor broken hearted parents.

When I think back four or five years ago when our people of the United States were filled with such enthusiasm as was never experienced before in the history of time. How men in every nook and corner stood upon the high places, crying out, "Loyalty! Patriotism!" and saying, "Go on my young men and whip the Germans or they will soon invade our land. We are going to stand behind you and when you come back home you will be counted the heroes and salt of America."

Yes, when I saw my boy driving his mule to the house from his little farm on the evening of June 24th, 1918, looking back with tears in his eyes on the only thing he had to look to for a dollar—and when I saw him pack his grip and shut his room and start out the next morning with his heart so full that he could hardly shake the hands of his old parents; and only five weeks from the very day he was placed upon the ocean to go—where? To defend a set of people who took the bucket off his well and refused to give him a drink of water, after a long hike through the mud and rain. The world knows that the going of these boys was the turning point in the victories of the Germans.

Now after all the hardships these boys endured to defend our national government, to think that we would have a man to publicly raise a question, were the boys going to sacrifice their lives for patriotism or for money? If it was a money proposition, what did so many boys who became blind, lame and insane, get out of it? I would like to ask the Press and Banner editor how many boys he had over in France and Germany? How many boys have you got for sale? And don't you think it is a pretty grave charge upon our other six representatives of congress from South Carolina who voted for the bonus bill to call them a set of demagogues? Let us be consistent with one another. In the name of God, who would think of sacrificing their lives

COLLEGIANS DOWN HIGH SCHOOL TEAM

Second Team of Indians Defeats Batesburg-Leesville Nine

The State.
Newberry, April 10.—The Newberry college second team blanked the Batesburg-Leesville high school nine here this afternoon by the score of 3 to 0. The pitching of Longshore for the young Indians was the outstanding feature of the game aside from the excellent fielding of the local nine. The Newberry hurler sent 15 of the visitors back to the bench by the strike out route. Asbill and Fallow pitched well for the high school lads but they were inclined to be wild, this being largely responsible for the runs scored against them. The boys from the Ridge section were somewhat erratic in the fielding against the collegians this afternoon, but they appear to have a team which will be in the running for the state championship until the end of the season.

News of Excelsior

Excelsior, April 10.—The grain in this section is very promising. Cotton planting will commence this week.

Ira Nates of Columbia spent Sunday with the home folks here.
J. E. Nichols spent Sunday in Greenville.

The underpass way at the trestle here stands about the same—unfixed. N. A. Nichols and family have a new lady boarder at their home. Marvin Taylor and family of Newberry spent Sunday in this section.

James Pet Cook and family spent Sunday with relatives in Newberry.
W. E. Cook and family spent Sunday with her folks in Newberry.

The Rev. Jas. A. McKeown will preach in Excelsior Mission church next Sabbath night at 7:30 o'clock.
Samuel Hiller and family of Newberry have been visiting relatives in this section.

The Rev. W. R. Anderson of Laurens spent Monday night with E. M. Cook's family and preached in the mission church here Monday night to a good audience of people. The school house here is no longer used for school purposes and has been left as a place to hold religious services regardless of denomination. This step was taken for the convenience of the people in the community who went to a good deal of trouble to put up the house a good many years ago. The people in the community went together and filled the house with seats and when you go in the house now it looks churchly. We hope to have religious services here now occasionally by different ones. We are all very thankful to Col. E. H. Aull, superintendent of education, for the many kindnesses shown us in the use of the building so that our people may have a place to assemble themselves together for religious services.

Mrs. H. J. Kinard spent Monday in Newberry shopping.

for a little lucre?
As to Mr. Fred H. Dominick, I have been one of his true supporters since he has been in congress. And I have the very highest regard for him. He was very kind to me during the time my boy was overseas. And I shall always appreciate his kindness. If I understand right Mr. Dominick voted against the war and it is not probable that he would vote for anything in connection with what he tried to vote down. But I don't believe Mr. Dominick would want to wear the honor of being the only man out of seven representatives from South Carolina who voted right. I believe Mr. Dominick will see his mistake.

COLUMBIA FRIENDS NEWBERRY COLLEGE JOIN PROCESSION

Just watch "Dutch" MacLean's Indians go down that war path. They are trailing along in the same old path blazed away by our basketball team this winter, and which was followed later by our debating team. The spirit is in them and it will not be down. This week they gathered in two scalps in as many days, thus maintaining their percentage of victories to date at 1,000. Next Tuesday the Wofford nine, strong contenders for 1922 championship, will invade the Indians' camp. A record breaking attendance will witness this game. Buy a season ticket and join the procession. The ticket sale received a boost this week when a check for $210 was received from the following Columbia boosters:

TELEPHONE CASE COMES UP LATER

Matter Deferred by Smith Until April 24

The State, 11th.

Attorney General Wolfe was advised yesterday that Judge H. A. M. Smith of Charleston had postponed the hearing on the telephone rate reduction case until April 24. Judge Smith was Saturday requested to postpone the matter until April 18, but he extended the time still further, according to the message received by the attorney general.

At the hearing on April 24, Judge Smith will decide whether or not he will issue an interlocutory injunction and ask for three federal judges to hear the case. The hearing on the date mentioned is simply to determine whether or not three judges shall take charge of the case and an interlocutory injunction issued. An effort to have the complaint dismissed may be made by state attorneys, it was indicated yesterday.

ESKRIDGE IS ELECTED PRESIDENT C. OF C.

McDaniel Is Re-elected Secretary and E. A. Carpenter Treasurer.—To Have Banquet Soon

At an official meeting of the board of directors of the Newberry chamber of commerce held on Tuesday afternoon, Mr. L. G. Eskridge, prominent business man, was elected president of the organization. In selecting Mr. Eskridge to head the organization the directors feel that they have made a wise selection, in view of the fact that Mr. Eskridge is well fitted to handle the office in every particular, a good president, and under his direction the organization will accomplish many things for Newberry county during the coming year.

It will be recalled that Mr. James W. Johnson has served as president of the organization during the past several months. Mr. Johnson made a good president, and under his direction many things have been accomplished, as well as many other things planned for the future. Mr. Johnson remains on the board of directors and will take as much of an active interest as he did while serving as president. At the present time Mr. Johnson is located in Clinton, his firm having opened a store there, however, it is believed he will be back in Newberry very soon.

McDaniel Re-elected

Mr. C. P. McDaniel, who has been serving as secretary since August of last year, was elected to succeed himself. Mr. McDaniel has worked faithfully during his stay in Newberry, taking into consideration the fact that he has had a very trying period in which to accomplish results. Mr. McDaniel states that he will devote every effort within his power to the work of the organization during the coming year, and in return will expect the undivided cooperation of every member of the organization. He must have the cooperation of the membership if the organization is successful. It is needless to say that every member of the board of directors will back up the secretary in every effort put forth in interest of a greater Newberry, so it is up to the members to fall in line.

Carpenter Elected Treasurer

Mr. E. A. Carpenter, another prominent business man was elected to the office of treasurer, succeeding Mr. Hal Kohn, who resigned on account of pressure of other business.

Other officers elected at the meeting was a first vice-president and a second vice-president. Mr. T. K. Jonstone being elected to the first deputy vice-presidential position, the named office and Mrs. O. C. Floyd to the last named.

To Have Banquet

It was decided at the meeting Tuesday to have a membership banquet sometime in the very near future, the date to be announced later. A committee composed of the newly elected officers were appointed to make the plans for the banquet and report at the earliest possible date. It is the purpose of this banquet meeting to bring the members closer together so that the new year can be started off with a better understanding and a more determined effort to accomplish results. Watch for the date of the banquet and be prepared to attend.

LUTHERANS WIN ONE FROM ERSKINE TEAM
