

COUNTY CAMPAIGN OPENED TUESDAY

CROWD NOT USUAL LARGE YOUNG'S GROVE GATHERING

Candidates for Legislature Given Fine Attention as They Present Claims for Consideration

The opening meeting of the county campaign was held at Young Grove on Tuesday. Just one month will elapse before the next meeting which will be held at Keitts Grove on the 11th of August and then the procession will march right on to the winding up day at Newberry. The opening meeting was held as early as it was in order that the entry of candidates might be closed and as the lists close at noon on the day before the opening of the campaign it was thought best for all concerned that the time for filing pledges should close and that every one who was a candidate should know who were in the race against him or for the same position he was seeking. The list of candidates was published in The Herald and News on Tuesday.

There are only two offices to be filled this year apart from the magistrates for the various townships, members of the legislature and probate judge. No one is opposing Judge Ewart and there are only seven candidates for the three places to be filled in the legislature. At Newberry and Prosperity there seems to be a rather lively race for magistrate, at least there are a number of candidates at each place.

Congressman Dominick kindly offered us a seat with him to go to the meeting at Youngs Grove. We arrived about ten-thirty and very soon the speaking began. There was not the usual large crowd which generally assembles at this place for the political meetings. This is rather an historic place for meetings and the political meetings have been held here for many years, and there is always a fine barbecue served and that brings many people, and then this is the only meeting in No. 9 township and takes in a very large area not only of territory but of white voting population. There was a fairly good crowd and they gave the best of attention to the speakers and as is always the case with Newberry audiences were generous to the speakers.

All of the candidates for the legislature except Mr. Blease claim to be farmers and most of them are real dirt farmers. Mr. Watson says that his long experience in a country bank which brought him in personal contact with the farmer gave him a sympathetic connection with the condition of the farmer, and we understand that Mr. Watson is a real farmer of the kind that is needed in this country at this time, that he is a chicken fancier and is giving special attention to the raising of hogs and cattle since he left the bank in May, though he did not mention it in his speech.

Chairman Wheeler in calling the meeting to order directed the attention of the people to the fact that all who desired to vote in the primary must have their names on the club rolls, and that they had to write the names themselves, and he urged all those who were entitled to vote to see to it that they enroll whether they thought they would desire to vote or not. And he called the attention of the women to this especially and urged them to enroll. He emphasized the fact that a new enrollment was required each year and that those who were enrolled last year would have to enroll again this year, that new books had been prepared, and then he told where the books of enrollment for that section might be found.

Mr. Wheeler makes a good and graceful presiding officer and does not take up the time of the speakers by making a speech each time he presents a speaker. Each of the candidates for the legislature was allowed fifteen minutes and there being only one office to be filled this year where speeches are expected, and only seven candidates, all the speeches were concluded before the dinner hour.

Mr. Eugene S. Blease was the first speaker. He said that in a way he was glad that he was the first speaker in this campaign. He felt and knew that this would be a pleasant and agreeable campaign and he hoped and knew that all of the candidates would come out of it even better friends than when they entered, because they would come to know each other better. And in this way he hoped and believed they would become even better friends than they were now. Mr. Blease said that he had the honor of being elected last year when it became the duty to elect some one to fill the unexpired term of the late lamented Geo. S. Mower, and that it was the first time the women had been permitted to vote and he was proud of the fact that he had been so elected by, in part at least, the votes of the women. He then reviewed the methods of legislation and explained the different departments of government and told the processes through which a bill had to go before it became a law and explained the work of committees. He said he favored a proper maintenance of the institutions of the state and he favored adequate support of the common schools and modestly referred to the part he took in saving the appropriation for the common schools. He favored the building of good roads but also was in favor of good business economy in the expenditure of the public funds just as a good sound business man would handle his own business.

Mr. W. B. Boines was the next speaker and briefly told his platform. He said he was no speaker but that he would vote right. He was in sympathy with the laboring people, being one of them himself and would advocate and vote for the maintenance of good schools in the rural districts and if elected would always be in his place when the roll was called.

Mr. H. H. Evans was the third speaker. He said he was a farmer and his sympathy was with the farmer, though just now he was a "busted" farmer, and unfortunately many more were mighty near in the same fix and there should be some relief and he thought there should be cooperation on the part of the legislature in the helping of the condition of the farmer and especially in the reduction of the heavy tax burden under which we were laboring. He complained that it often happened when the house did a good thing or passed a good law it was killed by the senate and cited some instances in which this had happened during his experience in the house. Mr. Evans also took a whack at the state tax commission.

Dr. J. William Folk began his remarks by quoting some poetry commendatory to woman and then paid himself a tribute to woman and said he was glad they were going to vote and he believed they were going to remember him when they came to cast their ballots. He would introduce a bill the first act of his when he got to the legislature to prevent the desecration of the Sabbath by holding sessions of the legislature on that day. He thought it was wrong and he doubted if any law passed on the Sabbath would stand the test of the court if any one should raise that question. He thought taxes too high and he wanted them reduced and would work to that end. He cited to the fact that he was the author of the bill reducing the number of children in a rural graded school from 50 to 40 in order that the school might receive rural graded school aid to the extent of $200. He thought the plan of assessing property for taxation should be changed and he favored having a board of assessors for each school district to go out and make the assessment and that they be paid $5.00 per day for not more than four days. He thought this the best plan to secure a fair and equitable equalization of the property and instead of assessing a $60 mul. at the same valuation as a $200 one he would equalize the assessment and thus make the burden of taxation bear evenly on all property.

Dr. E. N. Kibler was at home and took up his time in a pleasant relation of personal incidents and in references to local history to the amusement of the crowd and closed by saying that he was in favor of reducing taxes and made a plea for cooperation and for compatibility. In presenting Mr. W. R. Watson Chairman Wheeler said that he was

Only 9 More Days To Enroll for the Democratic Primary

The Democratic enrollment books have been open over a month, but only a small per cent of the men and women of Newberry have written their names on the rolls. There remain 9 days in which you may enroll. The books will close on the afternoon of Tuesday, July 25th, and you cannot vote in the Primary unless your name is signed by your own hand, on your precinct roll before that date.

Do not confuse registering with enrolling, you can register any first Monday to vote in the general election in November. If you already have a county registration certificate obtained during the past two years, you need not register again. But no matter how many registration certificates you have, nor how many times you have enrolled before this year, you cannot vote in the Democratic Primary this year unless you write your name on the Democratic club roll of your precinct between June 5th and July 25th, 1922.

Women, as well as men, are urged to enroll.

J. D. WHEELER,

a stranger in this section of the county though he had been a citizen of Whitmire in this county for a good many years and he was a good citizen and all right. Mr. Watson thanked the chairman for his introduction and said he felt that it would be well for him at this first meeting to tell the people something of himself though not in an egotistical way. He was born in Greenwood and came to Whitmire at the age of sixteen and for the greater part of the time for the past sixteen years he had been working in the bank at that place either as clerk or manager of the bank, and that last May he retired from the bank and was now engaged in farming and that during his time in the bank, it being a country bank, he came in close touch with the farmer and understood some of his trials and hardships. He said of his township from which he came paid about one-sixth of the tax of the county, and had not been represented in any office for a good many years and he felt if the people thought he was competent that it would be but fair that this section of the county have a representative in the legislature. He favored such reduction of the taxes as could be made without impairing the efficiency of the administration of the government. He believed in putting into public affairs the same business acumen that a good business man would put in his private affairs and if elected would at all times have an eye single to the welfare of the people of Newberry county and of the whole state, that he would do what he could for the betterment of the condition of the people so far as such results could be obtained by legislation.

Mr. W. M. Wilson closed the speaking for the legislative delegation candidates. He said while he came from the new section of the county which had come into Newberry from Lexington he was no stranger to the people of Newberry as he had been in business at the court house and had bought cotton and sold mules in the county. He felt that the new territory should have a representative in the legislature and he was offering his services to the people and if elected he would serve them to the best of his ability. He thought he had the experience and the business ability to represent the people in a satisfactory manner and would appreciate their support. He was not old enough to have served in the Confederate war but he did see service in the war which the state had from 1865 to 1876 when South Carolina was redeemed and he did his part faithfully in this service.

Mr. J. B. T. Scott who is a candidate for magistrate for No. 9 made a speech which we did not hear as we understood the speaking was all over with when the legislative delegation had concluded.

A fine barbecue dinner was enjoyed and the people seemed in good spirit and the day was a pleasant one despite the very hot weather.

Every Woman Should Enroll

Saturday, July 15, has been set aside as "Ladies' Day" for enrollment, and every woman who lives within the confines of the county who has not enrolled should make it a point to put her name on the club roll of her voting precinct on that day. It is not required that a woman shall give her exact age—"over 21" will be sufficient.

The president of the civic league has appointed a committee in every ward to assist with the enrollment of women. Will not women in the county who realize the great responsibility that has come with the passage of the 19th amendment, see that every woman in their respective localities has the opportunity to enroll? The time is very short—only ten days more—and, as the date for the primary approaches, interest in the election will increase. It is not a question of whether you, as a woman, want to vote; you are shirking your duty when you fail to exercise this privilege.

In one ward in the city the women are enrolled nearly 100 per cent. Be assured that everybody will know the names of the few who are not.

Enroll Saturday

Cooper-Slice

Miss Rosalee Cooper and Johnnie Slice were united in holy wedlock on Saturday afternoon, 8th instant, by Rev. W. H. Dutton at the Mayer Memorial parsonage. The young couple make their home in the Mollohon village, and are the happy recipients of many well wishes of their friends.

Too many of our office holders seem to think the science of government consists of passing the buck.

INFORMAL RECEPTION TO SUMMER SCHOOL STUDENTS

The faculty of the summer school of Newberry college, with the assistance of some of the ladies of the faculty and of the city, will tender an informal reception to the students of the summer school and the friends of the college in the city on Friday evening, July 14, from eight to ten o'clock. It is the desire of the faculty that the students should become acquainted with the men and women of the city, including the students of the high school, and these are cordially invited to be the guests of the college on this occasion. A short, but attractive program will be rendered in Holland hall, after which the guests will be served light refreshments on the lawn near Carnegie hall. The following committees have charge of the arrangements:

Reception committee: Mrs. R. D. Wright, Mrs. W. H. Hunt, Mrs. R. H. Wright, Mrs. J. D. Quattbaum, Mrs. Annie S. Kinard.

Prof. James C. Kinard, who is the director of the summer school, is the general chairman.

Lovers of baseball are invited to witness an unusual exhibition of the national game at College park on next Monday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock, when the faculty of the summer school will meet the students' team in what promises to be a highly entertaining contest. It will be recalled that the faculty defeated the class of 1922 last May, and with several members of that victorious aggregation on hand, they are sure to give the boys plenty of entertainment. Their line-up is as follows:

"Dutch" MacLean will pitch; Geo. Borts, behind the bat; Eldridge McSwain, Gilbert Voigt, Edwin Setzler, and E. W. Garbis, infielders; James Kinard, E. B. Setzler, L. C. Moise, and W. K. Gotwald in the outfield. The game will be handled by Umpire Monts, who made such a favorable impression with the indicator in the faculty-senior game last May.

SCHOLARSHIP EXAMINATION UNIVERSITY AND CLEMSON

There will be held at the office of the county superintendent of education Friday (today) an examination for a scholarship at the University and also for the one year agricultural scholarship at Clemson. There is no vacancy at the Citadel. The College of Charleston offers a scholarship which should be attractive to some young man who desires to secure a good education. This is one of the fine institutions of learning in this country.

The examination will begin promptly at 9 o'clock.

There are still a good many people in this country who believe the law of supply and demand governs prices.

HOME DEMONSTRATION CLUB GIRLS' SHORT COURSE

Newberry college was the scene of much activity on Thursday, Friday and Saturday when seventy-one girls gathered there for recreation and intensive study. A prettier or better behaved bevy of girls could not be found anywhere. Nothing happened to mar the pleasure of the visit. Instruction in cooking, canning, sewing, millinery, gymnastics, etc., were given by capable ladies. "Mother Walker" demonstrated sweet pickled peach and cucumber relish, better pickle would be hard to find. Miss Snyder, state nutrition specialist, taught biscuit and pastry making. Mrs. Johnson, clothing specialist, gave hat making and decorative stitches. Miss Mills won all hearts with her capable leadership in recreation periods. Miss Roberts, Greenwood county agent, gave a lesson on correct dress for all occasions, Hattiwanger and Carpenter lending some attractive dresses to help in the demonstration. Miss Elizabeth Herbert, one of the Silverstreet club ladies, had charge of the dining room, and by the way, the manner in which she managed was a marvel. She has the everlasting gratitude of the entire corps of club girls and home demonstration leaders. Miss Berrie, county agent, taught organdie flowers and organdie hats, a busier person was hard to find, she was everywhere almost at the same time. Miss Theresa Lightsey of the health clinic gave a most instructive demonstration on sick room management.

The club girls unite with Miss Berrie in thanking most heartily the city organizations who financed the short course, Newberry college, for the use of buildings and equipment, the chamber of commerce for a pleasant ride over the city, the women's clubs who provided such a bountiful supply of delicious food, Mr. Wells for the excellent picture shown, and Mrs. Hattiwanger for her kindly help and patience. Each girl went home happy and fully resolved, not only to come herself next year but to bring twenty-five that did not come this year.

Monday morning found Miss Berrie at her post of duty as happy as could be over the success of the biggest short course that Newberry county has ever had.

Heavy Rains in the County

In the Chappells section of the county there was a very heavy rain fall on Wednesday afternoon and the same was true around the Bush River section. There was much wind and lightning. The lightning did damage to telephones in and around Bush River church and up at Chappells it struck a barn on the place of Mr. J. L. Holloway and destroyed it, the barn catching fire. The place was occupied by Mr. Frank Summer. The barn was a total loss and Mr. Summer lost practically all his feed and also his wheat crop, but managed to save the stock.

The roads are pretty badly washed up and some damage was done the crops by washing and the heavy down pour.

CAUGHT WITH THE GOODS CHIEF NABS GREENWOOD MAN

Chief of Police S. C. McCarley Locks Up White Man Who Was Robbing a Poor Widow Here.

Chief McCarley arrested and put in the lockup Thursday a man giving his name as W. H. Moroe of Greenwood, charged with obtaining money under false pretenses. The man had been here a couple of days, sleeping at the home of Mrs. Daisy Mullinax, a widow, and her children in the Oakland mill village. He was taking up a collection, claiming that it was for the benefit of the widowed woman and fatherless children. Having turned over only a few dollars to Mrs. Mullinax and preparing to leave town, his activities were found out by Chief McCarley, who got busy to thwart the vile intentions of the visiting and scheming stranger. Following the clue the chief found that the man was intending to board the Cannon Ball train Thursday morning. His sudden departure was delayed by the prompt action of the chief, who brought him to headquarters, but didn't lock him up at that time.

In the meantime Chief McCarley went to see Mrs. Mullinax about the case and when he returned he learned that the man had gone back to the depot. He had caught the 10:15 to Columbia and was taken from the train to police headquarters. After searching him and finding about $55 on his person the chief locked him up, where he now is with plenty of time and solitude to dwell upon his busted bubble of his little get-rich-quick scheme.

Community Market

The market continues to sell quantities of farm produce, $112.00 having been taken in the past week.

Farmers who have veal, kid or mutton for sale will kindly report same to the market managers and a date will be reserved for sale of same.

Persons having quantities of apples will find bulletins on drying, canning, vinegar making, etc., at the chamber of commerce, headquarters of the home demonstration agent. This information is yours for the asking. Do not let fruit spoil when it can be turned into cash.

All persons selling butter at the market are urgently requested not to bring this product unless it is securely wrapped in butter or parchment paper, it can not be handled otherwise. Cartons cost one-half cent a piece and are perfectly satisfactory. Why not every one use them?

A Card

[Reporter's note.—Mr. D. L. Boozer handed us the following card for Tuesday's paper. It is our fault that the card failed to appear promptly.]

I wish to say to my friends that I appreciate their asking me to make the race for the house of representatives from Newberry county. I have had a good many to ask me if I would run, and I have had the matter under serious consideration for some time. I am sorry that I will have to refuse at this time.
D. L. Boozer.
