SECURES SPECIAL RATE FOR LUMBER SHIPPERS

Through Efforts of Chamber of Commerce New Rates Effective Tuesday, August 8th.

According to an announcement made public by Secretary McDaniel of the Newberry chamber of commerce, this organization, through its traffic and transportation committee has been able to secure a special freight rate on lumber to be dressed in transit. The organization has been trying for some time to get this rate on the Columbia, Newberry and Laurens railroad, and in a letter received from Mr. J. P. Taylor, president of the C. N. & L., he advises that the rate will go into effect on Tuesday, August 8th. The letter received from Mr. Taylor reads as follows:

Columbia, S. C., August 2, 1922.
Mr. C. P. McDaniel, Secretary,
Chamber of Commerce,
Newberry, S. C.

Dear Sir:

Replying to your letter of the 31st ultimo, A. C. L. lumber transit carrier No. 3 I. C. C. No. B-2083, effective August 8th, 1922, provides for milling in transit on lumber at all points on the C. N. & L. railroad.

Yours very truly,
(Signed) J. P. Taylor,
President.

The rate referred to above means that lumber shippers who ship lumber via the C. N. & L. will save a considerable amount of money, especially if it is to be dressed in transit. For instance, should a party at Kinard want to ship a car load of lumber to Columbia it could be stopped in Newberry and dressed without additional cost, with the exception of the small charge for the car. Herebefore, if the shipment was stopped in Newberry to be dressed the shipper would have to pay more than the regular freight rate.

The news of this special rate should be received by the shippers with much satisfaction and thanks to the Newberry chamber of commerce and the C. N. & L. railroad company.

GAME ENDS IN DRAW

Mollohen and Fountain Inn Battle to Tie

The State.

Newberry, Aug. 3.—Mollohen and Fountain Inn battled this afternoon to an eleven inning 2 to 2 tie in one of the best games of ball seen in Newberry this season. It was a pitchers' duel between Boozer for Mollohen and Wood for Fountain Inn.

The features of the game were the good catching of Cromer, a home run by Albert Shealy, fast work on third base by B. Nelson and a great running catch by P. Nelson.

For Fountain Inn, Boozer pitched a remarkable game and with perfect support should not have been scored upon.

A. JEFF GREGORY KILLED BY SON

BOY USES RIFLE TO KILL FATHER NEAR KERSHAW

Brother and Sister of Paul Gregory Said to Have Witnessed Killing

The State.

Kershaw, Aug. 4.—A. Jeff Gregory, prominent farmer and formerly cotton weaver at Kershaw, was shot and killed by his son, Paul Gregory, at his home a few miles from Kershaw at about 8:00 o'clock this morning. Young Gregory used a 38 calibre rifle, four bullets taking effect to cause almost instantaneous death.

Young Gregory, himself, gave the alarm, telephoning to friends in Kershaw that he had killed his father. He was taken into custody by Sheriff Welch within a few hours after the killing and is now in the Camden jail facing trial on a charge of murder. The coroner's jury investigating the homicide having held him responsible for the death of his father.

Young Gregory is about 18 years old, but is small for his age, having been crippled by an attack of infantile paralysis.

The only eye witnesses of the patricide, if any, are members of the immediate family and these with Paul Gregory have declined to make any statement about the shooting. Paul Gregory has declined to make any statement, officers have been informed, witnessed the tragedy. Neither, however, testified at coroner's inquest, the jury's verdict being based upon admissions of young Gregory.

The boy, after having confessed to firing the four shots to persons first reaching the house has refused to make any further statements, officers say, except to say that he acted in defence of his mother and sisters.

The first persons reaching the house after the killing found a loaded pistol grasped in Mr. Gregory's hand. The revolver had not been fired.

Mr. Gregory was about 50 years old and is prominently connected and well known in both Kershaw and Lancaster counties. He has survived by his widow and five daughters and two sons.

Attorneys for young Gregory, it is understood here, are intending to make an effort to secure bail for their client.

COURT DISMISSES MITTLE PETITION

Declines to Grant Rehearing of Case

The State, 4th.

The supreme court yesterday handed down an order dismissing the petition for a rehearing in the E. N. Mittle case and revoking the stay order. The court ordered that the remittitur be forwarded to Orangeburg county and this was done by Hurry McCaw, clerk of court.

The court recently affirmed the lower court conviction of Mittle and under this judgment he is to serve nine years in the penitentiary for manslaughter. He was convicted of the killing of J. H. Patterson, a civil engineer, the killing resulting over attentions of a woman.

The only course open to Mittle now is an appeal to the United States supreme court, but it is not known whether or not his attorneys will go to this court.

WEEVIIL INFESTATION IS IRREGULAR

Weather Conditions Favorable to Weevil Development. Continuation Control Measures Advised

Clemson College, July 31.—The most striking feature in the boll weevil situation is the irregularity of the infestation, not only in the various counties but on individual farms and even in single fields," said Prof. A. F. Conradi, entomologist, at the weekly boll weevil conference here today, after hearing reports from the field specialists who were present for the conference and from the county agents over the state.

At the close of the conference the following statement was given out: The weather during the past week while hot was moist and generally favorable to weevil development. I should be explained that hot and dry weather is the weevil's worst enemy, but with the exception of a few localities we have had no such weather during the past week. Showers have been frequent and the atmosphere moist, which offset the benefits that would have been derived otherwise from the weather.

The percentage of squares infested varies, as shown by the reports, from a small percent to 60 or 70 percent. This condition is frequently very misleading to farmers who are given the credit of low infestation to one or other of control measures they are attempting, when as a matter of fact the infestation was not there to begin with.

We know this to be the case, because there have been accumulated over a period of years a series of most elaborate data in experimental work showing what results may be expected from one or the other of these various control measures under the best conditions.

Square collecting when done thoroughly on the plant and on the ground is still advised throughout the Piedmont section, and in other sections and areas where light square infestation occurs.

Frequent shallow cultivation should be continued so long as cotton does not sufficiently overlap for this to be injurious.

It is very necessary that the labor situation be controlled during August for the purpose of square collecting and cultivation. Failure to have labor available may mean much less.

Fruiting over the state generally is very good. But it frequently happens that individual farmers have a small crop of fruit set at this time, a condition which would hardly be due to natural conditions but probably to poor soil and poor seed. It must be kept in mind that good soil and good seed are two things most necessary before one may expect profit from any operation for boll weevil control.

Frequently we are asked to advise whether dusting should be undertaken where square infestation has reached upwards of 60 percent. This depends on:

1. Whether the farmer is prepared to dust immediately. If so, then we advise him to dust, but there is no time left now to secure dusting machinery and poison, knowing that weevil dispersion is about to begin.
2. Wherever the dusting schedule has been begun it should be continued with view of reducing these high infestations before the dispersion begins.

RECOMMENDABLE DAIRY RATIOS

With good quality legume hay, such as alfalfa, clover, peavine, oats and vetch, velvet bean, feed the following ratios:

No. 1.
2 parts ground corn and cob meal.
3 parts ground velvet beans, soy beans or cow peas, or mixture of same.

No. 2.
3 parts ground oats.
2 parts ground oats.
1 part cotton seed meal.

Note: 2 parts ground oats may be substituted with 1 part of ground oats and 1 part ground soy beans, velvet beans or cow peas.

Grain ration to feed with hay low in protein as good quality grass hay, corn fodder, soy bean hay, etc., feed the following ratios:

No. 1.
1 part corn and cob meal.
1 part ground oats.

No. 2.

Cotton seed hulls is a very poor feed for dairy cows. A cow should not have over 4 pounds cotton seed meal per day.

In making up above ratios make up considerable quantities at a time and feed one pound of the mixture to every three or four pounds of milk per day (8.6 pounds of milk per gallon).

Feed all the hay the cow will clean up at a feed.

Don't condemn the cow till she is given a fair trial.

Many novel features are being planned for the big parade at the state convention at Florence on the morning of August 24. Commander E. R. Melver has sent a letter to the posts near Florence inviting them to cooperate fully in the parade and in other features being arranged. "The parade is to be followed by a fish stew at noon and a dance that night, both at the Country club," says Commander Melver. This is to be the first parade attempted at a legion convention in South Carolina and every post should do its best to make the affair a great success.

Please spread the news that all disabled veterans who have not entered a claim for compensation should do so at once. The time limit is up on August 9 and every man who feels that he may some day suffer as a result of his military or naval service should file a claim at once.
