TWICE A WEEK, $2.00 A YEAR

SUNDAY SCHOOL PICNIC HELD AT ST. LUKES

Historic St. Lukes Church, Near Prosperity

o'clock a large crowd had gathered News. at the church for the gala occasion. ladies, song by school. After this come to a close next week. part of the program had been com- Candidates for state superintend- An earnest plea for law enforceing of the duet the offerings were re- that an opponent did not have oppor- made their usual speeches for goverceived which amounted to nearly ten tunity to reply, are expected to bring nor, although Mr. Cantey vigorously dollars. As was stated by the super- more life and ginger into the meet- renewed his attack on "certain demintendent, this will be given to the ings than have been shown so far. agogues," saying they should be elec-Lutheran orphan home.

ner was spread on the table in a sioner of agriculture, will follow his grove near the church. It seemed opponent, B. Harris, the present inthat the table fairly groaned from cumbent. being burdened with so many good things to eat.

on that showed the red so beautiful- have an answer ready.

children baptized while an ordained est words into the meeting. minister was on the church grounds. Mr. Hope characterized as "one grown boys presented themselves for Mr. Seigler, while not mentioning would say. of a mother, her son-in-law, and a book for them in ten years." the baptismas service.

St. Lukes is real proud of the work while out of the state. that is being done in the Sunday school and also along other lines of Christian activity.

U. S. Jurors

Lindsay Fellers, Prosperity. J. V. Clary, Newberry, R. F. D.

1st week-

Hardeman, Newberry; J. W. Epting, mer Citadel man of Columbia. Ex-Newberry, R. F. D. 3.

2nd week-Wise, Whitmire; A. B. Miller, News follows: "In the present Citadel sitberry, R. F. D.; J. W. Kibler, New-untion it would be very unfortunate berry, R. F. D.

Card of Thanks

and friends for the kindness shown persuading Jackson to make the race their believed daughter, Bessie Can- long before the other gentlemen's non, during he: illness of two weeks. names were known." She closed this life with her father and mother, 218 Gilder street, Newberry, S. C., July 29, 1922.

reelection can warm Lodge.

OFFICE SEEKERS WARMING

by Thrusts of the Various State Candidates

In the morning before eleven Chas. H. Garrison in Greenville state of the "worst case of stomach

The weather was not very favorable stubbornly if not bitterly for every Manning and Dr. Boo Cooper." ed together. At eleven o'clock the campaign is neared, candidates for in the state legislature and of the large crowd assembled within the state offices today enlivened the measures he has advocated during church to hear the program for the meeting at White Spring park, on that time. He declared that he saved day which consisted of an opening the edge of the city, with statements the life of the state warehouse sysby the school, reading of Scripture warmer time may be expected be- ulating the sale of fertilizers. He and prayer, reading by three young fore the county to county meetings said he was a farmer and lawyer and

C. After the address a vocal duet ated. Many statements made at the kind of chief executives. was rendered. During the render- meeting today, by reason of the fact J. J. Cantey and William Coleman Particularly is this true of the meet, trocuted without due process of law. After the program in the church ing at Laurens tomorrow when Geo. had been completed a sumptuous din- W. Wightman, candidate for commis- PERSONALITIES TO FORE

"Picture Peddler"

A feature of the program for the day advised the voters to carefully dulgence in personalities among canafternoon as planned by the commit- consider if a candidate for the office didates offering for state superintee was a water melon cutting, of commissioner of agriculture was tendent of education.

ly. Indeed it was a pretty sight to' For superintendent of education, Mr Seigler said he understood that John E. Swearingen, the incumbent; the children were living with their life he was successful, and he made the whole of his gosnel. During the noon hour it was learn- J. H. Hope of Union, and Cecil H. grandfather and that in so far as he a place for himself by his honesty 2. You, doubtless, believe that ed that some parents wanted their Seigler of Aiken, injected the warm- was concerned the matter was drop- and loyalty, and devotion to duty, God created worlds and worlds, and

The present pastor has not yet been who is not fit to be superintendent had attacked him five times before ordained. Also, some wanted to unite of education the one who would inhe mentioned Mr. Hope's name, and important cases successfully, and the creation of a life germ so small firmation. Arrangements were made mud slinging," in reference to Mr. Gold himself and I'll meet him." to hold a short devotional service Swearingen's statement that Mr. Mr. Hope said he didn't want the shortly after the noon hour. Rev. Hope's expenses might be paid by a office if he had to crawl through a tenets of the school of the Old And, further, if Christ was born coenfirmation. After the confirma- the name of any particular can lidate tion service a baptismal service was referred to these words said to have held. At this service seven children been made by one of his opponents: were baptized: one in one family, "He has complained of buying books two in another, and four in a third until his back is burdened. That family. An impressive incident dur- man's children are not living with granddaughter being confirmed at Mr. Swearingen, continuing to aithe same time. Dr. J. J. Long offi- rect his remarks to Mr. Hope, said ciated at both, the confirmation and he would like to ask that candidate where he was and what he was doing Miss Cornelia Wallace Wednesday

Adams Makes Charge

In the three cornered race for tess served ice cream and cake. lieutenant governor, Dr. E. C. Adams Those present were: Misses Har-The following of Newberry are graduates of a certain institution. Jones, Rose Turpin Tarrant, Julia to tide through the meagre years, chosen as grand jurors to serve in E. B. Jackson, who followed, made Weeks, Florence Kibler, Edith Dor- but he was even more so a friend of also be false—a thought bordering the United States court which con- no mention of that charge, but con- rity, Helen Davis, Clara Davis, Min- those whose meagre means did not on to blasphemy. with Judge H. H. Watkins presiding. J. K. Owens, the third candidate Nancy McIntosh, Helen Chalmers season. He lived to do good, and Father are one;" and in John 5:18, it came into town seeking a job. He to be played at 11 o'clock in the for the office, promptly stated that and Jack Salter. he wished to lay all the cards on the

And the following to serve as petit table before the voters and read a !letter said to have been written in the interest of Mr. Jackson's candi-W. T. Buford, Newberry, W. H. dacy by James H. Hammond, a fortracts from the letter said to have been written by Mr. Hammond to a A. L. Aull, Pomaria; L. McFall former Citadel man in another town for us if Jackson is not elected. It is incumbent on all of us who have the institution at heart to look out for Rev. and Mrs. Y. J. Reeder (col- its interests, as an old Citadel man, ored) wish to thank their neighbors I was instrumental, with others, in tack Blease yesterday in Newberry, Reeder, served delicious sandwiches resumed his thrusts at Mr. Blease to- and iced tea. Next meeting with We doubt if even a hot fight for day. He also declared that McLeod Mrs. J. Henry Reeder. was the first choice for governor and Laney the second choice of Edwin UP IN STATE "CIRCUS" Wales Robertson of Columbia.

Duncan Attacks Blease

Mr. Blease declared that while he Wednesday Was a Red Letter Day in Meeting at Greenwood Is Enlivened had not made as little as $5,000 a year (which is the salary of the governor of South Carolina) for the past seven years, he stood ready to rid the ache it has ever had and which was idid not pose as a farmer only.

pleted a forceful and interesting ad- ent of education, lieutenant govern- ment was made by Mr. McLeod who dress was delivered by the invited or and commissioner of agriculture, said that the remedy for the present speaker for the occasion, Rev. J. J. vied with the gubernatorial can-large number of crimes was by the Long, D. D., of Little Mountain, S. didates in the amount of interest cre- verdict of juries unheld by the right poor, and he left his impress in their Christ, and his attacks on the iner-

Laurens, Aug. 16 .- Here today as was the case yesterday in Greenwood Mr. Harris, from the platform, to- there was a somewhat generous in-

Twenty-eight nice, large melons were "real dirt farmer or a picture ped- J. H. Hope of Union, referring to sliced on the same table which had dler." Mr. Wightman had spoken vesterday's statement of Cecil H. bourne so much during the noon first and had no opportunity to re- Seigler of Aiken, that a candidata hour and many folks said they had ply. However, he requested Mr. complaining of buying textbooks, father felt the effects of the War ral. never seen such a beautiful scene as Harris, as the latter took his seat. to "was not living with his family and was presented to the eye when they be sure to mention the "picture ag- possibly had not bought a textbook beheld the table as it was fairly lined ent incident" tomorrow at laurens for his child in ten years," had from end to end with the sliced mel- and that he, Mr. Wightman, would "stooped to a contemptible lie, and I teld him so this morning."

John E. Swearingen said Mr Hope

Wicker-Crumpton

On last Saturday evening at seven o'clock Miss Ruby L. Wicker and Mr. route 6, were married at the St. ing the confirmation service was that him and he has possibly not bought a Paul's parsonage, the Rev. S. P. Koon officiating.

Tuesday Rook Club

The Tuesday Rook club met with tables and after the games the hos-

COMMUNITY MARKET

Tranwood Demonstration club met August 9th with Mrs. J. W. Reeder. Notwithstanding sore arms from typhoid serum and nigh "sick unto death," 16 members were brave enough to venture forth to enjoy the pleasant get-together, accept what the gods provided, and store away for future reference the bright ideas imparted by Miss Berrie.

Soup mixture was prepared, canned and laid away by the hostess for some lucky mortal who "happens to drop in" a cold winter morning.

Five visitors were present. The John T. Duncan, who did not at- hostess, assisted by Miss Gertrude

Mrs. C. A. Matthews, Sec.

NEWBERRY, S. C., FRIDAY, AUGUST 18, 1922.

(By John K. Aull) of the News and Courier, speaking Greenwood, Aug. 15.—Fighting thrust upon the people by Dr. Dick age in South Crolina, said, in subbut nevertheless many folks gather- inch of ground as the end of the Geo. K. Laney told of his record forest fell that it was known of all mankind in the surrounding community. In contradistinction is the falling of some tree in the forest which would hardly be noticed by song by the school, a welcome song and thrusts that indicate an even tem and also introduced the bill reg- passers by. Mr. A. S. Tompkins was one of these towering trees in the forest. It was given him, by a merciful God, to be one of the exponents of the divine command of right liv- A copy of the following letter has ing, clean thinking, and absolute du- been mailed to the Rev. H. E. Fosty to his fellowman. He went out- dick, D. D., who is gaining notoriety side of that. He visited, quietly, the by his denial of the virgin birth of homes and particularly in their rancy of the inspiration of the Bible: hearts. He dal this without ostenta- Spartanburg, S. C., Aug. 11, 1922. tion and none knew of it except To Rev. H. E. Fosdick, D. D., New those who were the recipients of his York, N. Y.

> he was a member. It has been esti- great interest and appreciation."mated by those who know, that he (Ivy L. Lee). made twice as many Sunday school I, therefore, submit a few comaddresses as any other man in his ments for your prayerful consideracounty, and it is probable that dur- tion; but I do not ask any further ing the long term of his life of 68 correspondence on the subject. years he made more of this kind of 1. In the Gospel by St. Matthew,

Between the States, and Mr. Tomp- Now if, as your theory would have kins went to work as a young attor- us believe. Matthew fied, then what the leading lawyers of the state, rep-clse he has written in that gospel? resenting a number of important liti- If false in that, then most naturally, gants. In business and professional we might question the vericity of law in this state.

Mr. Tompkins was reared in the clearly see it? J. A. Shealy, a member of the con- text book concern, Mr. Swearingen sewer pipe to get it. The people of South, the fragrant remembrances after the ordinary course of nature, gregation but now an active pastor repeated the assertion made at New- Union county knew him and had of the civilization of which are as He would simply be a mere man, and in Shandon, Columbia, S. C., con- berry that while he did not make the elected him county superintendent "sweet as remembered kisses after would have no righteousness to hand ducted the devotional service. Heads direct charge he would not be surducted the devotional service. Heads direct charge he would not be surof three families, one woman and prised if Mr. Hope's expenses were of three families, one woman and prised if Mr. Hope's expenses were crs to the people of Union and would Old South—a South which, through power to forgive sins. Only a Godtwo men, four grown girls, and two being paid by a text book company. abide whatever the Union people efforts of men of his type, has devel- man could effectively atone for sin. oped into a section not only of this 3. St. John declares in the most OLD FOLKS AND HOME COMcountry, but of the world, which is emphatic terms that. "In the beginthe leading agricultural, manufactur- ning was the Logos-Word-and the a type of culture which has neither was God." And he declares that "all Coming day at the St. Paul's church notoriety she has gained. John Crumpton, both of Prosperity, been equalled nor surpassed. He was things were made by Him—the Lo-next Sunday. August 20. There will a man of literary genius; an author; gos-and without Him was not any- be all day service with dinner on the but, even with the laurels which thing made that was made." were his in these lines of work, his This same John says, "The Word ing will be preached by Dr. W. K. main claim to fame lies in his friend- was made flesh, and dwelt among Gotwald of Newberry college. The liness to all. A principle of his life, men"-and then declares that "We sermon & address in the afternoon symbolically, was to > afternoon. Rook was played at four "-live in a house by the side of the road, And be a friend to man."

led off by charging that one of his riett Harrell, Evelyn Burns, Kather-! He was a friend, not only of those opponents had been brought out by ine Fant, Sarah Cromer, Katherine whose material means entitled them and by its precepts he directed his equal with God."

ing more can be said of any man.

church have lost one of their most Jesus Christ Himself. valuable citizens and members. He No wonder the present generation Campbell was married a few years was always a devoted member of the is discrediting the B ble, and going to and he and his wife visited New The ceremony was performed by church, and he always took an active after the ways of the world. The York. He has just returned to his Rev. George Hyman of the First hurch, and he always took an active destiny of souls trembles in the bal- home in La Grange, Ga., from visit- Baptist church, at the parsonage in interest in the affairs of the state ance, and those of us who preach ing relatives and friends in Newber- the Williford residence. Mrs. Walgovernment. He was one of those the gospel need to be very careful ry county and at Wrightsville Beach, lacec is a former resident of Seuth men of whom it may be said in the that we do not become soul murder- N. C. An account of his sister's Carolina but has made her home in words of the poet that he so lived:

"So live, that when thy summons comes to join

◆

The innumerable caravan, which shall take His chamber in the silent halls of thy grave,

"death, The late Mr. Dawson, then editor Thou go not, like the quarry-slave at night.

tained and soothed

his couch

dreams." He so lived and he so passed away.

The Virgin Birth of Christ

Dear Sir: Some one has mailed As a friend he was one of the me a copy of a sermon said to have kindliest gentlemen whom the Lord been preached by you, May 21, 1922, has created. He was active in the in the First Presbyterian church of work of his church and for a number New York. With that document of years was superintendent of the comes this note: "Your domments IN SUPERINTENDENT'S RACE Sunday school of the church of which upon this sermon would be read with addresses than any other man in the chapter 1, 18-25, it is positively declared that the birth of Christ was Mr. Tompkins was a man whose "a virgin birth"; hence, supernatu-

ncy at Edgefield and become one of credence can be given to anything second to no man who has practiced is, therefore, the author of all the ramifications of nature. Then which As a lawyer, he handled some very is easier, the creation of worlds or ing, and-best of all-the result of Word was with God. and the Word There will be Old Folks and Home start she would have been spared the grace and truth."

birth of Christ calls John "a liar" ly invited to attend. when he declares that Jesus is God. Then upon your unproven hypothesis, John's further statements may

Very truly,

S. T. Hallman, Spartanburg, S. C.

THE NEWS OF WHITMIRE

To that mysterious realm, where each Mr. Z. H. Suber Builds Ice Plant-Fine Union Meeting Closes-Whitmire Team Wins

Whitmire, Aug. 16 .- Additional improvements for our town are being of the passing of a notable person- Scourged to his dungeon, but, sus-considered on account of the strutstance, that when a giant oak in the By an unfaltering trust, approach Judge Singleton. It is thought best city and all was bustle and hurry, a to widen our streets. Naturally small negress thought it. an appro-Like one who wrans the drapery of large of stature they are spreading priate time to get in a little thievery; About him, and lies down to pleasant smiles can not be confined to their for Mrs. C. J. Purcell, took advan-player. Whitmire is regretted.

in Whitmire.

Gospel, pure and simple, and sprin- push the case against the culprits. ray serene. It will long live in the to make conditions deplorable pa-grounds. The sermon in the mornbeheld His glory, the glory as of the will be delivered by Dr. J. J. Long only begotten of the Father, full of of Little Mountain. The old folks, The State. the people who have gone out from

S. P. Koon,

What a Young Man Can Do

the good as he saw it, and as the is said, "The Jews sought the more found a small grocery merchant run- morning and 5 o'clock in the after-Scriptures taught the good to be. He to kill Him, because. He said that ning his own business and applied to noon. was an ardent student of the Bible, God was His Father, making Himself him for work. The merchant replied that he was not able to hire a clerk, Then, evidently, the Jews fully un- but the young man was very persisderstood that Jesus claimed to be the tent, saying he would work for any- Tampa, Fla., Times, 12th. courteous, and always open and Son of God in a sense claimed by no thing the merchant would give. above-board. He was one of those other rabbi, prohphet or priest. "Well," said the merchant, "I can Now, I submit that all this brings give you board and a few dollars per nothing to hide either in his person- you, at once, face to face with the month." The trade was made. That al or public life. He was a devoted fact, which you cannot dodge, that young man was Robt. C. Campbell of husband and father. He was a Sou- your theory flatly contradicts the Jalaa. Since then he has been with thern gentleman, unafraid, and nothevangelists in the gospels, the New da and South Carolina and is now In his passing the state and the Testament epistles and the words of manager of one of 145 grocery stores -cwned by Rogers of Atlanta. Young marriage appears in this issue of the Tampa for the last two years. She paper. His sister lived for a number is a graduate of the Cox school, At-Lutheran Pastor. of years in Newberry at the home of lanta, Ga., and has numerous friends her uncle, Mr. W. B. Johnson.

SOLITAIRE DIAMOND RING STOLEN BUT RECOVERED

Little Negro Girl Steals Ring, But Mother Forced to Return the Diamond

During the meeting of the state campaign party in Newberry Monting and puffing of John Miller and day, while the crowds were in the to unusual dimensions and their accordingly Hulda Rutherford, nurse handsome faces. As fathers of their tage of the situation. Mrs. Purcell, first born, they are the whole cheese. freeing her hands to make fig pre-The stork left with Mr. and Mrs. serves, had taken her rings off and Miller a sweet little suffragette, Miss put them in the wardrobe, the key Julia; and with the Singletons a Wil- in the door, unlocked. Leaving the son Democrat, druggist and ball rings where she had placed them, Mrs. Purcell left the room and was Mr. Z. H. Suber has just complet- absent for some time. When she reed an ice plant at Lavonia, Ga., and turned the solitaire diamond ring put in charge of it his son Walter, was missing; the girl, who is about and Francis Douglas. These are fine ten or 12 years old, had stolen it. young men and their absence from There was no doubt of that, as there was no one else in the house who W. G. Anthony, a young man from would "take things," and a burglar Camden, has cast his lot among us would have taken all in sight. Mrs. and has fitted up a grocery store in Purcell was confident that Hulda was the Burlowitz block. So there is now guilty. She questioned the girl, but not a vacant dwelling or store house the little thief denied any knowledge of the missing ring. The mother, All our globe tretters have return- Ida Rutherford, an old family sered from their vacation, but with no vant, being at her own home at the sign of physical improvement. They time, Mrs. Purcell went there. Mrs. are still in a state of ennui. Another Purcell told the woman that she was word would probably better describe certain the child had taken the ring, their condition but verbum sap. but if she would return it the matter When they die it will not be necessa- would be dropped, as all she wanted ry to write the epitaph, "Rest in was her ring. The mother upheld the daughter in the matter, protesting Last week our bail team played that she knew nothing of the ring. Orangeburg six games and won with Mrs. Purcell returned Lome, accomhands down. This feat entitles Whit- panied by the woman and the child. mire to the amateur championship of Knowing full well that the ring was the state. Our boys are in Winns- in the possession of the woman or boro now and have won the first the child, Sheriff Blease was called in and, with Mrs. Purcell, made a Dr. Lewis, optometrist of Colum- thorough search of the room; Mrs. bia, is here for a week helping those Purcell had already searched everywho have bad eyes. However, he is where in the room. They told the The union revival here, conducted the meantim Ida Rutherford had by Dr. Lee for two weeks, closed last watched her opportunity and slipped night. It was a decided success in the ring on a window sill in the room, every way. Dr. Lee is one of the which was one of the places where a with the church by the rite of con- dulge in such lirty, contemptible "if he wants to fight let him blind- his career at the bar was one of the that a microscope must be brought greatest preachers of his day. Ele- thorough search had been made. Refirmation. Arrangements were made mud slinging," in reference to Mr. sold himself and I'll meet him." most highly creditable in this state, into use before the eye of man can has few equals. He preaches the prized treasure, Mrs. Purcell did not kles it with literary gems of purest It is just such crimes which help take them in hand at the start and correct them it would at least have a salutary effect if not entirely bring ING DAY AT ST. PAUL'S about a reformation. If Ida Rutherford had given back the ring at the

RAIN PREVENTS GAME

Doubleheader for Winnsboro and Whitmire Wedne:day

Winnsboro, Aug. 15 .- The game Now your denial of the virgin St. Paul's, and the public are cordial- between Winnsboro and Whitmire was rained out here today, disappointing the large crowd here from Pastor. adjoining counties to see what was expected to be the fastest semi-professional ball game in the state this season. A doubleheader has been Once more: Jesus said. "I and my Some 20 years ago a young man arranged for Wednesday, the games

Wallace-Campbell

Mr. J. I. Campbell announces the marriage of his daughter Marie Marguerite

Mr. Vam E. Wallace on Saturday

August the eleventh nineteen hundred and twenty-who will extend best wishes.