MR. SWEARINGEN

State Board of Education Praises Retiring Head—Wise Assumes Office.

Columbia Record.

A resolution endorsed the administration of Hon. John E. Swearingen, as state superintendent of education, was adopted unanimously by the state board of education at its quarterly meeting in Governor Harvey's office yesterday afternoon. The resolution expressed the commendation of the board for Mr. Swearingen's work for the school system of the state, and for the cause of education in general.

Mr. Swearingen will retire in January after twelve years of service as the head of the state's public school system. During these years the public schools have grown remarkably, and a sentiment for education has developed which is as strong today as opposition to compulsory education was when Mr. Swearingen first took office. During his administration compulsory education has become the law of the state, and the appropriations for public education have increased from a total of a few hundred thousand dollars a year to more than a million a year.

Mr. Swearingen will be succeeded by J. H. Hope of Union, who will be as the nominee of the Democratic party in the recent primaries, elected to the office at the general election in November.

Prof. H. A. Wise, who has been selected by Mr. Swearingen as assistant superintendent, to succeed Prof. E. D. Easterling, who has gone to California a few days ago and is this week assuming the duties of office. Prof. Wise was at one time principal of one of the Columbia schools, and has been more recently principal of the Jonesville schools in Union county.

The state board yesterday confirmed the scholarship recommendations for the University. The Citadel, Clemson and Winthrop. Every scholarship at Winthrop was filled, 124; all at the University, 46; and all at the Citadel, 68. A number of unfilled places remain at Clemson.

The findings of the state board of welfare were reversed as to a scholarship to the Citadel for L. D. Pitts, of York county, and he was awarded a four-year scholarship. J. A. Hutto, of Orangeburg, was awarded a scholarship to the University. Orion W. Davis, of Marion, was awarded a scholarship to Clemson.

The state board set Friday and Saturday, November 4 and 5, as dates for the teachers' examinations in all counties, these to include all grades of certificates, primary, elementary and high school. The board elected Miss Mattie Thomas as community school organizer for 1922-23, and elected H. B. Dominick a member of the state bureau of examiners.

During the service at the church Mr. Jas. F. Epting, teacher of the Sunday school class in which Mr. Welch was a member, eulogized his departed friend. At his request the pallbearers were selected from the three societies of which he was a member, two from each, Red Men, Odd Fellows and Junior Order.

The burial was attended by an unusually large number for Saturday.

Correct this sentence, "Your ears are not clean, son," said the mother; "But I don't believe in washing a small boy too much."

Thank goodness; in a little while vests will be back to afford a parking space for the trash that now fills our pants pockets.

AMERICAN LEGION NOTES.

Regular meeting of the Post tonight (Monday) at eight o'clock. Immediately after the close of the business session rehearsals will begin on "Sittin' Pretty," a real musical comedy hit of the A. E. F. with two acts and eleven snappy musical numbers, which the Post will present at an early date. We are counting on the united support of the members of the post.

(By Ben Adams, Charleston.)

Frank Roach Post, at Rock Hill, met Thursday night and took up matters of interest to the post. It was announced that a celebration would be held on Armistice Day, November 11. A committee was named to arrange the details.

Richland post, of Columbia, held a lively meeting Tuesday night. The Columbia legionnaires will sponsor the American Red Cross drive in the capital city November 11. Mr. Ben M. Sawyer, former post commander, reported on the State convention. Mr. D. Ralston Cameron, State director of the Near East Relief, spoke on the relief question. The relief work was endorsed by the post. Mr. George W. Bogle, post commander, presided.

Department Commander Luther K. Brice, spent several days in Atlanta last week in the interest of legion affairs as they affect the disabled men.

Greenville Post met Monday night and took up the matter of arranging for the celebration of Armistice Day. Messrs. G. Heyward Mahon, H. H. Orr and W. F. Robertson were named on a committee to look after the affair. The resignation of Post Chaplain G. C. Dunn was accepted when Mr. Dunn stated that he was leaving Greenville. Messrs. George Morgan, Rudolph Anderson and W. H. Beattie were appointed a committee to arrange for an entertainment during October.

The De Soto hotel will be headquarters of the South Carolina delegation at the annual convention of the legion to be held in New Orleans October 16 to 20. The delegation and other legion members who expect to attend will leave Spartanburg October 15 and arrive in New Orleans early the next day.

The Charleston Post has a membership of more than 470. Other ex-service men have expressed their intention of joining the post. Members of the post are planning a weekly luncheon. The affair will be strictly informal and is being promoted with the idea of bringing legion members together more often than would be possible through the regular monthly meetings only.

Don't forget the meeting of the post tonight. We need you and are counting on you.

The post is planning big things for the future. Are you going to have a part in them. Answer by your presence in the Legion Hall tonight.

John B. Setzler, Pub. Officer.

A Call to Help

The state hospitalization committee of the American Legion auxiliary is sending out an urgent call for jellies for the disabled soldiers at the U. S. Veterans hospital No. 26, Greenville, S. C.

It is hoped that every one in this county will at least give one glass of jelly for these sick boys, so that a nice box can be sent from Newberry county.

Let's show the boys we are still interested in them and go "over the top" in this drive, and they will be most appreciated.

This jelly can be sent to Mrs. Jno. M. Kinard, chairman of this committee for Newberry county.

To the cynic, love is just a conviction that it is easier to get along with one than without one.

Opportunity knocks but once; every one keeps at it forever.
