TWICE A WEEK, $2.00 A YEAR

FARMERS' COLUMN

T. M. Mills, Agent

A little money spent now for cover crops will save a large amount next spring in fertilizer bills.

Carbon-bisulphide will kill the weevils that are destroying your corn and other grain. One pound is sufficient to fumigate and kill all the weevils in four barrels of grain. A mighty good investment.

One gallon of kerosene and one pint of coal tar well mixed and applied to the roosting poles, hen nests and the inside of chicken houses will keep the flock free of mites.

An ax is not a fit tool for pruning the fruit trees. Spend a little money for a pair of good lopping shears. The difference in results obtained will more than pay the bill.

Best Variety of Fruits for This Section of the State

In order to answer the oft asked question I will name some of the most popular varieties of fruit that have been tried out and found suitable for this section of the state.

Peaches. Mayflower, Greensboro, Mamie Ross, Carmen, Belle of Georgia, Elberta, Chinese Cling. The above list will furnish ripe fruit from the latter part of May till the middle of August. The Belle of Georgia and Elberta are the varieties most largely used for commercial purposes.

Pears: Red June, Shire and Abundance are some of the best varieties.

Apples. Livered, Early Harvest, Red June for early apples. Yellow Horse and Kinnard for summer. Delicious, Stayman, Winesap, Rome Beauty, Yates, etc., for winter use.

Cherries. Early Richmond, Black Tartarian, Montmorency.

Grapes. The grape is one of our most dependable fruits and should be more largely planted for commercial purposes. Moores Early, Lucille, are fine for later use.

Dairying
Mr. Cecil Fellers attended the Guernsey cattle sale at Salisbury, N. C., last week and bought two registered guernsey heifers. This is a step in the right direction. This makes four registered Guernsey cows now owned in the Prosperity Guernsey association and the members are looking for more.

A number of farmers in this section some time ago purchased a registered Jersey bull, 3 or 4 pure-bred cows and a number of grades and are now selling cream to the Newberry creamery. One farmer is selling nine gallons of cream per week and is still increasing the herd. These farmers are growing their feed, doing their work themselves and the cream check looks good every pay day. We need more farmers to patronize the creamery and it will mean more cash, more meat, more eggs, better chickens, richer soil and in the long run better schools, better churches and better homes and a more contented people. Every community and every country that have gone to dairying and stuck to it have prospered and Newberry county will do the same thing if the farmers will only make up their minds to do so.

A Good Whitewash
Seekers after a good formula for whitewash will find it in the one given below as recommended by the United States department of agriculture.

Take one-half bushel of unslaked lime and slake it with warm water. Cover it while slaking to keep in the steam. Strain through a fine sieve or strainer. Dissolve 8 quarts of salt in the warm water; make a thin paste and while boiling hot stir in one-half pound of Plaster of Paris and one pound of glue, which has been previously dissolved over a slow fire. Add all of this to the strained lime solution and mix well, then add 5 gallons of hot water. Let whole mixture stand for three or four days. It should be put on hot, with a small brush. Coloring may be added, as Spanish brown or yellow or common clay.

Inside information is valuable. That's why doctor bills are high.

NEWBERRY'S FIRST FORUM TO BE HELD DECEMBER 7

"Brick-Bats" and Suggestions to Feature Meeting

Newberry's first public forum will be held Thursday, December 7th at 7:30 p. m. in the Chamber of Commerce rooms, according to an announcement by Dr. E. H. Kibler, secretary of the recently organized Presidents club and forum. It will also possibly be Newberry's first "brick-bat" meeting, for every citizen of Newberry will be given an opportunity to throw bricks to their heart's content, and they will be provided with a target so the throw will be perfect.

The purpose of the organization of the Presidents club and forum is to give the citizens of Newberry opportunity to offer suggestions for the betterment of Newberry city and county, and at the same time give them an opportunity to offer any criticism. The forum is composed of the presidents of the Rotary club, the Kiwanis club, the Civic League, the Chamber of Commerce and the mayor of Newberry.

A feature of the meeting which will be held on the above mentioned date will be a brief report from the presidents of the various organizations of the work accomplished by their organization during the past year, and Dr. J. W. Carson, chairman of the forum, promises the citizens other interesting features. The interest manifested at this meeting will determine whether the meetings will be held regularly each month.

The organization of this forum will provide a channel through which any citizen can help every organization accomplish its purposes, as every suggestion offered will be conveyed to each organization through its president, and the citizens should turn out in large throngs for the first meeting especially, as the attendance at the first meeting will greatly encourage the officers of the forum and officers of the various organizations to go forward with a greater determination to build a greater Newberry. It is not their Newberry they are interested in, but it is your Newberry and their work will be directed along lines suggested by you.

The chairman of the forum wishes it clearly understood that the meetings are not confined to members of the organizations, but they are open to every citizen of Newberry city and county, and furthermore, he wants it understood that every suggestion or criticism offered at the meetings will be given all consideration possible, so no one need feel that they are wasting their efforts in making suggestions or criticisms.

If for any reason you cannot attend the first meeting which is to be held December 7th, write your suggestion or criticism out and mail it to Dr. E. H. Kibler and it will be presented at the meeting. All communications must be signed as the forum will not have time to fool with anonymous articles.

Minnaugh
Minnaugh has three big bargain days at his store, Friday, Saturday, Monday. Don't fail to read the many bargains he is offering. Full details are given in his ad in the paper today. Everything you will need for the winter is mentioned and at prices that will move the goods from his shelves and be money saved to you.

HOMELIKE ATMOSPHERE AT NATIONAL HOTEL

The National Hotel in Newberry was headquarters for the officers, some of the superintendents, and visiting speakers. The various members of the Newberry union were hostesses and provided entertainment at the hotel. Those who partook of the hospitality of the National were unanimous in their praise of the fare and the homelike atmosphere of the place. —Palmetto White Ribbon.

The Globe
Is offering some bargains that will have the tendency to make you stand up and take notice. Just turn the page of this paper over and look for yourself and see what we are saying is true.

Mrs. Everett Evans has returned from Spartanburg after visiting her sister in that city.

DIES AT RIPE AGE

Mrs. Emma Andrews Passes After Long Illness

The State.

Mrs. Emma K. Andrews died yesterday afternoon at her residence, 614 Holly street, after an illness of one year. She was born in Newberry county in 1856 and had passed her three score years and ten when she passed away.

Mrs. Andrews is survived by three sons, P. W. Andrews and L. H. Andrews of Columbia and J. S. Andrews of Greenwood, and one daughter, Mrs. Louise McCasley of Columbia.

AMONG THE SCHOOLS

The trustees of the St. Johns school have made arrangements to transport the children of that school to Pomaria. This is the first school in Newberry to purchase a truck for the purpose. They bought through the Friday Motor company a Ford truck fitted up with side seats and curtains, for the purpose. Mr. L. B. Fridy made quick connection in having the truck ready for use, and it was on hand Monday afternoon and made the first trip on Tuesday morning. I desire to thank Mr. Fridy for his prompt work in having the truck ready. I was at Pomaria Tuesday and it was a pleasing sight to see the children mount the truck when school was out and start the homeward journey. I was sorry I did not have my kodak so that I might have made a picture of this first truck owned by the district, making its first trip with the children of an entire school with only one teacher, to a school with six teachers and a recognized high school. I know the children are going to be pleased, and best of all, they will have advantages they could not possibly have when there is only one teacher for all the grades, from one to ten. Of course, we have had a truck running in the county now for the second year from the Old Town school to Silverstreet, and the people are so well pleased with it that they do not think of changing the arrangement, but the district does not own the truck, and if this was only a high school it would be so much better, and it would be much easier to have a high school at Silverstreet than at Pomaria if the people of the community would only get together and get a vision. There is more taxable property in the district, and there are more children in reach of Silverstreet than of Pomaria. The people some day will see the opportunity that is now being thrown away in this community, but the trouble is these children who are there now will have passed on out, and will not come this way any more, and the opportunity will not come to them again. We should have a high school at Silverstreet right now with 150 children, and could if the people could only be made to see it. All that I can do is to tell them.

The arrangement at Pomaria is for the good of the children of both districts, as I see it, and I am glad that the people have seen it also, and I am doubly glad for the better opportunity it gives the children. I hope by another school year to make an arrangement to have the children from Red Knoll sent over to Little Mountain. There are about twenty-five children at Red Knoll, and they could be cared for at Little Mountain to the advantage of the Little Mountain school and the greater benefit to the children of Red Knoll. Pomaria now has 50 children in the high school, and Little Mountain has about the same, and if we had the Red Knoll children going to Little Mountain they could then have about the right number for a two teacher high school. I do not believe in too big a school, or of taking all the children from the country to the town, but Little Mountain and Pomaria are rural communities, and where these small schools are near enough to be transported so that the children may have the advantage of a high school, I feel that they should not be denied the opportunity.

In the upper section of the county Greener had only about eight or ten children and Trinity only two or three, and we made arrangement to have these children taken care of at Whitmire for this year as an experiment, and they are being transported and have the advantage of a high school with pine months over against a one teacher school with only six or seven months.

Leading out from Pomaria are two good highways, the one going to Peak and the other down to the Richland county line about Latikoo, and the truck for the St. Johns school can come from either direction over a good highway all the distance. The highway to Peak is nearly completed and will be a fine road. I drove down this road on Tuesday as far as the fine country home of Mr. J. M. Shealy. And I happened there just at the dinner hour and enjoyed a real dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Shealy. This is going to be a fine road when completed, and they tell me the other out to Latikoo is just as good, and when the bridge is completed at Pomaria we will be rid of Felks hill, and that will be a great thing for the people who travel the highway. The road from Newberry to Pomaria is about completed with the exception of the bridge over Cannon creek just before you reach Pomaria.

While down that side on Tuesday I made stops at two negro schools, the one in the St. Phillips district and the one in St. Johns. There are two teachers in St. Phillips and they have more than 100 children and a fairly good house and the teachers seem to be doing good work. At St. Johns there is only one teacher with about fifty children and no house to speak of. It is a house along side a church and the upstairs is used for some sort of lodge and the house is unfit for school purposes, with no furniture at all, a few benches. It seems to me almost a waste of public money to pretend to teach in any such place. I believe if we are going to pretend to educate the negro we should at least have a house that is semi-comfortable.

I made a brief stop at St. Phillips as I went down. Here is a good school with good teachers and the work is being well done. The enrollment is good and the attendance almost perfect. There are 29 children in the high school department, and there should be a high school here, and we are going to have one next year. Would have had it this year if we could have had another room in which to teach. We could very well send the children from York to this school to the advantage of both schools, and especially to the children of the Fork school. We have a good teacher at Fork but with only ten children she could do better work for them if she was added to the teachers at St. Phillips, and the children given to the several grades there. There is a good highway all the way. I suggested that this year, but the trustees thought best to run the little school on for another year at least. I also visited the Fork school. Mrs. Sligh is doing good work here, but she could do so much more if she was part of the teaching force at St. Phillips, and it would be so much better for the children, that I almost feel like we are not doing our duty to these children in that we are not giving them the opportunity we could, and that it is our duty to give them. But it will come.

I came by the new building at Central. This is going to be the best one teacher or one class room school building in the state. It is about completed and it is the purpose to open school in it in about a week. There was practically no building in this district and I counseled the people to send the children of this district to Little Mountain and Pomaria at least for a while, but they objected and as they had voted a special tax for the purpose of erecting a building we decided to build, and while we were at it and had to buy four acres of land, to put up a nice building, and this we have done.

The trustees and friends of the school and the people of the community are expecting to have a public meeting at the school house at Central on Friday, November 24, and they hope to have good speeches and some good things to eat that day, and they invite you to come out and enjoy the day with them. Mr. Jas. H. Hope the superintendent of education elect for the state is expected to be there, and President Derrick of Newberry college and some others, so come out and enjoy the day with these good people. Mr. D. L. Lewis of the state department of education is to be with me during that week and we will take in Central as part of our daily program.

The growing season of Newberry is offering some real bargains in this paper and you know by this time for real up to date goods this is the place to go.

NEWS OF WHITMIRE, THE TOWN THAT DOES THINGS

Whitmire, Nov. 15.—Dr. W. S. Brackett will in a short time take a 3 months course in surgery at Yale Medical college, making a specialty of the ear, eye and throat.

Mrs. Lena Henson of Pomaria is spending a few days with Mrs. Lou Abrams of the Whitmire hotel.

Our population is rapidly increasing not by foreign immigration, but by addition to our native stock. The stork has of late been unusually generous to the matrons of our town—just a few days ago it left two nice babies at the home of Frank Sinclair—boy and girl. He's receiving the glad hand of his friends, but he says lamentations would be more appropriate than congratulations.

Many of our Baptists will today attend a tempting lunch to be given at Newberry by the Reedy River association.

Rev. K. D. Smith preached last Sunday afternoon to the colored congregation of Flint Hill. It was a most effective and appropriate message. The singing was unique and unusually fine, equalling the songs of the sirens. Rev. Smith is certainly a good "nigger" preacher, as well as one of the best when on his native heath—talking to Anglo Saxons.

Crowds of Whitmire people still make nightly pilgrimages to Union to hear Rev. Gincy Smith—who is spiritually stirring the city from center to circumference.

TO STAGE PLAY FOR SOLDIERS AT HOSPITAL

Members of our past have definitely decided to stage "Sittin' Pretty" for the patients at the U. S. P. H. hospital No. 26, Greenville, S. C., on afternoon next week. We have been wanting to visit this hospital for quite a while. Now that we can "kill two birds with one stone"—pay the boys a social call and at the same time give them an entertainment—we have decided to take advantage of the opportunity. It is hoped that the presentation of "Sittin' Pretty" will recall to mind many of the humorous experiences these boys had while in service, and for the time being at least, make them forget their present troubles.

Several members of our auxiliary have signified their intention of visiting the hospital at this time. We shall be glad to have as many accompany us as can conveniently do so. The date will be announced later. No doubt the friends of the post will be glad to learn that we realized above expenses over $300.00 on our performance last Friday. Please accept the thanks of the members of the cast and of the post for your liberal patronage. It was very much appreciated.

John B. Setzler, Publicity Officer.

NEWBERRY INTERESTED IN NEAR EAST RELIEF

The State, 13.

Newberry is the first county in South Carolina to put on an intensive campaign for the Near East relief work and the county chairman, James C. Kibard, informs state headquarters in Columbia that prospects are the county will readily meet its quota. Canvassing began last Monday and will end today. Early in the week 50 volunteer workers covered the town, being enthusiastic service and meeting with cordial response. Among the leaders have been W. K. Gotwald, R. A. Goodman, Arthur Kibler and Paul B. Stryker.

N. A. Boyajian, Armenian, a member of the Columbia bar, was among the speakers in behalf of the Newberry campaign yesterday. Mr. Boyajian had left the service of the Near East relief under a former state administration, but has rejoined under State Director Ralston and State Chairman Lever and is to deliver a number of speeches at various points in the state. Another Armenian who spoke yesterday in Newberry was John M. Yonar of Charlotte.

Grand High Priest O. Frank Hart of Columbia, paid an official visit to State chapter, No. 18. R. A. M., Wednesday night and addressed the Masons at a special meeting, after which they had an oyster supper at the Busy Bee cafe.

AMERICAN LEGION NOTES

In behalf of the members of Newberry county post of the American Legion I wish to express to the citizens of Newberry, who contributed in any way to the success of our Armistice day celebration, our heartfelt appreciation. And by the word "our" I mean the people of Newberry county. It was your celebration as well as that of the ex-service men of the World war. As Colonel Johnson so fittingly said in his address, the Legionnaires do not claim to have a monopoly on patriotism. The men and women who did their "bit" at home demonstrated their love for flag and country just as truly as those who served in the trenches, or the boys who today sleep in Flanders Field. It is up to some organization to take the lead in our Armistice day celebration and as long as the Legion lives up to the principles for which it was founded it should be that organization. We appreciate the hearty cooperation the people of Newberry have always given to our post, and we truly hope that our conduct has been such as to merit your continued support. Our post was organized for service. And may the time never come when the opportunity to render service is passed by unheeded.

You may be interested to learn that when it seemed that the chairmanship of the sixth annual Red Cross roll call would go by default because of the inability to secure a roll call chairman, Post No. 24 and its auxiliary volunteered their services, and Howard R. Overby, member of our post, was appointed chairman. We bespeak for Mr. Overby the hearty support of every organization in the county. Just watch our "roll call" go over the top.

Our post is planning to take an active part in national education week, December 3-9, Tuesday, Dec. 5th, Patriotism day, we expect to present a flag in person to every white school in the county. At that time we shall take advantage of the opportunity to give a short talk on "Flag Etiquette, the Proper Courtesies Due the Flag." We hope that the parents will visit the schools on this day. Did you notice how few of the people who were standing on the sidewalks Friday morning removed their hats or stood at attention when "old glory," our flag, passed along in the parade? Those who failed to come to attention did not mean to be disrespectful to the flag. They simply didn't know what was the proper thing to do. Post No. 24 and its auxiliary has taken upon themselves to see to it that every citizen in the county shall at least know the proper attitude to assume when the flag approaches in a parade before next Armistice day arrives. We are going to begin our propaganda in the schools on patriotism day, Dec. 5th. A schedule of the itinerary will be published in the papers. Watch for it.

John B. Setzler, Publicity Officer.

THE JAMES FITZJAMES CALDWELL CHAPTER

The James Fitz James Caldwell chapter met with Miss Ida Mae Hayes Thursday afternoon at four o'clock. After the business the meeting was turned over to the historian and a very interesting program was rendered.

A Paper, Our County's Part in the War Between the States—Miss Claire Sigh.

Extract from Stranger—Miss Nellie Labe.

Reading from Veteran—Miss Estelle Chappell.

Delegates for the state U. D. C. convention which meets in Greenwood in December were elected as follows: Miss Elise Peterson as delegate; alternates, Miss Ida Mae Hayes and Miss Ella Dunn.

The chapter responded to the call of the Near East relief.

Afterwards block ice cream and cake was served which was enjoyed by all.

Magistrate C. W. Douglas married a colored couple, Eswlena Halter and Eugene Phillips, Wednesday afternoon.
