The first named on the committee is asked to serve as chairman and make the necessary arrangements for the trip. He is requested to call at the New Book store for the flags and pamphlets on "Rules to Respect the Flag."

Your committee appointed to make arrangements for this day realized when they were selecting the members of these committees that there is not a person named who will not be required to make some sacrifice to keep this appointment. However, the committee feels confident that after this duty has been performed all will agree that the sacrifice was well worth while. Let's give it a trial. Let's make the committees 100 per cent for service.

SUGGESTIONS

for
Churches, Chambers of Commerce, Labor Organizations, Women's Organizations, Fraternal Bodies, Luncheon Clubs, and Other Cooperating Agencies.

1. Urge ministers of all denominations to preach upon the subject of education, Sunday, December 3, 1922.
 2. Urge the mayor to issue a proclamation setting aside this week as American Education Week and asking the people to cooperate.
 3. Urge the newspapers to give all space possible to educational matters, articles, editorials, and news material.
 2. Urge the mayor to issue a proclamation appropriate for the occasion. Urge them to devote as much space as possible to matters of education in their newspaper advertisements.
 3. Ask the moving picture theatres to flash slides on the screen urging the people to visit the schools and study educational questions.
 6. Have speakers at all public meetings held that week talk a few minutes on the necessity of education.
 7. Cooperate with the educational officials and other patriotic, civic, and fraternal organizations.
 8. Advertise American Education Week on letterheads and envelopes.
- The American Legion's local post is working with you. The country looks to the American Legion to pave the way to patriotism and education—service to Nation, State, and community.

MR. HAIGLER LEAVES CHURCH AT UNION

Salisbury Evening Post.
The many friends of Rev. J. B. Haigler and family will regret to see them leave North Carolina this morning for Pomaria, S. C., where Rev. Haigler has accepted work in the Bethlehem pastorate. Preaching his last sermon at Union Sunday Nov. 12, to a crowded house, a very forceful sermon. Rev. Haigler has been the faithful and efficient pastor of Union church for little more than three years. He and Mrs. Haigler have always had the best interest of the church at heart, especially the work of the Luther league and young people of the congregation. They have made some very warm and loyal friends who appreciate the work and services rendered to the church and community, and who regret very much to see them leave. Mr. Haigler organized the Luther league of Union church and his son, Newell, who lies peacefully sleeping in Union cemetery, was the league's first president. The league passed resolutions to care for and keep flowers on his grave. Our very best wishes and prayers go with Rev. Haigler and his family in their new field of work in Pomaria.

CHANGE OF HOUR FOR CHURCH SERVICE

On account of the installation service that will be held at St. Lukes church near Prosperity, the service has been changed from the morning hour to an afternoon hour. The Sunday school hour has likewise been changed for the day. The Sunday school will meet at two o'clock in the afternoon and the regular morning service will be at three o'clock in the afternoon instead of eleven-thirty in the morning. At the three o'clock service, the pastor, Rev. E. H. Seckinger, will be formally installed as pastor of St. Lukes Evangelical Lutheran church. The public is cordially invited to this installation service at three o'clock Sunday afternoon, Nov. 26, 1922.
Rev. E. H. Seckinger, Pastor.

Mr. J. A. Rikard of Columbia is in Newberry.

FOULTY ASSOCIATION TO BE FORMED SATURDAY

To Encourage Raising More Thoroughbred Poultry and to Stage Regular Poultry Exhibits

The poultry show held in Newberry November 10th and 11th proved to be the best ever held in this county, and it further proved that people in Newberry county can raise just as good poultry as any other section of the country and since the show many people have been interested in organizing a poultry association, which association will devote its efforts toward encouraging farmers of the county to raise more and better poultry. It will also be the purpose of the association to hold regular poultry shows as often as agreed upon by the association when organized.

This article is a call to all people of Newberry county interested in poultry raising to meet in the office of the Chamber of Commerce Saturday morning, November 25th, at 10:30 o'clock, at which time the organization of this association will be perfected. The call is being issued by T. Boyd Jacobs, E. B. Purcell, R. M. Lominack, T. Roy Summer, Y. T. Dickert and many others interested in poultry.

It is hoped that every person in Newberry county who is interested will make a special effort to attend the meeting Saturday morning as present plans are to stage a gigantic poultry show some time during the month of January and the association should be thoroughly organized before that date. Every farmer interested should be present as the association will work entirely to the interest of the farmers in the county and the information which may be obtained through such an organization will be of untold value to them, as through the organization advice and information from poultry experts can be obtained.

Don't forget the date and hour of the meeting—Saturday morning, November 25th, 10:30 o'clock in the office of the Newberry Chamber of Commerce.

A Play at Pomaria

"America in Pilgrim Days" is to be presented by the 10th grade, in the Pomaria high school auditorium Nov. 28th, Tuesday night. Admission, 15 and 25 cents.

Cast of characters:
Hiawatha—Oscar Kibler.
Nokomis—Virgil Willson.
Iagoo—Nolan Wicker.
Minnchaha—Nellie Rae Soybt.
Priest—Arthur Wicker.
Puritan girl—Mary Rebecca Setzler.

Miles Standish—James Aull.
John Alden—Harold Heniz.
Priscilla—Willie Mae Stone.
Elder—Otto Summer.
Columbus—Frances Hentz.

The School Improvement association will serve supper immediately after the play, 10 cents a plate.

Now is your time to get a Thanksgiving supper and something good, for that is Pomaria's motto. Everybody invited.

AT AUCTION, BUY AT YOUR OWN BID, OR FAIL TO BUY

We told you about those beautiful and up to date show windows at the American Sales Company store, and now in one of the windows are several suits or dresses or coats, well they are marked, and you can see for yourself just what they are, they are up at auction and you make the bid and on Saturday evening the bids will be opened and the highest, not the lowest, bidder will get the article. It depends on how spirited the bidding is whether or not you get the article at your price, but it is a novel idea and should create a good bit of interest, and will if the people once get started to bidding, and really want the article offered. Go around and take a look at the windows and the beautiful and useful garments that are to be auctioned, and if the one in the window is not the right size, you may be fitted with the same grade of garment if you are the successful bidder.

Some Definitions

"Two or three" always means at least three or three and upward.
"One or two" seldom if ever means one.
"In a minute" means anywhere from five to fifty minutes.
"That reminds me of a story" means, "Now you been quiet while I tell my joke."
"I held no brief for" means, "I am now going to defend."
"While I do not wish to appear critical" means, "But I am going to have my say out anyhow."
"Of course it's no business of mine" means, "I am simply devoured with curiosity."
"My conduct calls for no apology and needs no explanation" is the usual introduction for an apology or an explanation.
"No one could possibly have mistaken my meaning" is what we say when some one has mistaken it.

MRS. FELTON TAKES SEAT IN SENATE AS FIRST OF HER SEX

"Blazes Path For American Womanhood" as She Takes Oath of Office in U. S. Capitol

Washington, Nov. 21.—Mrs. W. H. Felton of Georgia took the oath of office today as the first woman United States senator.

Her term probably will be only for a day but the ceremony crowned with success the efforts of the 87 year old woman to "blaze the path for American womanhood," in the senate and it was indicated that she would be content to step aside tomorrow in favor of Walter F. George, who was elected November 7 as her successor to fill the unexpired term of the late Senator Watson to which vacancy Mrs. Felton was appointed last September.

The seating of Mrs. Felton attracted a crowd to the senate. She was showered with congratulations.

When she was directed to proceed to the rostrum to take the oath of office, her face broke into a smile. On the arm of Senator Harris of Georgia, and lifting her gown daintly, she walked down the center aisle and up to the vice president's desk where Senator Cummins of Iowa, president pro-tem was presiding in the absence from the city of Vice President Coolidge.

As Senator Cummins motioned her to raise her right hand she exhibited her only sign of unfamiliarity with the proceedings, waving her hand to Mr. Cummins and smiling as if receiving a similar salute.

Senator Harris nudged her arm, however, and she then raised it, gazing intently at Senator Cummins as the oath was delivered and giving her response in a low voice.

The seating of Mrs. Felton had been expected, in view of the tacit agreement of the senate leaders to interpose no objection in the face of possible technical precedents as to her status after the election on November 7 of her successor.

The principal delay was due to an address of Senator Walsh, democrat, Montana, in support of her claim. This address went into the precedents involved and at first gave the impression that the Montana senator was opposing Mrs. Felton's claim. But later Mr. Walsh swung into strong support of her position, declaring that her title was clear and that granting it should not be considered a favor or a chivalrous act.

At no time did Mrs. Felton exhibit any nervousness, sitting with hands folded in her lap and with "eyes" on the Montana senator. She arrived a half hour before the senate convened and took the seat of the late Senator Watson after giving her wraps to a senate page and seeing that they were hung in the Democratic cloak room.

The address of Senator Walsh was broken by the joint session in the house chamber for the President's message and Mrs. Felton attended. She then returned to the senate where Senator Walsh concluded his address and she was sworn in. After receiving the oath she returned to her seat on the floor and watched the routine proceedings with a keen eye. Before going to the Capitol today Mrs. Felton went to the White House and paid her respects to President Harding.

It is understood that Senator-elect George will present his claim to the seat tomorrow after Mrs. Felton has answered one roll call and perhaps delivered a brief address.

DEATH CLAIMS BELOVED WOMAN

At 6:30 Tuesday morning the Angel of Death entered one of the homes of our community and claimed one of its sweetest characters and most lovable women—Mrs. Katie Ewart Bowman, wife of Mr. Charles A. Bowman. Mrs. Bowman had been an invalid for over a year and she bore her suffering with remarkable cheerfulness and patience until the Grim Reaper gathered his harvest—a harvest of a life well spent in service to her Master and to her fellow beings, and in making glad the hearts of her loved ones. Indeed, we may ask, "O death, where is thy sting? O grave, where is thy victory?" For the victory is hers. She has gone from a world of suffering to the eternal glory of the great beyond. Her pain-racked body has found rest, and her beautiful spirit will live on forever.

She leaves behind many whose hearts are sad—her devoted husband and two daughters, Mrs. T. Roy Summer of Newberry, and Mrs. Clarence Walter of Birmingham, Ala., and her only brother, Judge W. F. Ewart with whom she resided, besides her three small grandsons who were the pride of her heart. These are her closest relatives, but there are countless friends who loved "Miss Katie" and who grieve at her passing. Hers was a place in the life of the community that no one else could fill. Her beautiful character, her sweet and loving disposition, and her wonderful personality were impressed upon all with whom she came in contact, and will linger in our memories like the fragrance of a perfect flower that has passed.

The funeral service was held Wednesday afternoon, the procession leaving the house at 3:15, and the service was conducted at the Avenue Presbyterian church of which she was a member, by her pastor, Rev. E. D. Kerr. The interment was made at Rosemont cemetery, and the pallbearers were Messrs. J. L. Keitt, Sr., R. D. Smith, Sr., T. K. Johnson, Mes. J. N. McCaughrin, Dr. W. G. Stone, and C. H. Cannon.

The last earthly resting place of this beloved woman was covered with masses of beautiful flowers—so like unto the gentle spirit that has flown.

Mrs. Bowman before her marriage was Miss Katie Ewart, daughter of the late Dr. David Edmund and Laura Permelia Ewart. She was born December 5, 1857, in Newberry where she grew to young womanhood—a beautiful and stately young woman, with all the charm of the Southern lady. She completed her education at the Confederate college in Charleston and returned to Newberry where she met and married on September 21, 1881, Mr. Charles A. Bowman, a young Charlestonian who had come to Newberry to enter a business firm. Theirs has been a perfect union, marked by sympathetic love and devotion to each other, and now the cords which the years have bound are severed.

We can weep with those who weep, and try in a feeble way to comfort those who mourn, but it is only the Great Comforter who can bring to her sorrowing loved ones the "peace that passeth understanding."

Thanksgiving Service

The Union Thanksgiving service will be held this year at the Avenue Presbyterian church at 9 o'clock next Thursday morning, and will be in charge of the Evangelical Business Men's league.

Card of Thanks

We desire to express our heartfelt thanks to our neighbors and friends who so kindly helped us during the recent sickness and death of our dear mother, Mrs. W. O. Ammons. May God, our Father, richly reward each of them.
(Signed) The Children.

Fidelis Class to Sell Sandwiches
The Fidelis class of the First Baptist Sunday school will sell sandwiches and candy in front of Mayor Drug store on Saturday, the 25th.

Henoblu's streak of bad luck has changed. A fire down there destroyed 4,000 ukuleles.

NEWS OF WHITMIRE, THE TOWN THAT DOES THINGS

Whitmire, Nov. 22.—Thieves who break through and steal made a visit to Whitmire Sunday night and took many things of value from the Scott-Abrams Co., such as ready made clothing, shoes, cravats, socks, etc. The exact amount of loss is not yet known, neither has any one so far been suspected of the crime. Entrance to the store was made by prizing open a rear window.

The Rev. S. J. Simpson, Methodist minister, preached his farewell sermon Sunday evening to a large congregation. The Baptists called off their services and attended in a body. For some time we've been expecting some of the Baptists to turn Methodist, but didn't look for them all at once. They have not been accepted into our church yet and will not be till they get their "deep water ideas" entirely out of their system. However, it was very nice of them to honor Mr. Simpson by their presence.

According to advertisement the Duckett lands were sold Saturday afternoon. The home place brought $30 an acre. The other tracts ranging downward, some as low as $4.50 per acre. Nearly all of it was bought by mill employees of the Glenn Lowry.

Mrs. Douglas has returned from a week's visit to Peak, her old home. She is a sister to Dr. Stuck of Newberry and has a host of friends here and in Dutch Fork.

Prayer meetings will be held every night this week at the Baptist church preparatory to a revival to begin there on the 26th of this month. The services will be conducted by Rev. K. D. Smith, the present pastor, who is a consecrated man and a deep theologian, being a graduate of the Louisville Baptist seminary.

Last week our streets were brightened by the presence of a half dozen lady members of the Newberry Civic league. They were as sunshine and a rainbow after cloudy weather. We do hope, so much, that they will come again and stay longer and bring their knitting with them, so we can treat them in a more "hostile" manner.

Metts Fant and mother were here today. Glad to see Mrs. Fant looking so handsome and well, but regret that Metts is in declining health, pale and emaciated, like "Patience on a monument, smiling at grief."

Bill Smith of O'Neal street, Newberry, paid us a pop call a few days ago. He and I spent a year together in Cuba during the Spanish-American war as high privates in rear ranks of Capt. Sias McCaughrin's company. He recounted the many Spaniards we killed—more or less, and fought over many a battle—with owners of cabbage patches and coconut groves. Always glad to see Bill, especially when he brings his old fiddle along.

Prof. Wilson chaperoned our basket-ball team to Piedmont last Saturday when the boys met an enemy worthy of their steel, but were victorious and came home in high glee, feeling they were IT. Piedmont comes down in a few days to play a return game.

ENTERTAINMENT AT LONG LANE SCHOOL

The Long Lane School Improvement association will entertain you at the school house Wednesday night, November 29th, beginning at 8 o'clock.

A short Thanksgiving program will be given, followed by the selling of boxes and choice home-made candy. Come, we want to see you!

Craft-McCall

Mrs. Bertha Craft and Harry J. McCall were united in holy wedlock on Monday afternoon, the 20th inst., at the Mayer Memorial Lutheran parsonage. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. H. Dutton. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Janie Craft of the Mollohon village, and Mr. McCall is the son of Mrs. Katie McCall.

The young couple have the many good wishes of their friends.

Hot Supper at Smyrna

The Woman's Auxiliary of Smyrna Presbyterian church will have their annual hot supper on Thanksgiving night at the residence of Dr. W. D. Senn. The public is cordially invited.
