Hughey-Daniel

The State. The following account of a marriage of interest at Columbia college has been received there:

"A marriage of interest to a wide circle of friends was that of Miss Margaret Hughey and Walter W. Daniel, which took place Saturday afternoon, November 18, at 5:30 o'clock at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. F. A. Mitchell, 243 East Fourth street, Atlanta.

"The wedding was quiet and informal, being witnessed only by relatives and a few intimate friends. The Rev. A. G. Shankle, pastor of Grace Methodist church, officiated.

"The bride was becomingly gowned in a midnight blue point tulle dress and wore a corsage of sweet-heart roses and valley lilies.

"Mr. and Mrs. Daniel will be at home to their friends at 17 Druid Place after November 25."

The bridegroom is the son of the late Dr. W. W. Daniel, for many years president of Columbia college, and he spent most of his youth in Columbia. He is a graduate of Wofford college, is a veteran of the World war and is now connected with the medical school of Emory university, Atlanta.

LUTHERAN SYNOD ELECTS OFFICERS

To Compile History—Memorial Services—Mission Causes Presented

Prosperity, Nov. 24.—After a very interesting and helpful session the Lutheran synod adjourned here today about noon.

Shortly before adjournment, officers were elected as follows: H. J. Black, president, Columbia; the Rev. Charles J. Shealy, Cameron, recording secretary; H. S. Petrea, Graniteville, statistical secretary; W. A. Counts, Little Mountain, treasurer.

Members of the executive board: M. A. McCullough, Columbia; V. Y. Boozer, Leesville; C. A. Freed, Newberry; J. M. Senter, Chapin; S. J. Derrick, Newberry; George B. Cromer, Newberry; J. S. Wessinger, Chapin; W. K. Shealy, Leesville.

This morning memorial services were held in honor of D. A. Sox of Columbia and R. B. Tarrant of Springfield. An address appropriate to the occasion was delivered by O. B. Shearouse of Lexington and prayer was offered by Dr. S. T. Hallman of Spartanburg.

Dr. C. A. Freed of Newberry in an able address presented the claims of the West Indian mission board and the report of the committee on work among negroes was also heard.

M. O. J. Krebs was appointed chairman of a committee, which is to arrange a history of the synod, which will be prepared by Dr. Hallman of Spartanburg. This history is to be submitted by the committee in 1924 on the 100th anniversary of the founding of the synod.

Education is Featured

Christian education took an important place in the discussions during the week. Dr. George B. Cromer told in eight minutes what Newberry college had done for boys in South Carolina. He mentioned instances where some prominent men in the state had gotten their education through the help given to them by Newberry college and its presidents. Dr. Cromer spoke with his accustomed vigor and held the attention closely while he spoke of the big Christian ideals of Newberry college. Dr. Derrick spoke of the consecrated talent and services of the men who are laboring in the institution.

The report of R. C. Counts, the treasurer of the $300,000 educational fund, showed that about $175,000 had been paid in cash and the balance was in notes due and coming due. Dr. Derrick stated that this was a commendable showing in comparison with similar funds in other causes of this nature.

Dr. P. E. Monroe, president of Summerland college, told of the work being done there. They have recently completed a modern dormitory to cost about $60,000. Newberry college is in need of a new dormitory, but with money recently spent in building the new boarding hall and other necessary expenditures, there is not enough cash in hand now to erect the building.

It is hoped that the unpaid pledges will soon make it possible to do this building. The dormitories are all overcrowded.

Dr. J. J. Long told the synod of the influences of the girls who are going out from Summerland.

A resolution was adopted for the appointment of some one in each congregation to assist in collecting the unpaid notes.

Ordination Service

An impressive ordination service was held in the Grace church Wednesday night. The Rev. E. H. Seckinger, the pastor of St. Luke's church was ordained to the ministry.

Dr. C. A. Freed of Newberry preached the sermon, after which the service was conducted by the president of the synod, assisted by the Rev. Charles J. Shealy, Dr. M. O. J. Krebs and Dr. Freed.

The house was filled, many of the pastor's people coming in for the service. His people were also at the service, coming up from Georgia to be present at the ordination of the son and brother.

At the service Thursday morning a resolution was adopted giving the president of synod authority to arrange for the settlement of any difficulties that may arise in the congregations. The resolution provides for calling to his assistance other members of the synod for such amicable solution as may be desirable.

Since the coming into the synod of the 19 congregations in the vicinity of Columbia, the necessity will arise of a rearrangement of some of the pastorate for the more efficient work of the church. A committee has been appointed for either side of the river to do this work.

In the report of the committee on the president's report it was learned that St. Andrew's church in Charleston is supporting a missionary in the foreign field, Dr. C. K. Lippard, and also sending two young men to Newberry college in addition to the regular benevolence of the congregation. A resolution was adopted commending this work to other congregations.

R. C. Counts of the publication house in Columbia put on exhibition a fine display of the books and literature handled by the house.

The report of the committee on ministerial education showed that a number of young men are being aided in preparing to preach the gospel.

18 chapters extended this home service work to civilians.

13 chapters employed or helped to employ public health nurses.

7 chapters held life saving classes.

32 chapters did organized volunteer work.

A section of the American National Red Cross charter which authorizes our peace time program reads thus: "We shall continue to carry on a system of national and international relief in times of peace and shall apply the same to alleviate the sufferings caused by pestilence, famine, fire or other national disasters and shall devise and carry on measures to prevent the same."

AMERICAN LEGION NOTES

Perhaps one of the best and most satisfactory services the post has ever rendered was the presentation of "Sittin' Pretty" to the several hundred patients (ex-service men) at the U. S. Veterans' hospital No. 26, Greenville, S. C. Thursday afternoon. I am sure that no service the post has ever performed ever brought more genuine pleasure to the participants. No stronger testimony that the audience was pleased with our performance could be desired than that it held the undivided attention of the large audience through "chow" time. The boys were very responsive. Perhaps it was this that spurred on our troupe to put forth its best efforts. It was the consensus of opinion of all that this was our best performance. While "Sittin' Pretty" was being presented in the recreation hall to the patients who were able to be up members of our auxiliary were visiting the patients who were confined to their beds, distributing flowers, telling fortunes, and otherwise entertaining them. After the performance in the recreation hall, our troupe with hand organ in hand, visited the bed patients in their wards and sang some of our choruses for them. This brought to a close a very pleasant afternoon. Did we enjoy it? Just ask any one who was in our party.

Another service that our post has rendered recently that was very much appreciated was the presentation of "Sittin' Pretty" in the high school auditorium for the benefit of the "N" club at Newberry college. The receipts from this performance were $83.00. Not so bad for a second performance.

Just watch Post 24 and our Auxiliary on Patriotism day, Tuesday, December 5th. They are going to put this day over big. Committees will visit every white school in the county and present a flag to each school, and give a short talk on "Respect for the Flag." It is hoped that the patrons of the schools will be present at the schools on this day. You will find the schedule and the itinerary in The Herald and News and The Observer of Nov 23rd. Look it up. The chairman of each committee is requested to get in touch with the other members of his committee right away and make the necessary arrangements for the trip. Get the flags and pamphlet on "Flag Etiquette" at the New Book store. Let's make our committee 100 per cent on this service.

Attention members of Post 24! Here is our opportunity. Arrangements have been made with Maurice Matteson, who has opened a music studio in the Legion hall, whereby he will give free of charge drill in choruses singing to any of the members who will attend. The first meeting will be 3:30 Wednesday evening, Nov. 29th. We have the material for a good chorus in our post. Here's your opportunity to develop it. Let's give Matteson a big crowd at the Legion hall next Wednesday night.

Don't forget the regular meeting of the Post Monday, Dec. 4th. Our post is going good now. Let's keep it up. The new officers will be installed at this meeting.

John B. Setzler, Publicity Officer.

ANNUAL GRIDIRON DUEL BETWEEN NEWBERRY AND P. C.

The eyes of all of Newberry's football enthusiasts are turned toward Clinton, where "Dutch" MacLean's Indians and Walter Johnson's Blue-stockings are to meet on Thanksgiving day in their annual gridiron duel. This game is always a case of "Greek meeting Greek," and the many fans who will go up to see it are assured of a fine exhibition of the great American college game. While the "dope" favors P. C. as the probable winner, this same "dope" has been upset so strikingly in the Clemson-Carolina, Carolina-Furman, and other games, that it cannot be trusted. Suffice it to say that MacLean and his men are bending every ounce of energy they possess in order to give the Presbyterians a surprise, and the Citadel and Erskine games have shown that the Indians are no mean opponents. Walter Johnson and his little team have had a great season and will try to close it in a blaze of glory.

Seats will be reserved for the Newberry rooters and for the supporters of the Scarlet and the Gray. These seats have been put on sale at Gilder and Weeks'. The game will be called at three o'clock.

APPRECIATE EFFORTS OF NEWBERRY POST

The visit of the Newberry Post of the American Legion to Greenville last Thursday to present their play "Sittin' Pretty," before the patients at the hospital was a highly commendable act and was greatly appreciated by the hospital authorities as well as the patients, as shown by the following letter:

U. S. Veterans' Hospital No. 26
Greenville, S. C., Nov. 24, 1922.

Dr. John B. Setzler,
Newberry, S. C.

My Dear Dr. Setzler:

I am sure that the Querin Roosevelt post of the American Legion this hospital, is planning to write to you, but I really cannot let the opportunity go by without thanking you all for your wonderful kindness to us yesterday. I am sure you will believe me when I say that our gratitude is most sincere. I wish you could hear the many favorable comments which I have had the opportunity of hearing both from the patients and personnel at the hospital.

Such fine spirit as you showed gives us all an incentive to do better work. You have given our morale a decided boost.

Please let me thank again every person who came yesterday and who contributed in any way toward making it a success.

Yours very truly,
Evelyn Z. Phelps,
Hospital Director, American Red Cross.
