NO. 51.

THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

Both Branches of our Legislative Depart ment Get Promptly to Work-Some Measures to be Considered.

(Condensed from the News and Courier.) Pursuant to law, the General Assemvictory in the indefinite postponement bly of South Carolina met in Columof the bill from the last session "to sudden death of this statesman was a bia on Tuesday the 24th ult. These were well spent in the introduction or consideration of various measures of public importance. A brief statement of these will prove the Calendar and several additional bills bearing upon the subject are looked for during the session.

NOTES OF THE SESSION. of general interest.

The House passed to its third reading (introduced at the last session, by Mr. Brice, of Fairfield) the joint resolution proposing an amendment to the Constitution, touching the distribution of the two-mill school-tax. After some debate the joint resolution was ordered to be engrossed for a third reading in about the following shape:

"SECTION 5. The boards of county than 2 mills on the dollar, &c., for the support of the public schools in their the respective counties and paid out exclusively for the support of the pubships of the counties, and in counties the tax districts, in proportion to the amount of taxes paid by said town-ships or tax districts."

In the Senate, the House bill to provide stenographers for the fifth and sixth circuits caused some debate. Various minor amendments were adopted. Senator Black tried to have the section referring to the sixth circuit stricken out, and was seconded by Senator Clyburn. The agricultural Senator Clyburn. Hotels in America.

The ruling idea in America is that whatever a guest can possibly want is to be ready waiting for him at all hours of the day or night. From 6 o'clock in to buy a paper or to telephone to a ly to walk into the main hall. For a without undergoing an examination, wash, a shave, boot-cleaning, hairpovided, however, he or she has a dressing or the relief of his corns, he has merely to sit down on a chair and the appropriate artist will be at his side in a minute. They all understand and no time or labor is wasted in explanations. The guest knows before--what he will have to eat, where he will have to sleep, and to a cent what he will have to pay. SENSIBLE PEOPLE

ARE NOT EASILY DECEIVED, FOR they know quite well that good and bad clothing are alike made to sell; and who was ever known to advertise poor clothing?
They know how nearly all clothiers keep the finest and sell—on paper—at less than it cost to make them. Honest prices, well made and nicely fitting clothes, together with a good name (justly deserved), are bound to tell.

The above being a fact, I state it merely to enforce the point that I have ready for inspection the largest and best assorted stock of Fall and Winter Clothing for men, youths and boys, that can be found in the State. They are peerless in variety and honestly good all the way through; even the underlinings are shrunk and the trimmings used are meant to wear, not merely to help sell the goods, as every garment is warranted as represented. There are unassailable ramparts behind which I invite you to deal. I am not here for a season ly; I am here to stay. My stock this season is the largest I have ever carried, and it embraces every style and fashionable garment that is made. I am willing to compare them with the merchant tailor work, and it is with real pleasure to state that the business of this EMPORIUM OF FASHION is steadily on the increase. My large and constantly increasing patronage testifies more forcibly than words than the values offered by me are not equalled by any house in the State.
