WHAT THEY ARE DOING AND WHAT THEY ARE NOT DOING.

Synopsis of the Proceedings of the Senate and the House, in the Fourth Week of

The Senate passed the bill to repeal the Act prohibiting the sale of spirituous lignors in Oconee county. The bill to revise the usury law was killed. There was no opposition whatever to the bill to permit the sale of dome-tic wines (manufactured in the State) without a license. The bill to amend Section 1,021, General Statutes, relating to disbursement of poll tax, was

The House bill to require the board of agriculture and the directors of the penitentiary to pay into the State treasury ail moneys collected by them from any source had been unfavorably reported by the agricultural committee, who considered that it would hamper these departments in expenditures which were proper but could not be anticipated by the General Assembly in its appropriation bills. Other Senators objected to it because it would place both departments at the mercy of legislators. It was speedily disposed of when it came up for its second reading. Senator Moody moved to indefinitely postpone the unfavorable report of the committee. Senator Youmans moved to table this motion. This last motion prevailed by the following vote: Yeas 20; nays 11. The bill was then killed.

The House bill to repeal the Lien Law came up in the Senate on the 14th idst. Senator Earle moved to strike out the enacting words, and made a speech in favor of his motion, Those who spoke in favor of repeal were Senators Woodward, Sligh and Leitner, and they were opposed by Senators Earle, Moody and Wallace. Those voting yea were Senators Bell, Ben-bow Coker, Earle, Field, Howell, Mc-Call, Moody, Moore, of Hampton, Simmons, Smith, Wallace, Williams and Wingard—14. Those voting no were Senators Biemann, Black, Bobo, Buist, Clyburn, Izlar, Leitner, Maui-din, Maxwell, Moore, of Anderson, Munro, Patterson, Redfearn, Sligh, Smythe, Todd and Youmaus-17. Senators Byrd and Woodward, who would have voted "no," were paired with Senators Talbert and Raynolds.

The motion being lost, the question recurred on the passage of the bill. At this point the House appeared to participate in the ratification of Acts, and the bill, with the other special orders, was postponed until the next day.
On the following day the discussion the repealing bill, the vote stood: Clyburn, Izla, Leitner, Moore, of Anderson, Munro, Patterson, Redfearn, Sligh, Smythe, Todd and Woodward -15. Nays-Bell, Benbow, Coker, Earle, Field, Howell, McCall, Mauldin, Maxwell, Moody, Moore, of Hampton, Reynolds, Simmons, Smith Wallace, Williams, Wingard and Youmans-18. A motion to reconsider, and to table fixed the term at sixty days. that motion was lost. So the matter was left still open.

The Senste killed the bill fixing the priority of liens—giving the landlord the first lien, the laborer the second. The matter came up again on the 17th inst., when the bill to fix the priority of liens was reconsidered, and passed. third reading, in the following shape:

liens. That laborers who assist in thereon to the extent of the amount laborers there shall be no preference. That all other liens for agricultural supplies shall be paid next after the satisfaction of the liens of the landlord respects as they do now under existing laws. "Sec. 2. That no writing or recording shall be necessary to create the liens of the landlord, and of the laborer, but such lien shall exist from the date of the contract, whether the same be in writing or verbal. "Sec. 3 That all acts and parts of this act be, and the same are hereby, repealed." This bill does not affect liens for supplies, but places such liens subordinate to landlords' and laborers' liens. Senator Patterson endeavored to have reconsidered the adverse vote of the Senate on the bill authorizing the payment of expenses of county school commissioners incurred in attending meetings called by the State superintendent of education. He was supby Senator Youmans, upon whose motion the reconsideration was refused and the bill finally killed.

The bill to regulate the hiring out of convicts caused a long debate. This bill removes the restrictions imposed by the Act of 1884. As amended, however, it provides that any contractor or any other person or persons who shall violate the provisions of any law regulating the hiring of convicts shall be held guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be punished by imprisonment not exceeding five years or by fine not exceeding $500; and in all such cases any convict shall be a competent witness for the State. The bill reported by the judiciary committee to repeal the Barnwell county Prohibitory Act, came up for its second reading. Senator Smythe said that it had been introduced at the request of the Senator from Barnwell. The Prohibitory Act had been passed on a bill to provide a stenographer for by this body at the instance of the former Senator & (Dr. Lartigue), but that gentleman had appeared before the judiciary committee to state that the law had failed and to ask for its repeal. Senator Youmans in supporting the bill based his argument on the inefficacy of the law. There were good people on each side. He himself had been little interested in the matter, and was no partisan, but he had been compelled to take this position. The county was distracted, the law was flagrantly violated and the administration of justice was clogged. wise went over under the rules. The bill to reform the criminal practice in the Courts of Sessions was recommitted to the judiciary committee. There was very little chance of its passage, as the lawyers are very far apart on the subject.

There was a long and stubborn fight in the House lasting over two hours, the Third circuit. The opposition to the bill came principally from Marion, Chesterfield, Horry, Georgetewn and Williamsburg counties. After much filibustering the bill went through with amendments including the Fourth, Fifth and Sixth circuits. The bill passed by a vote of 60 to 40.

Mr. Folk's bill to bar the dower of married women was defeated, and a similar fate befel Mr. Rice's bill to instruct the Governor to call a Constitutional Convention.

The motion was adopted.

The bill to provide a liquor license for Beaufort county was reached on Friday. The Prohibitionists were the enacting words. Mr. Simonton they desired to discuss it. The bill

The conference committee have agreed upon a compromise of the differences between the two houses in reference to the bill to utilize convict labor in counties, cities and towns. As the bill originated in the House it provided for the utilizing of convicts sentenced to one year. The Senate made Palmer of his stoves, &c., which the tenced to one year. The Senate made Senate refused to pay for, was, after it sixty days. The compromise agreed upon is ninety days, and the bill goes to the Governor in this shape.

A bill passed to amend Section 1,074 of the General Statutes, which provides fine and imprisonment for any person wilfully destroying or damaging or obstructing any of the public highways. Fine not exceeding $500 or minimum tuition fee of $40 in the imprisonment not exceeding six months.

The bill introduced by Mr. Douglass, of Fairfield, relating to the apboard of equalization, was killed.

The appropriation bill contains feature important to the military. It provides that no company shall receive its proportion of the $14,000 appropriation unless it has drilled at least once a month during the year, with not less than twenty men in ranks.

Mr. Lee, of Sumter, moved to recommit the bill with a view of getting in an amendment appropriating $25, 000 for the taking of a census. Mr. Lee is the author of the census bill which had passed the House and which was killed in the Senate.

Mr. Haskell, the chairman of the ways and means committee, stated that he had submitted the amendment to the committee, who had by a vote of 3 to 1 refused to recommend it. He suggested that the amendment might be introduced in the Senate.

Mr. Lee thereupon withdrew the motion to recommit, and moved to reconsider the vote whereby the bill was passed to a third reading. The motion prevailed and the bill was again before the House. Mr. Lee's amendment was accepted, the previous question was called, the amendment adopted and the bill again ordered to a third reading. The following bills were rejected:

Bill to amend the act to limit the ages of pupils attending the free public schools, approved December 7, 1883; bill to authorize the payment of expenses of the County School Commissioners incurred in attending meetings called by the State Superintendent of Education; bill to relinquish all the right, title and interest of the State of South Carolina in and to certain real estate whereof Mary Jane Rabon of Horry, a bastard, died seized, and vest the same in certain persons therein mentioned; bill for a distribution of school tax money between the two races, according to the taxes paid by looking to the conversion of the Citadel into a female institute elicited a short debate. Mr. Haskell offered a substitute to the effect that the Committee on Education inquire into and report a plan to provide for a free college for girls outside the Citadel Academy. This was agreed to.

THE APPROPRIATIONS.

The House committee of ways and means reported the bill to make appropriations, which contained the followng items:

Gavernor and Lieutenant-Governor $10.650; Secretary of State, $4,100; Comptroller-General, $6,450; State Treasurer, $7,100; Superintendent of Education, $6,400; Adjutant and Inspector General (militia), $18,900; Attorney-General, $7,860; State Librarian, $1,025; State House and grounds. ment, $24,909; University, $21,100; olution looking to the purchase by the State of the old "Star Fort" in Abbeville county, near Ninety-Six (2000). Innatic asylum, $22,810; deaf, dumb and blind, $14,231; Catawba Indians, $800; miscellaneous $60,000.

To these figures are to be added the interest on the public debt, $391,832; the appropriation for the State House, $75,000, and the legislative appropriation. It will be seen that regular tentiary and the agricultural bureau, both of which, however, will be self-sustaining. This is in accordance with the bill recently passed by the House requiring these departments to pay all

There were but few changes made in these figures. An appropriation of $150 for the Carolina Teacher was stricken out. The appropriation for the Citadel was reduced to $17,000. All efforts to reduce the sum for the University failed. An addition of $25,000 was made for taking the census-as above stated.

THE TAX LEVIES.

The Supply Bill, as it passed the House, levies a tax of 51 mills for State purposes. The Constitutional School Tax is 2 mills. The county tax is uniformly 3 mills, except in Charleston where it is 2} mills. In most counties there are special taxes. The total levy in the several counties is as follows: Abbevi le 104 mills, Aiken 101, Anderson 101, Barnwell 12 1-20, Berkeley 121, Beautort 121, Charleston 98. THE END OF GEN. TOOMDS.

The Seene at the Deathbed of the Famous Georgian.

(Special to the News and Courier.) ATLANTA, December 15 .- At six o'clock this evening Gen. Toombs closed his eventual career by death, which occurred at his home in Washington, Ga. Early in October while in Atlanta be left that death was upon him, and bidding tarewell to his friends he told that he was going home to die. A couple of days later his mind was entirely dethroned, and he has ever since imagined that he was fighting over the pattles which led to secession. ills family gathered close around him and waited upon his slightest condition, unable to lift a limb. His entire family of gran children were called around his bedside at five this evening and tearfully awaited the end,

A special to the Constitution from Washington, Ga., gives the following account of the deathbed scene of Gen. Toombs: The last time that any attempt was made to give him anything was this morning, when Mr. H. O. Colley attempted to moisten his throat with a wet towel, but the General was too weak to stand it. The last distinct words spoken were on Sunday night, when turning to Mr. II. O. Colley, his grandson-in-law, he said, "Lend me one hundred dollars." On Monday morning he attempted to speak to his colored servant Riley, but his voice was so weak his words could not be caught. All to-day his room has been the court-house tower struck out the hour of six, and at that very moment his soul took its flight. There were gathered around him Mr. Gabriel Toombs, his brother, Mr Henry Colley and wife, Mr. Toombs DaBose, Dudley DuBose, Miss Lulie DuBose, Mrs. Hunter, Dr. Mulligan and Mr. S. R. Paimer. One or two of the relatives, a few moments before he died, went across the street to eat their supper, thinking the General would probably hold out till nine or ten o'clock, but before they had returned he was dead. His physicians say his death was perfectly painless. Ilis

A POPULAR CONDUCTOR SAYS: I consider it my duty to impart some very valuable information to my friends and acquaintances as many of them know the unpleasant condition under which I have labored in performing my duties as conductor of the Georgia Central Railroad. Some months ago I became afflicted with a severe attack of Rheumatism, and I desire to state how I was cured. It increased in violence until I could no longer get in and out of the cars without assistance. While thus suffering all the agonies of this dread disease and ready to abandon my position through sheer necessity. I was induced to try B. B. B. THE EF-FECT WAS TRULY MAGICAL. I had no idea that a medicine could produce such an effect in so short a time. I experienced a wonderful change before using and he lay breathing weaker each moment until just as the old clock in the state of splendid medicine effected a cure no less wondrful in the case of my wife, who was also terribly afflicted with Rheumatism. She obtained complete relief and perfect restoration to health after taking the same COL of number of bottles I did. I take much pleasure in recommending

B. B. B to my friends as FIRST-CLASS. LUI I refer to Mr. R. Schmidt, Agent C. R. R., Atlanta, and to C. E. R. Agent, Macon, and Dr. Hape, Atlanta.

RHEUMATISM.

Although a practitioner of nearly twen ty years, my mother influenced me to pro-cure B. B. B. for her. She had been con-fined to her bed several months with Rheumatism, which had stubbornly resisted all the usual remedies. Within twenty-four hours after commencing B. B. B. I observed marked relief. She has just commenced her third bottle, and is nearly as active as ever, and has been in the front yard with "rake in hand," cleaning up. Her improvement is truly wonderfully and immensely gratifying. C. H. MONTGOMERY, M. D.
