resolution of the 5th instant in words as follows:

"Resolved, That the secretary of the interior be directed to communicate to the Senate copies of all papers which bave been filed in the interior department, and of all papers which have been presented to any officer of that department touching the official and personal conduct of Henry Ward, Indian inspector, during his continuance in said office."

I transmit all official papers on file in the department which I understand to be embraced by the resolution. The official reports made to this department by Henry Ward, as United States Indian inspector, are voluminous, and as the clerical force for this department is limited and otherwise fully employed, I have deemed it best to transmit the original reports. As they are frequently consulted in the transaction of the business of the deractment, I have the honor to request that they be returned to its files as soon as they are no longer required by

I am directed by the President to is to inquire into the suspension of Mr. Ward, these papers are not to be considered as constituting all the evidence submitted to him in relation thereto. I am also directed by the President to say that he does not consider it consistent with public interests to from private citizens, held in my custody for him which relate exclusively to the suspension of incumbents.

I have the honor to be very respectfully, L. Q. C. LAMAR, Sec'y.

The grand palladium of freedom around which swings the great flail of justice and American liberty has been tickling the ears of men in the jury box so long that the average juryman fully believes that he is the supreme master of the Com, the antocrat of his own actions, and clothed with the power to set at naught, the Court and the law, and deal out justice according to his own crude idea of the mer-• its of the particular case. A notable instance of autocracy in the jury box occurred at the recent term of the Court for this County in the trial of the case of G. W. Norwood & Co., vs. G. W. Dingle & Bro. In this case the audacious disregard for the law proa crowded court room, and plainly showed to what extremes prejudice might lead a jury without some controlling power. Naturally the indignation of Judge Pressley, the presiding Judge, was great at seeing the contempt exhibited for the law and his authority. The jury who had but a moment before, with remarkable sang froid, treated indifferently the charge of the Court were dumb with astonishment when clanking jail doors were promised as a reward for such conduct in the future.

The reprimand, though severe, was well deserved, and will no doubt have the Judge, on the Bench, and the stern lesson of Judge Pressley will go far to accomplish this end in Clarendon County.
