We have several inquiries for small farms near Davis Station. E. C. Horton & Charlton DuRant.—2t.

Archie Barron had the misfortune of falling off of the Oil Mill Sunday morning during the fire, and while he was knocked unconscious for awhile, he sustained no broken bones, and other than being sore from the fall he is allright.

Only 10 Avery Stalk Choppers now left in stock. Price for these is $45.00 each as long as they last after which the price will be raised to not less than $65.00 or more. W. P. LEGG.

The hunters returned home Saturday with great tales to tell, but Herman Bradham was the only one that bagged a deer.

We have inquiry for three-horse farm near enough for small children to attend good graded school. E. C. Horton & Charlton DuRant.—2t.

The room of the Bagnal house, and occupied by Mr. A. Abrams, was discovered on fire last Saturday. The department put it out with little damage.

We want 75 to 150 acre tract of land at $40 to $50 per acre near Paxville. E. C. Horton & Charlton DuRant.—2t.

The Civic League will sell dinner at the Fair grounds on Friday. All who promised to give something for the diner will please send same to Civic League booth at the Warehouse by 12 o'clock.

The Civic League will meet at the Court House Monday afternoon, November 19th, at 4 o'clock. This is the time for the annual election of officers and a full attendance is requested.

Don't forget the Florentine Musicians at the Aicola Auditorium tomorrow (Thursday) night. This will be one of the best entertainments ever in this section. You will miss a great treat if you do not go.

The class in domestic science at the Manning colored school put up several jars of pumpkin preserves this week. It was an experiment but the preserves are as pretty and delicious as those preserved from other fruits. They are raising funds to get a cooking stove for the school so that practical lessons in the theory of cooking can be had per schedule. E. E. Harvin, of Davis Station, has charge of this work and is doing well.

Mr. Joseph Dickson has decided to go out of business at Alcolu, and is advertising his stock at cost. Read his ad. in this issue. This is an opportunity for those wishing to buy merchandise.

Mr. and Mrs. William Berg of Sumter were visitors to Manning Sunday. Mr. Berg is manager of the Wreck Store, the well known firm of that city, which has gained much recognition in Clarendon through the columns of The Times. Read their page ad in this issue.

We have just received a line of nice Automobile Gloves. These gloves are intended for nothing but automobile driving and are of the very best quality. They are wool-lined with high cuffs. Come and see these before you think of buying a pair elsewhere. They are beauties. Harvin Motor Co., Manning.

The Clarendon County Fair opened today under unfavorable weather conditions, though it is hoped the skies will clear away for tomorrow and Friday. The Fair house is full of fine exhibits and large crowds are expected to come. We will give a detailed write-up of the occasion next week.

Now in stock a large quantity of very bright Red Rust Proof, Appler and Burt or 90 day seed Oats, also a lot of re-cleaned Wheat seed as fine as ever shown in Manning. It now takes from 4 to 6 weeks to get a shipment of grain here after the order is placed, so those that need seed Oats or Wheat had best buy quick. W. P. LEGG.

The special election held yesterday to fill the unexpired terms of mayor, two aldermen and water works commission passed off quietly and with little interest manifested. The result of the election: T. F. Coffey, mayor, without opposition; W. M. Plowden, water works commission, without opposition. There were three candidates for alderman, with two to be elected. S. J. Smith and H. C. McKelvey were successful. Mr. McKelvey leading Mr. Fred Lesesne by three votes.

VALUABLE LANDS FOR SALE

I have for sale all the lands belonging to Estate of S. C. Turbeville which consist of the following:
Tract 1. Two Hundred and Fifty (250) acres, slightly more or less, in and around the town of Turbeville including
The Mercantile Store and Two Good Residences
besides a number of tenant houses.
Also several other tracts containing 1 and 7-10 acres, 123 and 3-10 acres, 96 acres and 56 acres.
A particular description may be obtained from me by any prospective purchaser.
J. A. WEINBERG, Trustee, Manning, S. C.

Died last Sunday morning at the home of Mr. E. C. Horton in Manning, Mr. James Reeves. The deceased resided in the Fork of Black River and came to Manning Saturday a week ago, when on his way over here he drove into a wagon which excited him, and the excitement brought on an attack of apoplexy, which he succumbed to without ever gaining consciousness. The deceased was a well known and highly respected citizen of Clarendon. He represented our county in the legislature one term, and was a successful planter. The funeral services were held at his residence at eleven o'clock Sunday morning and the interment was in the family burying ground.
