

AMERICAN LEGION AFFAIRS

(By Ben Adams)

Department headquarters has issued a bulletin calling on the posts over the State to show their interest in the disabled men in the United States Veterans' Hospital at Greenville by taking some action looking to a happier Christmas for the sick and wounded. Posts in South Carolina have an opportunity to render a valuable service to men who need to be shown that their buddies have not lost interest in their welfare. This service may be rendered by sending a box containing gifts, or the posts may send a cash contribution to Mr. Fred Graham, of Greenville, department service officer, with the full assurance that the money will be spent to the best advantage.

Two officers have been chosen by the J. Arthur Wilder Post, at Timmonsville, as follows: J. T. Anderson, commander; C. S. McFaddin, vice commander; Joseph H. Conyers, adjutant; Cecil Ward, finance officer; J. W. Watson, historian; D. L. Reynolds, sergeant-at-arms, and the Rev. John McSweeney, chaplain. Many of those present at the meeting subscribed to magazines and newspapers to make the club rooms more attractive.

Newberry Post has again demonstrated that it can do thing sin good style. The members at Newberry made "Education Week" a real event. A United States flag was presented to every public school in the county by a committee from the post. This is valuable work and something every legion organization should interest itself in. Nothing will teach greater respect for the flag than to have the boy and girl wave over their school every day. Other posts in the State might well take a lesson from the Newberry Post.

1923 cards have been issued by department headquarters. Post adjutants are requested by the department adjutant to see that these cards are properly filled out in order to keep the record straight.

Following are the new officers chosen at the annual meeting of Charleston Post No. 10 held Wednesday night; J. Lawrence Gantt, commander; Dr. Charles W. Kollock, vice commander; Louis A. Bikle, adjutant; J. J. Altman, Jr., finance officer; Albert Simons, historian, and the Rev. R. F. Blackford, chaplain. The service and athletic officers are to be appointed by the post commander. The executive committee is composed of the following members; E. Henry Cappelmann, chairman; J. C. Yow, Dr. Wm. H. Price, E. E. Evans, and James D. Lucas. The house committee is headed by Julian A. Hard with the following members J. B. Fatman and Frank W. Levett.

SUPPORT FOR SISSON

Washington, Dec. 19.—Members of the Mississippi congressional delegation called at the White House today to urge upon the president the appointment of Representative Thomas U. Sisson of that state as a justice of the United States supreme court. Letters from justices of the supreme court of Mississippi and from other jurists in the South were presented in Mr. Sisson's behalf. It was pointed out to the president that the South has now only one representative upon the bench of the highest court, Justice McReynolds of Tennessee.

It was said Representative Cannon of Illinois, during his visit to the White House Saturday when he was accompanied by Representative Steadman of North Carolina, endorsed Mr. Sisson with whom he had served for many years in the house.

Uncle John's Josh

Daughter of Eve
He: May I kiss you?
She: If you do I'll tell father.
Silence.
She: Er-r—I might mention—that father hardly ever believes anything I tell him.
Silence—but much sweeter.

Inventor: I've had this idea in my head for two years.
Investor: Aged in wood, eh?

Behind The Times
Hootch Hound: Hic — Say, ain't the girls wearing broad belts these days?
Hootch Houndress: Them ain't belts—their dresses.

Lazy Larry
Larry hates to go to ber, He frets and worries, so he said; 'Cause in the morning it's a bore, To wake and wash his face once more.

Was He Game?
She—What are you thinking of?
He—Same thing you are.
She—My lips are chapped now—and I'll slap your face if you try.

It Will Happen
"B-r-r-r-r!" I'm chilled to the bone."
"Well, why don't you wear a hat?"

Observing Ole
"This sure makes me feel sheepish," he said, as he pulled on his new fleece-lined underwear.

It was a balmy day in summer. Not a cloud marred the Maxparrish sky, while at the brook, trickling down the rugged hillside, a maiden fair was kneeling, gazing, gazing into the cool clear water. For many minutes she stooped thus, sighing, thinking, and then, yielding to the inevitable, she plunged into the water—and vigorously started washing her neck.**

At Prison Gates
Warden—What's your name and occupation?
Prisoner—My name is Spark; I'm an electrician, and I was sent up for assault and battery.
Warden—Hey, guard! Give this man a nice dry cell.

FRIENDS,
I extend to each and every one of you my very best wishes for a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.
Let us all eat hearty and be merry. If we have had bad luck in the past; we'll hope for better luck in the future and take heart. If we've been heavy-hearted or sorrowful, we will forgive and forget. As years go on and heads get gray, how fast the friends do go, but cheer up, better times are coming.

FRIENDS,
Remember that ALSBROOK is with you and will continue to sell you goods in the future at correct prices, goods that must satisfy or your money back.

FRIENDS,
Again I say a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year is my wish.
