

OFF TO SHRINE MEETING.

Messrs. Samuel B. George and "Jake" Kahner left Wednesday night for Florence, where they will attend the big Shrine meeting Thanksgiving. "Jake" was recently initiated into the mysteries of the shrine and is now entitled to wear the little red fez, and all, which is wont to bedeck the heads of all good Shriners. The reverge which "Jake" has harbored since his recent introduction to the hot sands of the desert will no doubt be appeased at Florence, because Dr. J. H. Mathias and Mr. W. A. Sawyer, manager of the Palace Drug store, will take their pilgrimage at the Florence meeting. Friends of these gentlemen are anxiously awaiting their return and hoping that they will not be too greatly disfigured on the fateful journey.

MEXICAN GENERAL SHOT BY COURTMARTIAL ORDER

El Paso, Texas, Nov. 26.—General Felipe Angeles, Mexican revolutionary leader and famed throughout the world as a military genius, was executed by a Carranza firing squad at Chihuahua City early today, following his conviction with two companions on charges of rebellion against the Mexican government, according to a telegraphic report from Chihuahua City this morning.

Angeles was sentenced to death by four Carranza officers late last night. He was immediately taken from the building through a rear entrance to await execution which was set for 7 o'clock this morning. This was the time he was shot, according to the report reaching here.

General Angeles was a noted artilleryist and is generally given credit for having developed the French 75 gun, the deadliest piece of cannon known. He commended the United States, its president and people in an address to the courtmartial which passed the sentence of death upon him.

WILSON'S DEATH PROVES HOAX

Atlanta, Ga., Nov. 23.—Through a hoax perpetrated by an unknown person here tonight an address by Vice-President Marshall before an audience of several thousand persons at the auditorium army was broken up by the false announcement that President Wilson was dead.

An unknown man, it was said telephoned to the office of the building and asked for the vice-president. On being told Mr. Marshall was making an address and could not come to the telephone, the voice replied, "Well, he'll come now for the president is dead and Washington wants him on the long distance."

As soon as he could the vice president got to a telephone and called the Associated Press where he was assured that there was no truth in such a rumor.

"Thank God," he replied in a trembling voice.

AROUND THE WORLD WITH THE AMERICAN RED CROSS

Early in the participation of the United States in the world war, the American Red Cross perceived the value of mobilizing the school children of the country and the Junior Red Cross was organized. Before the war ended nine million children were enrolled and helped in the war fund and membership campaigns, in chapter production of relief supplies and manufacturing furniture for the refugees whose homes and household goods were destroyed.

Children everywhere in the United States responded to the call to service sounded by President Wilson as head of the American Red Cross. This photograph is that of an enthusiastic young Japanese member of the Junior Red Cross of Spokane, Wash., starting out on the ambitious undertaking of collecting "a mile of pennies" for war relief. A comprehensive peace program is now being worked out for the Junior Red Cross, which is being held intact.

GRACE DECLARED MAYOR BY CHARLESTON COMMITTEE.

Charleston, Nov. 25.—The city Democratic Executive committee tonight on a majority vote of 13 again declared John P. Grace mayoralty nominee of the city democratic party after 77 challenged votes had been considered as well as the mutilated ballots in question. The Hyde faction committeemen took the position that the proceedings were not legal and either voted against motions leading to the resulting declaration or did not vote at all. On the final question the Hyde committeemen did not rise on a call for a rising vote for or against a motion declaring Mr. Grace the nominee.

Meet Me at Tapp's The Growing Store Meet Me at Tapp's

will take place in our business January 1st. We throw out this tip to our friends now that you may understand there is a good reason why we slaughter the prices on everything ready made in our house. We suffer a conscious, painful, financial loss to accomplish our purpose of not having a suit, cloak, skirt, nor a piece of muslin underwear, nor a pair of corsets left in this house on Christmas Eve. We know this serious announcement will start the gossiping tongues wagging. "What's Tapp going to do?" will be the question asked a thousand times when this newspaper gets on the streets and into the homes.

Crowds, and hosts of crowds, will jam our store, filling to excess our great second floor. The vastness, dignity, quality and styles for which our ready made departments are justly famous will speak in a definite language to the buyers, for the entire stocks in those departments are to be closed out. Not for all the money in Columbia would Mr. Tapp publish this advertisement if it were not absolutely true. Not a cloak will be hid, not a suit will be withheld, not a piece of muslin underwear will escape the blue pencil closing out price. Every corset will get the closing out price put on it.

We started this sale Monday morning. All profit is abandoned. We relinquish all to our customers. The sacrifice is complete. These precious goods, carefully selected, were bought from the best manufacturers, and for us to close them all out without a penny profit, hundreds at a loss, is a distressing hardship on this store, but a great boon and a blessing, a relief and joy, a great good fortune and good luck to the citizens of this city and this State.

Catch the importance of this statement; regard its independent edict. This big opportunity is open to all, no favorites, no partiality, no injustice, no unfairness. The stocks mentioned are to be closed out. Be waiting first in line ahead of the big crowds at the door every morning.

School Teachers of South Carolina, we welcome you to our City. Ask all your friends to "MEET ME AT TAPP'S."
