

SEN. NEWBERRY TO FACE COURT

Grand Rapids, Mich., Nov. 29.—Truman H. Newberry, United States senator from Michigan, was indicted by a United States grand jury today for corruption, fraud and conspiracy in connection with the election by which he obtained his seat in the senate, defeating Henry Ford, his Democratic opponent.

With Newberry, 133 other persons were indicted by the grand jury on the same charge. The names of all but 12 most prominent were withheld from publication by Judge Clarence W. Sessions, presiding, until warrants could be served on them. Among those named were H. A. Hopkins of St. Clair, Mich., principal legislature clerk of the United States Senate; John S. Newberry, brother of the senator, Detroit, and Paul H. King, of Detroit, King was manager of the Newberry campaign committee.

Judge Sessions indicated that the evidence before the grand jury disclosed the fraudulent expenditure of between $500,000 and $1,000,000 in connection with the election.

Charge of Scandal.
Government officials asserted that the testimony presented to the grand jury had revealed a political scandal that in many respects was never equaled in American annals. It was alleged that voters were bribed, election boards corrupted, editors subsidized and moving picture theatres bought up in the endeavor to defeat Henry Ford first in the primaries of both parties, and later, when he had won the Democratic nomination, in the election itself.

Officials were secretive as to how the alleged conspiracy was uncovered, but a general outline of their methods was made available. It was revealed that an attempt was made to repeat the suspected tactics of the 1918 campaign. Under this plan a corps of investigators was sent into the state under direction of Karl J. Houck, who with Frank C. Dailey, special assistant to the attorney general, was a central figure in the election fraud cases of Terre Haute, Indianapolis, Evansville, and Frankfort Ind. These cases beginning in 1915, resulted in some 200 convictions.

Dailey and Houck came to Michigan last August. Bank records were inspected and the visitors' lists of safety deposit vaults gone over. With the tale of these as a starter, the investigators were sent out. They visited "small fry" politicians first, offering them vague hints of what might come from a mythical campaign of a certain Michigan politician. Objections to small returns were followed by "confidential" comparisons with the Newberry campaign.

IMMIGRATION LAWS TO BE MADE STRONGER.

Washington, Dec. 1.—As a result of the hearings of the House Committee on Immigration at Ellis Island, New York, several suggestions have been developed for strengthening the weak spots in the immigration laws, and proposals for new legislation will undoubtedly be submitted to Congress after the investigation has been completed. One plan is to take the authority for passing on deportations of undesirable aliens away from the Department of Labor and vest it in the Department of Justice. Another suggestion would keep an Assistant Secretary of Labor at Ellis Island, so as to assure speedy hearings and prompt decisions. Members of the committee are convinced that dilatoriness is the chief fault of the present system.

Chairman Johnson, of the Congressional Committee, yesterday, made a statement regarding the matter which reads in part as follows:

"We want to make the law stronger and juster, and to strengthen the service so that the enforcement of the law will be more efficient. There have been too many officials vested with the power of delay or with discretion that could be abused, and we want the authority centralized."

One of the first of those to be deported to Russia is Alexander Berkman, who was finally ordered on Wednesday to be deported after his case had hung fire for a long time. According to members of the committee, the announcement of a final decision by the Department of Labor to deport Emma Goldman is likely to be made shortly. All of the methods dealing with Reds that have proved to be unnecessarily dilatory are to be promptly abandoned. Soviet Russia is not the only destination to which Reds are expected to be deported within a short time. Many of the Reds on Ellis Island are from other countries, including Turkey, Austria, Finland, Norway, Sweden and Denmark.

At the hearings of the House Committee on Wednesday a sensation was sprung by the reading of letters to former Commissioner of Immigration Frederick C. Howe from the notorious anarchist Emma Goldman in which he was addressed as "Dear Fred. Howe."

BULGARIAN TREATY SIGNED.

Paris, Nov. 28.—With little of the pomp which marked the signing of the Peace Treaty at Versailles, the treaty of Peace between the Allies and Bulgaria was signed at Neuilly, just outside of Paris, yesterday morning. The Commissioner who signed for Bulgaria was M. Stambuliwski. This is especially interesting in view of the fact that it was this man who, when Bulgaria turned on her Allies and joined her fortunes with the Central Powers, warned King Ferdinand that he was signing the death warrant of the nation. He was then chief of the Peasant's Party and not a big man in the affairs of Bulgaria. And here he was at Neuilly as Bulgaria's Premier, signing the document which provides for Bulgaria the penalties of which he warned Ferdinand when that grasping monarch made the worst guess of his career.

The ceremony was opened by Premier Clemenceau. Looking at M.

Stambuliwski, he said simply: "We are here to sign the treaty between the Allies and Bulgaria. Here is the treaty you are to sign."
