

SEVERE FIGHTING IN SOUTH RUSSIA.

Paris, Nov. 29.—An official statement from the Soviet Government at Moscow indicates that most severe fighting is in progress on the Volga front, where the Bolsheviks have captured Dubovka, 180 miles southwest of Saratov, with 800 prisoners. The statement claims that the Bolsheviks have annihilated three regiments of the forces of General Denikin, leader of the anti-Bolshevist armies in south Russia.

The advance of the Bolsheviks continues rapidly in the Omsk region where they are approaching the western shores of Lake Cham. General Denikin's statement today admits that the Bolshevik offensive in the direction of Astrakhan has caused him to retire considerably.

AROUND THE WORLD WITH THE AMERICAN RED CROSS.
 In the Arctic Circle.

Wherever American soldiers went during the war and after, there also went the American Red Cross. This policy carried Red Cross workers to far corners of the globe and here they are seen near the rim of everlasting ice and snow in North Russia. Automobiles were used whenever possible but on many journeys the reindeer pictured here proved most effective.
