STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA

EXECUTIVE CHAMBER.

PROCLAMATION

Whereas, a petition has been filed with the Governor of South Carolina, signed by more than one-third of the qualified electors of a certain portion of Lexington County proposed to be severed from the County of Lexington and annexed to the County of Newberry, embraced within the following lines, to wit:

Beginning at a point in Broad River on the Fairfield-Lexington County Line, said point being about three fourths of a mile below the town of Peak, Lexington County, South Carolina, thence in a South-westerly direction S 41 W, 52.50 to a point about one fourth of a mile Southwest of the public road running from Peak to Columbia, and thence continuing in a Southwesterly direction S 32 1-2, 140.65 to a point on a branch about one-half of a mile Southwest of the public road leading from Pomaria to Columbia, and thence down the meanderings of said branch 42.24 to a point in said branch, thence S 55 W, 3.90, thence N. 87 W, 58 to a pine just West of the public road running from the Barrett Old Place to Chapin, thence S 26 1-2 W, 56 to a point just South of a road running by Milton Shealy's, thence S 53 1-2 W, 75.40 to a point on the Columbia, Newberry and Laurens Railroad, thence S 73 1-2 W, 40 to a point in Black Creek, thence S 68 1-2 W

30.50 to a point near a Negro Church, thence in a Westernly direction N 77 1-2 W, 84.50 to a point just West of Public Road, thence in a South-westerly direction S 28 W, 299 to a point in Camping Creek and thence in a Westernly direction along the meanderings of said Creek to the Newberry County Line, thence in a North-easterly direction along the Newberry County Line to a point in Broad River where the Newberry-Lexington County Line intersects the County Line of Fairfield County, and thence along the Fairfield County line down Broad River to the starting point about three-fourths of a mile below the town of Peak, South Carolina."

Whereas, the boundaries of the proposed portion of Lexington County to be cut off and annexed to the County of Newberry, the number of inhabitants, the taxable property, as well as all other requirements of the Constitution and Statutes, have been found to be and are as set forth in said petition.

Whereas, the report of the commissioners, appointed to ascertain the facts as provided for by law, whether the requirements of the Constitution and Statutes as to area, distance, wealth and population, shape, etc., are complied with and are as stated in the petition, has been filed in this office wherein it appears that the law has been fully complied with in every particular, which is hereby affirmed.

Whereas no election has been held upon said petition in said area upon the question of the annexation of said portion of Lexington County to Newberry County within four years previous to the date hereof, and

Whereas, under the Constitution and laws of this State the petitioners are entitled to have ordered, and it is made the duty of the Governor of the State to order an election upon said question:

Now, therefore, I, R. A. Cooper, Governor of the State of South Carolina, by virtue of the power conferred upon me by the Constitution and laws of this State do hereby order:

That an election be held in the territory embraced within the portion of Lexington County proposed to be severed from the County of Lexington and annexed to the County of Newberry, on the first Tuesday, the sixth day of January, A. D., Nineteen hundred and twenty, upon the question of the annexation of said portion of Lexington County to Newberry County, and that at such election the qualified electors within the proposed area shall vote upon said question, those favoring the proposed annexation to vote "Yes," and those opposing to vote "No."

That the Commissioners of State and County Elections of the Counties of Lexington and Newberry, respectively, do make all necessary arrangements for holding said election, and shall appoint managers, and do all things necessary for the holding of same.

That the Commissioners of Election of each of said Counties shall have prepared printed tickets as provided for in Section 236 in the Code of Laws, 1912, Volume 1, as amended by an Act passed by the General Assembly at its special session in 1914, and approved the thirtieth day of October, 1914, said Act being No. 6 in the Acts of said special session; and the said Commissioners shall furnish the same to the managers of election for the use of the voters at said election. The form of the ticket shall be as follows:

Form of Ballot.

Special Election upon the question of the Annexation of a certain portion of Lexington County to Newberry County, held January 6th, 1920.

"Shall said portion, as described in Proclamation by the Governor, dated the 29th of November, 1919, be annexed to the County of Newberry.

"Yes."
"No."

That the said election shall be held and conducted under the same rules and regulations as provided for by law for regular and general elections. That the commissioners of election shall appoint managers of election as provided for by law, who shall be sworn before entering upon the discharge of their duties as provided for by law, and they shall open and close the polls as provided for by law.

The Managers of Election, when the polls shall have been closed, shall proceed without interruption to count and tabulate the same; they shall make a written return of the number of votes cast for and against the proposed annexation; they shall sign and certify to the managers the result of said election, the same, together with the ballot box, ballots and poll lists, and everything else appertaining to said election, shall be by them forthwith turned over to the commissioners of election as required by law; that the Commissioners of Election for each of said counties, shall, as provided by law, tabulate the vote and declare the result of the election, and make due and proper return thereof, as required by law, to the Clerk of Court of their respective counties, to the Governor of the State, and to the Secretary of State, in all of which the law is enjoined and ordered.

unto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State to be affixed at Columbia, this twenty-ninth day of November, in the year of Our Lord One Thousand Nine Hundred and Nineteen, and of the Independence of the United States of America the One Hundred Forty-Fourth.

R. A. COOPER,
Governor.
