

REPUBLICAN VICTORY SWEEPS HARDING AND COOLIDGE IN

Indications are That Election Was a Landslide--Vote Overwhelming in North--Solid South Unbroken.

From indications of the vote so far tabulated in Tuesday's election there was a veritable landslide for the Republicans.

God to make me capable of playing my part, and that all these calls to responsibility may meet the aspirations and expectations of America and the world.

"I am sure the people who have voted the Republican ticket will understand my feeling that I should make no unstated statement of politics at this time beyond the expression made through the campaign."

Coincidentally with the senator's statement, Harry J. Daugherty, a member of the Republican campaign committee made this statement here:

"It is the greatest victory in American politics, clearly foreshadowed and predicted. It is more than partisan victory, as the result was contributed to by millions of Democrats. The women of the nation have quickly vindicated the conferring of the suffrage privilege, as they sensed correctly the issues and rallied to the cause of America and American institutions. The Republican party is fully conscious of the great responsibilities implied in this popular verdict and will faithfully keep its obligations."

The Democratic ticket carried the "Solid South" with a total of 136 votes, though two wards in the city of Atlanta and two parishes in the sugar-growing section of Louisiana went Republican.

The morning papers contain very little about the complexion of the next congress, though in all probability the party candidates for congress have benefited by the general landslide.

Senator Harding issued the following statement Tuesday night:

"Assuming that the early returns are wholly dependable, I do not hesitate to say that I am pleased, of course, I am happy to utter my gratitude. But I am not exultant. It is not a personal victory. It is a renewed expression of confident Americanism and a national call to the Republican party."

"It is also serious, the obligations are so solemn that instead of exulting I am more given to prayer to

In South Carolina is concerned the vote of Tuesday from all indications was larger than usual. The number of women voting varied considerably in different sections of the state. In the Seventh congressional district, composed of the counties of Calhoun, Lee, Lexington, Orangeburg, Richland and Sumter, L. A. Hawkins, a Columbia negro, opposed H. P. Fulmer, the Democratic nominee. In each of these counties early returns indicate that a larger Democratic vote was cast yesterday than is usually polled in general elections.

The election passed off very quietly in Lexington. There were 286 Democratic and 277 Republican votes polled at the Lexington box, of which Hawkins received 23. All of the proposed amendments to the constitution were acted upon favorably by the voters at the Lexington box. Of the approximately 30 women who voted about half were negroes.

We will do our best to make the day both pleasant and beneficial to all who attend.

CLAY SPRING DOTS.

The health of this community is very good at this writing.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Slice of Irmo visited Mrs. Slice's mother, Mrs. J. J. Barrs, last week.

Mr. Samuel Craft has moved from Orangeburg county up near King Grove. We are very glad to welcome Mr. Craft and family in our community again.

Mrs. J. J. Barrs and Mrs. Annie Slice visited Mrs. W. M. Laird, Sunday afternoon.

The Clay Spring school opened Monday morning with Miss Vida Sharpe as teacher.

Mr. W. M. Laird and daughter, Miss Annie Mae, motored to Columbia Monday.

Mr. Daniel Sturkie and family visited Mr. Samuel Craft Sunday afternoon.

Miss Bertie Caughman spent Saturday night and Sunday with her cousin, Miss Emma Delle Hydrick.

We had a very good Sunday school at King Grove, Sunday afternoon.

TO BUILD RESIDENCE.

Mr. James Caughman is preparing to build a neat residence on his property on Main street, formerly owned by Mrs. A. D. Kaufmann. Mr. Caughman has sold the residence he now occupies on Depot street to Mrs. Swartz, who will take possession on January 1.

One for Debs.

Spartanburg, Nov. 2.—Spartanburg city's complete vote gives Cox 999, Harding 82, Debs 1.

IMPORTANT CASES COME FOR TRIAL

Next Monday Will See Opening of Civil Court—List of Jurors for Two Weeks.

The regular fall term of the court of common pleas for Lexington county will convene on Monday, November 8th, with the Hon. R. Withers Manning of Charleston, presiding. While there are several cases of more or less importance to be disposed of, it is not believed that the term will last more than two weeks. Quite a number of cases have been compromised, it is understood, which will make a deep cut into the calendars.

Jurors for the first and second week of the term have been drawn as follows:

- First Week: Geo. W. Taylor, E. Artemus Bunk, J. Augustus Barre, D. Ellis Eflrd, W. Perry Taylor, H. Metz Martin, Cole W. Roof, Will Cockrell, Holly Hall, John J. Senn, George E. Mathias, Adam M. Sharpe, J. J. Boles, W. Hamp Keister, Genous E. Rikard, C. C. Cockrell, Mendon L. Hall, Gus Kappel, A. S. Jones, David Rish, Frank O. Hendrix, Jesse M. Mathias, Wilbur T. Wingard, Jacob P. Derrick, D. J. Jernald Shumpert, L. Moses Steele, George J. Buff, N. West Corley, Lemmie R. Shull, S. Fred Derrick, J. Alpha Sease, Eusebius E. Wingard, J. T. Moore, H. Cromwell Shedy, Emanuel M. Taylor, Beecher C. Hutto.

- Second Week: E. Willie Redmond, W. C. Bates, Luther W. Miles, Bunyan A. Wessinger, Isiah M. Hall, Evans O. Addy, S. S. Lucas, Thomas S. Leaphart, Lucius B. Livingston, Noah L. Kyzor, Jacob D. Gerlich, John C. Rice, Gordon E. Shedy, E. Judson Backman, J. Ed Lindler, G. Almont Taylor, John E. Leaphart, David H. Hutto, Wilbur E. Rucker, Julius W. Corley, F. Stokes Hutto, George Elwell Hendrick, Sam J. Long, J. Q. Ricard, Maxey E. Shedy, Joseph B. Bickley, J. Milton Cullum, Ernest J. Wessinger, J. Max Mathias, C. M. Rhodes, Fred E. Yon, Luther J. Busby, E. Heber Meetze, Silas W. Amick, J. Arthur Smith, E. Hook Bleckley.

ST. STEPHENS EVANGELICAL LUTHERAN CHURCH.

Divine services at 11 a. m. and 7 p. m. Sunday school at 10 a. m. On November 7 the morning theme will be: "The Faith Which Christ Will Look For." The evening theme will be: "A Comparison of Adam and Christ." The public is cordially invited to all these services.

Arthur B. Obenshain.

HOMELAND FARM SCORES HIT

Exhibit of G. B. Wingard & Son at State Fair Excites Favorable Comment.

No more striking example of what is possible to do on one farm in this section has ever been presented to the people of South Carolina than was demonstrated by the exhibit at the State fair of G. B. Wingard & Son, who operate the "Homeland" farm, just a few miles from the town of Lexington. The exhibition excited quite a lot of comment and was awarded the first premium for the best display of products from an individual farm. More than 200 articles went to make up the exhibit, which included every variety of farm and garden product, both in the raw and in the manufactured state. The Messrs. Wingard have taken great interest in diversified agriculture and paid a great deal of attention to the proper marketing of their products when made. All of the canned goods and preserves and put up in attractive containers and labeled with attractive lithographed labels, specially made for them. The "Homeland" brand has now come to have value as a trademark in many Columbia homes, where most of the product is marketed and where the uniformly high quality which has been maintained is a stimulus to other sales.

The exhibit was most attractively arranged and elicited much favorable comment. The Messrs. Wingard, by special invitation of the Chester chamber of commerce, are this week showing the exhibit at the Chester county fair.

DEATH OF MR. JOBE CORLEY.

In loving remembrance of Brother Jobe Corley, who was born on June 13, 1849, and departed this life November 1, 1920, making his stay here on earth 71 years, four months and 19 days. He leaves two sisters and two brothers, besides a host of relatives and friends to mourn his departure.

Gone but not forgotten. By his loving sisters and brothers.

The funeral services of Mr. Corley, who died at 5 o'clock Monday morning, were held at his late home Monday afternoon, at 1 o'clock. Interment was in the family burial lot near his home. The Rev. Arthur B. Obenshain, pastor of St. Stephens Lutheran church, was the officiating clergyman.

REV. MR. RICE NOW AT METHODIST CONFERENCE

Rev. A. Q. Rice, pastor in charge of the Lexington circuit, M. E. church, South, is this week attending the church conference at Union.

MANY PREMIUMS GO TO LEXINGTON

State Fair Awards Show Many Prizes Here—Full List of Winners.

The showing made by Lexington county people at the State Fair of 1920 was most creditable. Their exhibits were unusually fine and many of them were prize winners. Below is printed a complete list of all the Lexington county people who were awarded premiums. Through the courtesy of Hon. D. F. Eflrd, the efficient secretary of the fair, The Dispatch-News is able to present this list. Mr. Eflrd is naturally proud of the showing made by his home county.

The list is as follows:

Boys' Corn Club, 71 Entries. Cleo Harmon, sixth. Odis Harmon, single, third. Odis Harmon, eighth. Clyde Roof, ninth.

Horticultural Department.

- A. L. Smith, box apples, second. E. L. Wingard, pomegranate, first. G. B. Wingard & Son, tomatoes, 1st. G. B. Wingard & Son, carrots, 1st. G. B. Wingard & Son, melons, 2nd. G. B. Wingard & Son, rough leaf turnip, 2nd. E. L. Wingard, rough leaf turnip, 1st. G. B. Wingard & Son, Lima beans, 1st. G. B. Wingard & Son, collards, 2nd. E. L. Wingard, collards, 1st. G. B. Wingard & Son, home garden collection, 1st. G. B. Wingard & Son, sweet potatoes, 1st.

Collection of Flowers.

Mrs. A. L. Smith, first prize on the following: 12 varieties, 6 varieties, single specimen, basket chrysanthemums, design chrysanthemums, roses, basket roses, pink rose, cream rose, collection dahlias, pink dahlia, white dahlia, yellow dahlia, 10 assorted dahlias, 10 assorted cactus dahlias, 5 cut geraniums.

Agricultural Department.

- G. B. Wingard & Son—10 cars, 2nd; 10 cars Dent corn, 1st; 4 stalks Webber 49 or 82, 2nd; open lods attached, 2nd; one-half bushel soft wheat, 1st, sheaf of soft wheat, 1st; sheaf of barley, 1st; sheaf of white oats, 1st, one-half bushel any variety oats, 2nd; sheaf any variety oats, 2nd; sheaf of Abruzzi rye, 1st and 2nd, one-half bushel white Spanish peanuts, 1st; one-half bushel any other variety peanuts, 1st; half bushel Whitegoorwill cowpeas, 2nd; half bushel toso cowpeas, 1st; half bushel cowpeas, any variety, 1st; half bushel soy beans, 1st; half bushel soy beans, any variety, 1st; half bushel velvet beans, Early Speckle, 2nd; plant of velvet beans, 1st; 10 heads Sacarine sorghum, 1st; 10 ears broom corn, 1st and 2nd; half bushel upland rice, 1st and 2nd; half bushel threshed rice, 1st and 2nd; sheaf of rice, 1st and 2nd, bundle of fibre flax, 1st and 2nd; best display of products of one farm, 1st; best display of canned products, 3rd; special prize of $10 worth of seed for best home garden collection; best display grain, 1st; largest number of premiums taken in field crops, 1st.

D. F. Eflrd & Son—Half bushel any variety running peanuts, 1st; half bushel iron cowpeas, 1st; bale of alfalfa hay, 1st and 2nd.

Mrs. Jannie B. Smith, best display canned products, 2nd.

Oak Grove Community Fair, best exhibit from community fair, 1st.

Mrs. L. E. Wingard, child's skirt, 2nd.

Mrs. J. B. Wingard, specimen Eatonburg lace, 2nd; display of lace work owned by one person, 1st; colored handkerchief, 2nd.

Mrs. L. R. Wingard, ladies waist, 1st.

Mrs. S. L. Rawl, feather fan, 1st; hearth rug, 2nd; plums, 2nd; quart peaches, 2nd; quart apples, 1st; quart pears, 2nd; quart strawberries, 1st; quart figs, 1st; quart quince, 1st; quart plum, 1st; quince jelly, 2nd; plum jam, 2nd; cranapple pickle, 2nd; plum pickle, 1st; quart mango pickle, 2nd; quart tomato pickle, 1st and 2nd; quart gherkin pickle, 1st; quart pepper pickle, 1st; quart beet pickle, 1st.

Mrs. L. S. Trott, pears, 1st; plums, 1st; quart figs, 1st; quart brandied peaches, 2nd; blackberry cordial, 1st.

Mrs. P. J. Wessinger, cherries, 1st.

Mrs. B. J. Wessinger, assortment of preserves, 1st.

SALES DAY DRAWS LARGE CROWD

Several Tracts of Valuable Land Change Hands at Moderate Prices.

Monday, November salesday, drew a large crowd to Lexington, and, while the bidding was lively from start to finish, the lands sold did not bring their true value, showing that the price of cotton has caused a general depreciation in the price of real estate.

Clerk of Court Harmon made the following sales:

In the case of C. K. Lybrand et al. vs. J. W. Lybrand et al., one lot in the town of Swansea was sold to C. W. Hallman for $3,700.00.

In the same case, 60 acres lying near Swansea, was bid in by George Bell Timmerman, attorney, for $4,000.00.

In the case of S. E. Taylor against F. G. Hartley, lot in town of Summit was bid in by George Bell Timmerman, attorney, for $305.00.

Lot No. 2, in town of Summit, was bought by George Bell Timmerman, attorney, for $100.00.

Lot No. 3, containing six acres, was sold to Mike Anderson for $350.00.

Lot No. 4, in town of Summit, was sold to George Bell Timmerman, attorney, for $60.00.

In the case of P. J. Weatherford vs. Willie Saunders, lot in town of Swansea was sold to G. C. Furtick for $1,350.00.

Tract No. 2, containing 109 acres, was bought by C. M. Eflrd, attorney, for $2,100.00.

In the case of the Home National Bank of Lexington against F. G. Hartley, 626 acres, known as the ones place and located in Black Creek township, was bid in by C. M. Eflrd, attorney, for $12,000.00.

DEPUTY SHERIFF SOX LANDS TWO ROBBERS

Special to The Dispatch-News.

Cayce, Nov. 1.—Clever work on the part of Lexington county deputy sheriff, C. W. Sox, resulted in the capture of two negro robbers from Aiken county. Dave Jones and William Johnson, two negroes, who, after entering the store of J. W. Lybrand at Wagner, S. C., on Thursday, October 28, and making a haul of about $1,500 worth of merchandise, were picked up by Deputy Sheriff C. W. Sox as being suspicious characters as they came out of the woods to the main road. Mr. Sox, after making further search in the woods where these men were picked up, discovered a large amount of merchandise hidden. Not having any advise as to the robbery of the Lybrand store he was not aware that the goods he found belonged to Mr. Lybrand until Mr. Lybrand's name was noticed on some of the goods. Mr. Lybrand is now in possession of most of the goods that were stolen. It is thought that the two men caught are leaders of a gang and further arrests are expected which are thought to be in connection with some more robberies that have occurred in these parts recently.

1st; cherry pickle, 1st; fancy dressing, 2nd; blackberry cordial, 1st; wild cherry cordial, 1st; muscadine cordial, 1st; 1 pound print butter, 1st.

Mrs. P. J. Wessinger, quart plums, 1st and 2nd.

Mrs. E. C. Monts, quart sour cucumber pickle, 1st; quart pepper pickle, 2nd.

Mrs. A. L. Smith—Pound honey in comb, 1st.

Mrs. P. J. Wessinger, pint strained honey, 1st; quart vinegar, homemade, 1st.

S. L. Rawl—Pound crystallized fruit, 1st; pound hog lard, 1st; quart dried apples, 1st; bacon, 2nd.

D. F. Eflrd & Son—Ham, home cured, 2nd; bacon, one side, 1st.

Horse Department.

J. H. Bodie, colt two years old, 2nd; runabout, stallion, gelding or mare driven by lady, 2nd; five gaited stallion, gelding or mare, 3rd; combination five gaited stallion, gelding or mare, 2nd; three gaited stallion, gelding or mare, 1st; saddle stake, 3rd.

S. F. Corley—Single fine harness horse, 2nd; pair fine harness horses, 1st; pair roadsters, 2nd; single roadster, 3rd; single harness, stallion, gelding or mare, 2nd; double team, driven by lady, 1st; harness stake, 3rd.