FRENCH SOLDIERS MAY FILE APPEAL

Paris, April 23.—After the chamber of deputies adopted unanimously today an amendment to the amnesty bill, under which an appeal may be taken "from any and all sentences imposed by courts martial during the war upon the simple request of the soldier affected, if living, or his heirs if dead," the general amnesty bill was passed this afternoon...

Adoption of the amendment came after a dramatic speech by Deputy Jade of Finisterre, who commanded a company throughout the late war. He recalled that before Souain, in Champagne, orders came to execute a surprise attack in broad daylight without artillery preparation...

A few days later, continued the speaker, several men of the company were tried and shot, although a short time previously they had volunteered for dangerous and hazardous missions. Deputy Ignace, who had opposed the amendment, immediately moved its adoption...

GERMANS MENACE TWO AMERICANS

Berlin, April 26.—James E. Tobinson and his wife, residents of Chicago, were attacked by a crowd of German men, women and children Tuesday as they sat on the terrace of Sans Souci park, following the funeral of former Empress Augusta Victoria.

"The Americans were rescued by a security policeman and two German civilians, who looked arms and surrounded them, accepting a pelting of sticks, stones and umbrellas in defense of the couple, until they were able to escort them to the police in Potsdam. Here a patrol of extra policemen were summoned and dispersed the crowd...

"The Americans were not to blame and they desire that there be no further mention of the affair." "The mob," said Mr. Tobinson today, "was incited by an old woman who thought we were French. They attacked us and chased us from Sans Souci park to Potsdam. It is my belief that we would have been killed had it not been for the policemen and German civilians who protected us."

He declared he and his wife were born in Russia and live on Dearborn street, Chicago. He said he could speak neither Russian nor French. He is a naturalized American citizen.

LOOKING FOR BURIED TREASURE IN CEMETERY

Columbia, La., April 22.—Stories of a buried treasure in a local cemetery told by a negro on his deathbed, have caused many citizens of this city to start digging for hidden gold and silver which the negro claimed was buried in a long disused tomb. No trace of the wealth has yet been discovered, however.

Never Dies.

HUGHES SPEAKS FOR AUSTRALIA

Melbourne, April 23.—For Australia ever to take part in a struggle with the United States was something unthinkable and out side the bounds of possibility, declared William M. Hughes, premier of the commonwealth, in concluding the debate in the house of representatives today on the coming imperial conference at which Premier Hughes is to represent Australia.

The subject of the Anglo-Japanese treaty was prominently discussed and in alluding to it the prime minister said:

"I have said repeatedly that the chief problem before Great Britain is to draw up a treaty which will not involve us or Britain in a struggle with the people of the United States. The hope of the world depends upon some sort of an understanding between America and the empire and it is to find a way of realizing that hope that the minds of those attending the conference should be directed. It is unthinkable and not within the bounds of possibility that we should never take part in a struggle against America. We can not be bound by any treaty which we do not ourselves ratify, although the political consequences between Britain and America whether Japan was or was not her ally would of course have to be faced by us."

"But even if this treaty be renewed it will not bind Australia to go to war with any country in the world. The last thing that any British government would think of would be war with the only nation, which, with ourselves, could hope to maintain the peace of the world. An understanding with America is essential and we can not afford to quarrel with Japan. Australia, however, must stand by her own ideals."

The prime minister's statement was brought out by expression of apprehension on the part of some of the labor members in connection with the treaty renewal discussion that Australia might be drawn into a war with the United States.
