LEXINGTON, SOUTH CAROLINA, WEDNESDAY, APRIL 5, 1922.

NUMBER 24.

Samuel J. Leaphart Nominated For United States Marshal

here of the nomination of Sam J. Leaphart to be United States Marshal for the Eastern District of South Carolina. The announcement was concurrent with that of the nomination of Major J. D. E. Meyer of Charleston to be District Attorney for the same district. There is little senate.

Much interest has obtained as to the possible successors of Attorney Weston and Marshal Sims-the two places being of great importance, and perhaps the most desirable to be filled by the administration in this part of the State.

To Sam Leaphart, life-long Lex-Ingtonian, prominent citizen and successful business man, comes a high honor; that he will discharge his duties with credit to himself and honor to the country is to say the least of it. Mr. Leaphart is receiving the congratulations of his many friends in Lexington, and from all sections of South Carolina. The president could hardly have made a more satisfactory appointment of a Marshal for this district. Sam Leaphart is known far and wide, and most of his acquaintances are his friends. He comes to his new duties well prepared; rich in experience; and full of activity. He possesses just the right balance of human sympathy and determination to make him an ideal officer.

Dr. C. E. Leaphart, long a com- ingtonian.

DEATH OF MISS SARAH ELIZABETH HARMAN

Information has just been received, manding figure in the life of the town and county. His family connections Lyceum course is one of the most are wide and prominent. He takes his new office at the age of 42, and will be able to draw on a rich field of experiences. Mr. Leaphart received his early training in the public schools of Lexington, and later entered the old South Carolina college doubt but that these appointments (now the university) and graduated bination-are delgihtfully united in will be promptly confirmed by the therefrom, with honors, in the class of the programs of The Artists' Trio

1898. He then returned to Lexington, and in 1902 was appointed postmaster to fill out the unexpired term of his father who died in office. He was re-appointed for the full term and held the office continuously until 1915. As postmaster, he was efficient and accommodating, he became associated with the Lexington Dispatch-News of which he was editor and general manager for a period of four years. In this field, he put his characteristic efforts into play and attained enviable success in the newspaper world. He later sold his interests in the paper and was one of the organizers of the present Lexington Cotton & Fertilizer Company, with which he has remained until the present time. In addition to his many other duties, he has all the while operated his farm, and has never lost touch with the agricultural Arts Conservatory, Chicago.' interests.

Mr. Leaphart will enter upon his new dúties as soon as he receives his commission, and his many friends here hope that as United States Mar-Mr. Leaphart is a son of the late shal, he will continue to be a Lex-

Picture Show For Lexington Soon

The work of converting the storeroom formerly occupied by Chas. E. Taylor into a moving picture house is progressing rapidly and all will be in readiness for the opening of the show next Thursday night, April 13. Messrs. Lem Hall and Lester C. Miller propose to give Lexington an up-to-date picture show. Nothing but first-class, clean pictures will be shown, and as a beginner they have booked a serial picture of Biblical history from the beginning of time up to the present which will begin Saturday night, April 15, and continue with one instalment a week thereafter until completed.

At the first the show will open only three days each week, Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday, with two shows each day, 7:30 and 9:00 p. m. The regular price of admission will be 10 and 25 cents.

DEMOCRATIC CLUBS MEET THIS MONTH

H. N. Edmunds, secretary of the state Democratic executive committee, yesterday addressed a letter to all the county chiarmen of the Democratic party in the state calling their attention to the fact that the various Demcoratic clubs are to meet on the fourth Saturday of this month for reorganization and to elect delegates to the county conventions.

The county conventions are to be held on the first Monday in May throughout the state and the state convention will be held on the third Wednesday in May.

Mr. Edmunds' letter sent out to the county chairmen is as follows:

Edmunds' Letter.

"I beg to call your attention to the fact that the time is approaching for the calling together of the clubs in which rule reads as follows: 'The clubs shall meet on the fourth Saturday in April of each election year for the reorganization: Provided, That the county committee may name any other day within the same week for such club meeting by giving at least two weeks' notice by advertisement in one or more county papers. In case any existing club shall fail to reorganize on the day fixed, the county committee may fix a day for such club to meet for reorganization by giving two weeks' notice, as pro-

Cousia Lizzle was always timid and very reserved, but good natured and kind. She spent considerable of her time in our home, as a member of the family, and was beloved and respected not only by them, but by every one who knew her.

She was first a devoted member of St. Stephen's church, but long since transferred her membership Providence to which she was a faithful member until her death.

She leaves to mourn her loss, brother, T. S. Harman, cousins, M. D. and G. M. Harman, and a number of nephews, neices and other relatives with a host of friends.

She was buried Wednesday evening at 3 o'clock, at Providence church. Rev. O. B. Shearouse, her pastor, officiating.

DEATH OF MRS. MARY HARMAN

Mary Elizabeth Gable Harman, wife of Joseph Harman, deceased, was born on July 31st, 1848, and departed this life at the home of her son, W. Scott Harman at Lexington, April 5th, 1922. Thus making her earthly pilgrimage 73 years, 8 months, and 5 days.

She leaves to mourn her dearture seven sons, as follows: J. A., W. S. Major and Edwin of Lexington: Perry of Summitt, Allen of Atlanta, Ga.; Olin of Augusta, Ga.; and one daughter, Mrs. Leila Koon of Pond Branch. Her husband, one son and one daughter preceded her to the spirit land. She also leaves one brother and three sisters, 49 grand children and 11 great grand children, with a host of relatives and friends, who will miss her kindly face and helping hand.

Mrs. Harman was a consistent member of St. James Lutheran church of Summit, at which place she will be laid to rest at 10 o'clock, April 6th, 1922. The funeral services will be conducted by Rev. Obenschain of Lexington assisted by her pastor, Rev. Wise.

The following will act as pall bear ers: H. N. Kaminer, W. E. Sawyer J. W. Smith, Lewie Hall, R. F. Roberts, and J. W. Nipper.

"A Prarie Rose," a four act play will be given by local talent at Centre school house on Saturday, April 15 beginning at 8 o'clock p. m. Refreshments, will also be served during the evening.

offices of Efird & Carroll Saurday. afternoon at 4 o'clock The meeting is called for the purpose of transacting business pertaining to the association and also to perfect plans for sending a float 'o Palmafesta in Columbia. The majority of counties will be represented at Palmafesta by floats, and it is a well known fact that Lexington can compete with any to of them. Last year at the state fair Lexington county won all the prizes offered for the community fair exhibits, and it is not too much to say that if we go after this in the same spirit the chances are we will bring away the $500 offered for the best float at Palmafesta. All interested in seeing Lexington go, over the top are urged to attend the meeting Saturday afternoon, regardless of whether you are a member of the fair executive committee or not.
