Died Tuesday.

Around ten o'clock Tuesday night, August 29, 1922, the soul of George Marion Corley took its flight to God. He had been a great sufferer for many months and the end, though a great shock, was not unexpected. Mr. Corley was the son of Samuel and Nancy Wingard Corley. He was born May 25, 1834, being 88 years, 3 months and 4 days old at the time of his death. He was one of a family of ten children, six boys and four girls. Four brothers and two sisters, his father and mother preceded him to the spirit land. Two aged sisters and 1 brother survive him. Although a cripple he served throughout the war between the states-1861-'65. He was first in Gibbes Company, 1st Regiment, then in Company K, 5th Cavalry, South Carolina Volunteers. Another brave soldier has left the "thin gray ranks" to join the other comrades who "rest under the shade of the trees."

All his life save the years '61-'65 were spent on his farm near Lexington, South Carolina. He was a humble Christian farmer who was loved and respected by all who knew him.

On January 21, 1869, he was married to Caroline Taylor. To this union were born seven children, four sons and three daughters. Two sons and one daughter went on before him the state yet to be reported, the total years ago. He leaves also nine grand-children, four great grand children with a host of other relatives and friends to grieve over broken ties. Five grand children and one great grand child preceded him to the grave also.

The survivors in his immediate family are his aged wife, Mrs. Caroline Corley, his sons, George W. Cor- George K. Laney, 20,638; William ley, Jr., S. M. Corley, his daugh- Coleman, 3,469; John T. Duncan, 1, made his second appearance before ters, Mrs. W. A. Harmon and Mrs. M. B. Cope of Port Royal, S. C.

The surviving brother and sisters are Paul Corley and Misses Annie and Mary Corley

He was baptized in infancy and con firmed at Nazareth E. L. church in early youth? Later he moved his membership to St. Stephen's E. L hurch, where he was a devoted and faithful member until death.

The funeral services were conducted at the home by his pastor, Rev A.-B. Obenschain, assisted by Rev. W. C. Wallace, pastor of Lexington Baptist church. The interment was in the family burying ground near the residence. The floral offerings were many and beautiful.

He was carried to the grave by hi grandsons, grand sons-in-law, nephew and one son.

Under a mound of beautiful flow ers, his loved ones and friends left him to await the resurrection morn ing.

BUFF-KIP.

A marriage of interest to a wide circle of friends was that of Miss Ruth Buff of Lexington to Lester Kip of New Jersey, which took place at the parsonage of the Main Street Methodist church in Columbia, Sunday afternoon, August 20, at 4 o'clock. In the presence of a few relatives and intimate friends the impressive ring ceremony of the Methodist church was performed by the pastor, the Rev. R. S. Truesdale.

The bride, a dainty blonde, was attired for travel in a suit of dark blue poiret twill. Her hat was particularly becoming and she carried a lovely bouquet of bride roses and fern. Her only ornament was a handsome rope of pearls, the gift of the bridegroom

The bride is the only daughter o Mr. and Mrs. John E. Buff of near Lexington, and is a young woman o charming personality whose friends regret that her marriage takes her so far away.

Mr. Kip is a descendant of an old Dutch family of New York and is now engaged in the automobile business in Freehold, N. J.

The happy couple left on a northbound train immediately after the ceremony. They will spend their honeymoon in Washington, D. C., on day or two another one is heard of. the Jersey coast, and in New York City, where they will visit the bride- dogs shut up and a close watch on groom's mother.
