LOCAL PARAGRAPHS PICKED UP
HERE, THERE AND EVERYWHERE

Miss Kate Moore of Fork is spending the week in town.

S. J. Moore of Rowland, N. C. was a Sunday visitor to Dillon.

Wm. James spent Sunday with his mother in Darlington.

Miss Callie Holland spent several days this week in Pittsboro, N. C.

The Embroidery club will meet at 3 o'clock Monday afternoon at the home of W. W. Jordan's.

I. F. Stanton and Miss Annie Belle Stanton spent the week with friends in Elrod, N. C.

Rev. W. C. Kirkland is recovering after an illness of several days.

Miss Grace Bethea of Mar's Bluff is the guest of Miss Janie Bethea.

Mrs. Le Roy Williams spent several days this week with relatives in Fairmont, N. C.

Dr. J. H. David and Mr. T. A. Dillon were in Columbia Monday on business.

The Civic League meets Wednesday afternoon at 3:30 in the town hall; all members are requested to be present.

Mrs. M. F. Barnes and Miss M. E. Bauman spent Sunday at the home of Mrs. Barnes' parents in Clarkton, N. C.

Rev. A. E. Spencer of Florence is conducting a meeting at the Presbyterian Church. The meetings are held afternoon and night and are being well attended.

Rev. Robert Adams, President of the Presbyterian College of South Carolina at Clinton, filled the pulpit at the Presbyterian Church Sunday.

Col. A. E. Montague, representing the new railroad, arrived in town Saturday and joined Mr. W. M. Hamer, Dr. David and Dr. Stackhouse, the right-of-way committee, and discussed plans for securing the right-of-way for the new road. The committee is now actively at work and hope to be able to make a favorable report in a few days.

Mr. Bascom Meares and Miss Susie Huggins of Lumberton were united in the holy bonds of matrimony at the Price Court Inn Monday morning. It was another case of parental objection and a romantic flight across the border line to the state where marriage certificates are unnecessary and divorces are never granted. The ceremony was very gracefully performed by the Rev. Dr. Joe Cabell Davis, Notary Public.

On the 2nd instant at the home of the bride at Marietta, N. C., Miss Belle McQueen and Mr. T. B. Campbell were happily married. The groom is a native of Dillon. After the ceremony and a brief reception the bride and groom came on to Dillon and are now residing at the home of Mr. Niel Campbell, father of the groom. Mr. and Mrs. Campbell will make their future home on the Jackson place near Little Rock.

The store of Graham Bros. in the Bracy block was entered Monday night and robbed of three sacks of flour, 15 pounds of tobacco and a side of meat. These were the only articles missing but it is probable that the robbers got other goods. The entrance was made through the back door. A pane of glass was taken out and the robbers crawled through the aperture and then unlocked the door. There was no clue to the robbers. The Messrs. Graham moved to Dillon about Jan. 1st. from Hamer where they had been running a saw mill.

The "Embroidery Club"

The Embroidery Club had a most delightful meeting on Monday afternoon with Mrs. A. J. Evans. An unusually pleasant program had been arranged. There was reading by Mrs. C. R. Tabor, and Mrs. J. V. Malcolm sang charmingly. Mrs. D. N. Oliver planned a catching selection. Mrs. Evans then served a delicious meat course which was enjoyed by Mesdames D. N. Oliver, J. V. Malcolm, M. Jordan, M. C. Tolar, R. M. O'Ferrall, Truss Bethea, and C. R. Tabor. Mrs. Evans' invited guests to Club were Mesdames E. T. Elliott, D. M. Michaux, C. L. Browne and W. T. Bethea.

Civic League Notes

The Oyster Supper has been postponed from Friday evening until a later date, on account of the services going on at the Presbyterian Church.

The regular meeting of the League will be held Thursday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock.

Important matters are to be discussed and all the members are urged to be present.

No Credit.

The public will please take notice that hereafter no school books will be sold on credit. There has been so much confusion of accounts where the purchases have been made by school children by authority of their parents that we deem it only business-like hereafter to sell school books for CASH only. This rule applies to everybody and we trust that none of our friends will take offense at our refusal to extend them credit after the publication of this notice.

HERALD BOOK & STATIONERY CO.

Notice.

On Friday evening, Feb. 19th, the Little Rock High School will give an entertainment in the school building. The program consists of songs, plays, dialogues, tableaux, etc., which will prove very interesting.

A special feature of the entertainment will be the male quartette composed of Messrs. Garrett, Smith, Barrington and Britt. Excellent music will be furnished.

A small admission will be charged for the benefit of the school library. Your presence is requested.
