

At the Opera House.

On next Friday night, the 26th, the beautiful comedy drama, "Ingomar, the Barbarian" will be presented at the Opera House, by Mr. and Mrs. Edourd D'Oize of Baltimore, well and favorably remembered in Dillon on account of their memorable presentation here last year of the great play, "Damon and Pythias."

"Ingomar" is a play that one never tires of seeing, and it never fails to please the most critical audience. It will be given at the Opera House for the benefit of the Graded School Grounds.

Mr. D'Oize will appear as the Barbarian Chief, Ingomar, in which part he will be seen to the best advantage. Mrs. D'Oize will play the part of Parthenia, the beautiful Greek heroine, who gives herself up to the Barbarian tribe to rescue her aged father from slavery.

Prof. W. W. Nickels for the part of Ingomar's lieutenant, Aastor; Dr. Michaux will be Myron, the father of Parthenia and Miss Michaux will be Acter, his wife. Professor Gentry has the part of mayor of the ancient city of Massilia.

The others in the cast include Miss Nettie McKenzie, Prof. Hays, W. A. Blizzard, Ben Badger, Jack Moody, John David, Reuben Moody, Earl Bethea, Roy Moore.

Handsome costumes will be worn. The seats will be on sale at Brunson's Drug Store, Thursday morning. Prices, reserved seats 50 and 75 cents; general admission 25 and 35 cents.

Civic League Reception.

One of the most brilliant affairs that has ever taken place in Dillon was the reception given on Friday afternoon by the members of the Civic League to the ladies of Dillon. The officers of the League, Mesdames L. Cottingham, F. B. David, C. R. Taber and D. M. Michaux received at the main entrance and Mesdames C. S. Browne and A. J. Evans stood at the first landing of the stairs to conduct the guests to the parlor. Mesdames E. T. Elliott, P. B. Sellers, W. Murchison, W. T. Bethea, and Miss Nettie McKenzie entertained in the parlor.

A table was fixed in a side door upon which was an elegant cut glass bowl from which Misses Virginia Niernsee and Annie Alford served punch in a very graceful manner.

When a number of the guests had arrived, refreshments of cream and cake were served in the dining room where Mr. Carmichael furnished sweet music with a phonograph. After the guests returned to the parlor the following delightful program was given:

1. A splendidly written paper "Purpose and work of the League" read by Mrs. L. Cottingham.
2. Piano Solo, Miss Baughman.
3. "Work of the Civic League" an able paper, Mrs. P. B. Sellers.
4. Piano Duet, Misses Eulah and Beulah Braddy.
5. Vocal Solo, "My Dear," Miss Ethel Fitzgerald.
6. Piano Solo, Mrs. Willis.
7. Piano Solo, Miss Rena Bracy.

This reception seems to have awakened more interest in Civic League work. Twelve new members gave in their names and many declared their intention of joining.

All those present spent a charming afternoon, and gave the credit to Mr. and Mrs. Jones, managers of the Price Court Inn, and the Civic League members.
