HERE, THERE AND EVERYWHERE

Prof. Sinclair Haves spent Sunday in Mullins.

Mrs. O'Delle of Latta was in town shopping Monday.

Miss Maud Daniel of Mullins visited in town Monday.

Misses Lucile and Hazel Mullins are guests of Mrs. Phil Osteen.

Mr. Fred Lane and Miss Bessie Lane spent Sunday in Fayetteville.

John Ivey of Clio is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Alford.

Miss Dora Bennett of Sumter is visiting friends in town this week.

Messrs. C. S. Dwight and W. E. James spent Sunday in Darlington.

Miss Violet Duval of Mobile Ala., is visiting her sister, Mrs. L. R. Craig.

Miss Anna McLeod of Lumberton is visiting her sister Mrs. W. L. Bethea.

Miss Beulah Mason who has been teaching at Lamar is home for the holidays.

Miss Mary Carter has completed her studies at the Columbia Female College and is at home again.

Rev. J. A. Wilson will preach in the Latta Presbyterian church on next Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

Do not forget to get your tickets early for the concert by Furman Glee Club next Friday night. The seats are going, get yours.

No lovers of music and mirth should miss the entertainment Friday evening. Engage your seats at Brunson's Drug Store.

The union services will be held in the Presbyterian church on next Sunday night at 8 o'clock conducted by Rev. H. A. Willis. Special music will be rendered.

Mrs. Sydney Stubbs and Mrs. Alston Stubbs of Sumter and Mrs. Henry Buck of Marion spent one day last week the guests of Mrs. Bucks parents, Dr. and Mrs. B. M. Badger.

Rev. J. A. Hursey, accompanied by Rev. W. C. Wallace, left this morning for Rocky Mount, N. C., where Mr. Hursey is taking his son Frank, four years old, to be treated for spinal trouble by Dr. Carson, the famous Osteopathist.

The public is invited to attend exercises commemorating the formal opening of the handsome new Baptist church at Latta next Sunday morning. This is one of the handsomest houses of worship in the Pee Dee country and was erected at a cost of $15,000.

Francis Marion Crawford, the great novelist who died in Italy the other day, was a lineal descendant of Gen. Francis Marion, of Revolutionary fame, for whom Marion county is named. Some years ago Mr. Crawford visited Charleston and there had the pleasure of meeting many of his kin-men who were also descendants of the Revolutionary hero.

Monday afternoon while the mercury was dancing dangerously near the 70 mark a boy came into The Herald office bearing a wafer on which were four saucers of delicious ice cream for The Herald force, with the compliments of Dr. A. J. Evans. The cream was greatly enjoyed by the employees and especially by the office "devil" who went into spasms because nature had not made his neck as long as giraffes in order that he might enjoy the cream longer as it disappeared down his throat. The Herald force is unanimous in the opinion that Dr. Evans is the kindest and most thoughtful man in town.

The Embroidery club was delightfully entertained on last Monday afternoon at the Presbyterian Manse by Mrs. J. A. Wilson. Ice cream and cake were served by Misses Nellie Sprunt and Jeanette McKenzie. Those whose pleasure it was to enjoy Mrs. Wilson's hospitality were: Mesdames D. N. Oliver, L. Williams, J. W. King, C. R. Taber, Miss Bonnie Anderson, and Misses Isla and Jeanette McKenzie.

McRay Refrigerators are delightful and save one half your ice bill. Dillon Hdw. Co.

WHY HIGH ART CLOTHING IS FAMOUS.

Back of the popularity of High Art Clothing, back of its choice by the particular men of this community, back of the satisfaction which it invariably gives, is the most artful handwork.

The famous High Art front is so skillfully constructed that a well-setting, shape-retaining coat is assured;

The famous High Art collar hugs the neck closely. The famous High Art lapels, with long, soft rolls, lie flat on the chest;

The famous High Art shoulder sits high, giving that full chested appearance, and made in such a way as to hold its natural shape.

Indeed, every detail stamps High Art Clothing as artistically accurate, fulfilling the requirements of the most exacting to a marked degree, and bringing out the very best side of the wearer's personality.

The new Spring models include some ultra good things for young men---worth seeing!
