

K. of P. Convention.

The District Convention Knights of Pithias will meet in Dillon Nov 17 and 18th. At the last convention of Dillon Lodge the following Committee were appointed to make the necessary arrangements: Committee to secure homes for Delegates: M H Moody, W C Bracey, W A Blizzard, J A McCormac, J F Smith, D V Hamilton, W T Bethea, A C Gentry, H K Cottingham, A B Jordan, C L Wheeler, Entertainment Committee: J Allen, M A Stubbs, E L Moore, Morris Fass, W T Bethea, A B Jordan.

The Herald man was approached by David Edens the other day and requested to announce that his name was not "Sorry" but "David" and that hereafter he wanted the public to address him by his right name. "Sorry" is a nickname some of his companions gave him several years ago and it has stuck to him like a poor relation. David says "fun" is "fun" but when they tack a nickname like "Sorry" on to a fellow it is exceeding the bounds of discretion. The Herald takes sides with David in the matter and insists that the public drop the nickname or pick out one more appropriate to the man. David is an industrious boy and does not deserve any such nickname as "Sorry."

MISS MABEL McKINLEY The American Soprano

Important among Theatrical Engagements in Dillon is the coming of Miss Mable McKinley favorite niece of our martyred President (William McKinley) on which occasion she and her company of artists will present Grand Opera in concert. The Organization will give 60 concerts between New York and Cuba and will come direct from New York to this city. Miss McKinley will appear here by popular vote of the public, a personal subscription having been made which includes the leading citizens of this city. Miss McKinley is now conceded by the most severe critics to rank with such artists as Melba, Schuman Heink and others and her appearance is always hailed with delight and with as much enthusiasm and applause as Nordica and Calve who have sung before her on previous occasions and the Cuban Star at Havana has styled her as the American Melba and one of the greatest singers of modern times. I trust my efforts in securing this attraction will be appreciated, and I wish to thank the public for their liberal subscription, thus showing that such great artists are appreciated in this city.

No one admitted between acts. Reservation of seats at Brunson's Drug Store—50c., 75c. and $1.00. Performance given at Dillon Opera House. Doors open 7:15; Curtain 8:15; Respectfully yours, C. T. O'FERRALL, Mgr. Dillon Opera House.

Sad Death.
On last Saturday morning about 9 A. M. a young man, an industrious man, he was picking cotton in Mr Frank Herring's cotton patch when taken ill. He leaves no family. He was liked by all who knew him. W J H

LIFE INSURANCE THE SURE PROTECTION.

Occasionally one runs across a man who declines to protect those dependent upon him by insuring his life. He thinks insurance on his residence and other personal property is necessary—but insure his life, never! This illogical and unwise man proudly boasts of his health and strength and of his ability to care for his family under any and all circumstances. Apparently he is unmindful of the fact that so often death comes without warning and that even a hard earned competence may fade away in a night.

It is the insurance policy alone that endures; it is the only sure barrier against the encroachments of poverty and want. No man in moderate circumstances can afford to ignore this stern fact. Self-reliance is a fine thing in life, but it is not a tangible asset in the hour of death.

THE BEST IN LIFE INSURANCE.

The best life insurance policy is that one which gives the greatest amount of protection for the money expended. Any agent can figure out an estimate showing that his company PROMISES the most, but any intelligent person can see for himself that the policies of the Greensboro Life Insurance Company GUARANTEE MORE than the policies of the other company.
