

Come Come EVERYBODY!

The Greatest Bargains Will be Offered at

MORRIS FASS'

The reason is because he has just returned from New York where he purchased at one of the biggest bankrupt sales in the history of the city enough and child in Marion County. Don't take his word for it, but read the following from the New York American:

Clothing, - Dry Goods, - Shoes, - Hats, - Etc.

Peremptory Auction Sale, The Largest and Finest Stock of MEN'S YOUTHS' BOYS' AND CHILDREN'S Suits, Overcoats, Etc.

Ever offered at Public Auction.
Manufactured by one of the largest Broadway houses.
INVENTORIED AT $100,000
H. Karp, Auctioneer, Sells to-day, Thursday, Oct. 28, 1909,
At 10 A. M., at Salesrooms, 13 and 15 Lispenard St., 1st Floor.
4,500 Men's Fall and Winter Overcoats, 5,000 Men's Suits,
12,000 Young Men's Suits—Worsted, Clays, Serges, Homespun, &c.;
11,000 Children's Suits, 4,000 Children's Overcoats, 2,000 Cravenettes.
Above lines are this season's production, all regular and complete lines of sizes, prevailing shades and styles. This particular offering is without doubt the finest line this season and commands attention of up-to-date buyers.
Terms of sale, net cash. H. KARP, Telephone 2934—Franklin.

Lion Collars

This is the very sale he attended and this is where he bought more dry goods, clothing, shoes, hats men's wear, etc. than he needs at less than 60 cents on the dollar. Now is

YOUR OPPORTUNITY

Of course you will have to have winter clothing. Why pay two prices for it, or why pay as much as you have been paying? He is not giving goods away, but because he bought them at one of the biggest bargain sales ever held in New York he can afford to sell them cheaper than the other fellow can buy them and still make a bigger profit. The goods are arriving daily. Don't fail to come and see them before they are picked over. Remember those are the biggest bargains ever offered in Marion county and if you fail to attend it you will regret it when your neighbors tell you about it.