

AROUND ABOUT TOWN
LOCAL PARAGRAPHS PICKED UP
HERE, THERE AND EVERYWHERE

Mrs. T. L. Manning has returned from a visit to relatives at Leaksville, N. C., and Danville, Va.

Mrs. Wade Hampton, Jr., of Danville, Va., is the guest this week of her sister-in-law, Mrs. A. B. Jordan.

The Holliday Co. are erecting a 30x150 addition to their stables which will be used for the storing of vehicles.

Charlie Saleeby has purchased from J. B. Gibson the lot next to the Herald Book Store and will erect thereon a store building after Jan. 1st.

The Civic League will hold a meeting on Thursday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock in Dr. Michaux's office. A full attendance is requested to discuss important matters.

Dr. H. N. Snyder filled the pulpit at the Methodist church Sunday morning and delivered a most excellent talk which was greatly enjoyed by a large congregation.

Mr. H. M. Pemberton, of Fayetteville, is in town this week exhibiting a line of handsome Kimball pianos. The instruments are on display at Bell & Jordan's jewelry store, next door to the Herald Book Store.

Hamer & Bonsall's land sale at Little Rock last Thursday was largely attended and all of the lots offered were promptly taken up at good prices. The general impression is that Little Rock has a future and there seems to be no disposition on the part of those who bought lots to re-sell. The total sales amounted to about $15,000.

L. C. Braddy has sold his mercantile business to Messrs. Blum & Goldstien and after Jan. 1st. will retire from business and devote his time to his fine plantation near Little Rock. During the several years he has been conducting business "on the corner" he has built up an excellent trade and he leaves the mercantile field only because he desires more outdoor exercise.

The Dillon Herald $1.50 a year.
