

AROUND ABOUT TOWN
LOCAL PARAGRAPHS PICKED UP
HERE, THERE AND EVERYWHERE

The Y. W. A. of the Baptist church will have a public meeting at 4 o'clock Sunday afternoon. The subject of the meeting will be "Japan."

Mr. N. H. May who left Dillon about two years ago to go to Mullins and then later moved to Marion has returned to Dillon and will engage in the mercantile business.

Edwards, of the Dillon Live Stock Co., has returned from the west where he purchased 50 head of horses and mules. Mr. Edwards says snow was 12 inches deep in St. Louis.

Our rule is not to publish advertisements on the front page, but as Mr Blum kindly consented to let us omit his ad. from the "New County" issue in order to get in more New County news we are gladly giving him the most prominent space in the Herald this week.

The town has been without lights for several nights on account of an accident to the engine. One of the dynamos burnt out several weeks ago and patrons on the line connecting with this dynamo have been burning lamps and candles. Efforts are being made to install a new dynamo before the holidays arrive.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Thompson entertained a few friends at a delightful dinner at their home 3 miles from Dillon last Wednesday. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Bethea, Mr. and Mrs. C. T. O'Ferral, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Jordan, and Misses Norma and Sadie Hamer.

Mr. E. L. McDonald has been offered the agency of the A. C. L. at Clio, but Mr. McDonald is undecided whether he will leave Dillon or not. The offer of the Clio agency is in the line of a promotion and pays more salary than Mr. McDonald is receiving here as assistant to Agent Bridges, but Mr. McDonald likes Dillon to well to make the change, and now that we have a New County he sees too much promise in Dillon's future to leave. He is one of the most efficient men in the Coast Line service and not only Agent Bridges, but the entire town would hate to see him leave.

GONE WEST!
