FIGHT OVER TOMBSTONE.

One Injured and Another is in Jail -Location the Cause.

The State of Saturday says as the result of a disagreement over the location of a gravestone which they were placing over the last resting place of James Powers, Wade Aughtry is in jail and James Powers 18 suffering from a mysterious wound in the head. Powers had purchased a tombstone and Thursday he engaged Aughtry to go with him to place the stone at his father's grave in the Jackson Creek churchyard on the Two-Notch road, 10 miles from Columbia. While preparing for the installation a disagreement arose between the two and the subsequent events account for the injury to Powers.

Aughtry said that Powers carried a pint of whiskey with him and became under the influence of the liquor before they had succeeded in getting the stone erected. Aughtry claims that Powers insisted on putting the monument in the centre of the grave instead of at the head and that when Aughtry demurred became vexed and advanced with an open knife.

The accused says that he pushed Powers away from him, the man falling and striking his head upon a nearby headstone to a grave. When he arose he was bleeding and Aughtry brought him back to the city in the wagon that had carried the gravestone out. Aughtry, is charged with assault and battery with intent to kill and was placed in jail on a warrant issued by Magistrate Easterling. The wound is not a serious one, but Aughtry will be held to await developments.

Rates Given For Teachers.

Columbia, Special.-All railroads in South Carolina have granted holiday rates on account of the annual convention of the State Teachers' association of South Carolina, which meets in Columbia December 30, 31, and January 1, and tickets will be on sale December 30 at all stations. Indications point to a record-breaking attendance. Although there were more than 600 educators here last year, if the weather remains fair this large number will be exceeded. A. R. Banks of the arrangement committee is busy engaging lodging for those who have written to him. Ample provision has been made for all who attend, many homes having expressed their willingness to take care of from two to 12 boarders for the occasion. In addition to private houses there will be ample acommodations at the hotels and boarding
