COLORADO'S BURNING MOUNTAIN.

ft Has Been On Fire for Over a Hundred Years.

A mountain, which has been on fire for more than one hundred years, is situated just west of here. So close is it that its shadow envelopes the town at 5 p. m. at this time of the year, and yet the people hereabouts think no more of 't than of the beautiful Grand river which washes the feet of the huge pile where the fire has burned so long. To the tenderfoot, however, the glittering patches of deep red fire, where it breaks out on the side of the mountain, and is exposed to view, there is nothing in all this state quite its equal.

The fire is fed by a big vein of coal which the mountain contains. Just how the coal became ignited is not known. The oldest resident says it was on fire when he came here, and the Ute Indians, who once lived in this section. say it was burning many years before the first white man crossed the continental divide. The supposition is that the coal was ignited by a forest fire at an early date in the present century.

It has smoldered and steadily burned until this day. At night, when the moon is dark, is the best time to see the fire. Then it is that it resembles the regions of inferno as given us in the word-painting of Dante. The earth covering the coal is loosened by the heat and falls away, exposing the sheet of fire.

The escaping gas probably assists in stripping off the rocks and dirt, and wherever the vein of coal approaches the surface the fire can be seen. The first fire I saw was fully 50 feet square, It had a peculiar red tint, while the burning gas coming up at the base of the coal vein added a bright blue colorlag to the scene. In many places the surface of the mountain has sunken. showing where the fire has burned out Its course.

Efforts have been made to extinguish the fire. Some time ago a company which owns a large amount of coal land here constructed a ditch from a point several miles above the mountain into which it succeeded in turning the water which goes to form Elk creek.

Previously a shaft had been sunken in the mountain, and into this shaft the water was permitted to flow. The shaft was soon filled, but the fire was above the level of the water, and the effort was a failure .- Newcastle corre-"udence Kansas City World.

Elmira's Executive Accused of Forgery by a Young Woman.

HE IS HELD IN $10,000 BAIL

Miss Loonie, Who Has Been Convicted and Sentenced For Forgery, Said to Have Implicated Dr. Flood in Her Crime-Alderman McCann, the Mayor's Political Enemy, Secured the Warran

Elmira, N. Y. (Special).-Dr. Frank H. Flood, Mayor of Elmira, a respect ed citizen, a husband and father of a family, was arrested on a warrant charging him with forgery. Mayor Flood's arrest is the result of the sentence to Auburn Prison for four years and nine months of Miss Catherine Loonie, a pretty and well-educated young Elmira woman, who stands con victed of offering for record forged deeds to property to which she had no claim, knowing they were forgeries Miss Loonie has made a confession implicating Mayor Flood in her crimes and declaring she was largely under his influence at the time they were committed.

The warrant for Mayor Flood's ar rest was issued by Recorder Michael Danaher upon a complaint sworn to by Alderman Francis McCann, of the Fourth Ward. The warrant charges forgery in the first degree. Mayor flood was arraigned before Recorder Danaher and upon waiving examination, was held to await the action of the next Grand Jury. Bail was fixed at $10,000. Former Congressman T. S. Flood, a cousin of the layor: Judson H. Clark and Fire Commissioner La

'rance signed the bail bond. The story of Catherine Loonie and her arrest and conviction is a singular one The young woman is a lifelong resident of Elmira, and was graduated from Notre Dame Academy. The deeds she has been convicted of forging transferred real estate in this owned by Miss Margaret G. Kennedy of Binghamion, to Miss Loonie. After they had been filed Miss Loonie obtained a loan of $2,600 on the property from the Elmira Savings Bank,

The forgery was brought to light when Miss Kennedy called at the office of a local insurance company to re-new policies on the buildings. Ther-Then she was told by the agent that she did not own the property, it having been transferred by her to Miss Loonie. Miss Kennedy at once instituted an nvestigation, which resulted in Miss Loonie's arrest.

She finally made a confession to District Attorney Aldridge, in which, it was said, she implicated Mayor Flood n the crime. When brought into the County Court she pleaded guilty, and was sentenced to four years and nine nonths in Auburn prison. She was to have been taken there Monday, but I. J. Hassett, an attorney, acting for Alderman Francis McCann, of the Ward, obtained from Judge ourth Charles R. Pratt. a writ of habeas orpus for Miss Loonie. She then was aken before Recorder Danaher, and was examined with regard to her afidavit and confession in the hands of he District Attorney. She reiterated his testimony, and signed each page washington, D. C. (Special). - The unnual report of the Treasurer of the United States, Ellis H. Roberts, on the operations and conditions of the Treas iry, was submitted to Secretary Gage. The net ordinary revenues of the lovernment for the fiscal year were 5567.240,852, the largest in the history of the country, exceeding those of 1866, the next highest, by $47,291,288, The increase of $51,280,232 over the preceding year was contributed from all the general sources, but chiefly from customs and internal revenues. On the side of the expenditures there was a net increase of $117,358,388, in comparison with 1899, so that the deficiency of $89,111,560 for that year was converted into a surplus of $79,-527,060 in 1900.
